CHURCH NOTES

RADIANT LIVING

Beauty more than skindeep

By Rev. C. M. Griffeth
Pastor Calvary M. E. Church
Sudlersville, Md.

You have often heard that beauty is only skin deep. I believe that such a statement as this was originated by some one who was jealous of the beauty of another. It smacks of being a sourgrape expression and there is not a word of truth in it.

True beauty is more than skin deep because the outer form is based upon the inner structure. The secret of beauty of form lies in the proper curvature of facial lines. These lines of curve are based to a large extent upon the proportionate shape of the bones of the skull.

If the cranial framework is not symetrical, the lines of facial beauty will not be harmonious.

But the secret of facial beauty however lies even deeper than the structural framework of the skull. It lies in the quality of the thoughts that are kept in the mind and in the emotional nature that is given habitual expression.

One can not give liberty to obscene thought, nor can he let jealously, anger, or hatred have a free hand within the emotional nature without marrying the beauty of the coutenance.

If we would have an indescribable beauty of face we must cultivate an immaculate beauty of heart.

No one can maintain an outward beauty who is developing an inward ugliness.

Be beautiful within and the radiance of that beauty will shine forth upon the outward countenance giving it a brightness that is attractive and a sweetness that is winsome.

GALENA M. E. CHURCH
Walter G. Barlow, Pastor

A brother Minister referring to our last week's church notice said, "Surely the devil never takes a vacation." This is a challenge to every Christian and every church worker—not only a challenge but a responsibility—to see to it that "vacation time" may not be an "idling time", nor a "going into reverse time," as concerns our personal Christian experience and the workings of God's Gospel 'Machinery.'

Services at Galena Sunday, August 29—Sunday School at 10:00 A. M.; Morning Worship at 11:00 o'clock. No evening service.

At Locust Grove service will be held from three until four o'clock in the afternoon.

EMMANUEL P. E. CHURCH
Chestertown, Md.
Rev. Charles L. Atwater, Rector

Sunday, August 29—

8 A. M.—Holy Communion.

10:15 A. M.—Church School.

11 A. M.—Morning Prayer. Sermon by the Rector.

The Rector wishes to announce that beginning Sunday, September 5, the evening services at 7:30 will be resumed, as will all the regular services and meetings. The Sunday School will go back to the 10 A. M. hour, and on this first Sunday in September the Sunday School Rally Day will be held, with special invitation to parents to be present.

This Sunday evening, at 7 P. M., will be the last Union Service in the Park, with the Rev. Mr. Roberts, of the M. P. Church, as preacher. As this is the last of the Summer Union Services, we hope for a large attendance and liberal offering. The services are more than worth while, from every point of view, but especially as a step towards Christian Unity. Those who believe that it is becoming more vitally necessary for the Christian Church to present a more united front to the forces of evil and wrong belief can help the cause no little by personal and financial support of these, and other, Union Services. The Courches will continue their Union Services on the first Wednesday of each month.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas blocks up your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sour, sunk and the world looks punk.

Laxatives are only makeshifts. A mere bowel movement doesn't get at the cause. It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." Harmless, gentle, yet amazing in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name. Stubbornly refuse anything else. 24

THOSE WHO REMAIN

When death visits a nome, the first concern is to perform the last service to the loved one in a becoming manner. What ever is done must express all the reverance and affection that is felt at such a time. But in addition to this a further responsibility rests upon the funeral director. It is his privilege and duty to lessen as far as lies with in his power, the burdens laid upon those who remain. By countless little acts of thoughtfulness he can make the way easier for them.

We consider this part of our work as important as any other. Our highest aim is to have our patrons look upon us as trusted friends, ready and anxious to render sympathetic assistance to those who remain behind.

Famous Engine Builder Inspects and Drives Gulf Marsh Buggy

Harry A. Miller, designer of racing car engines, received quite a thrill last week when he inspected and drove the Gulf Marsh Buggy during tests at the Gulf Oil Corporation's research laboratory near Pittsburgh. The unique vehicle, designed for the transportation of scientists seeking oil in the swamp areas of the Gulf coast, weighs approximately 8,000 pounds.

By virtue of its mammoth tires—the largest ever molded for commercial use—the Gulf Marsh Buggy can travel either in water or on land. In the upper left photograph, Mr. A. A. Lane, inventor of the unique vehicle, explains a technical point to two interested listeners, Mr. Miller (left) and Mr. R. J. S. Pigott, Gulf engineer, (right). Later, as shown below, Mr. Miller piloted the machine through a pond nearly six feet deep. "It doesn't have the speed of a racing car," said Mr. Miller, "but she's not a bit harder to handle."

An indication of the size of the buggy's tires can be obtained by comparing the size of the man (upper right), carrying a regulation tire for a Ford passenger car, with that of the giant balloon weighing approximately 350 pounds.
