URGE LIGHTS FOR CHESTER RIVER

No Funds Available Now

The following letter was received by Congressman Goldsborough as a result of his efforts to secure additional navigation lights for Chestertown. Captain W. D. Flowers, of the powerboat Chester has taken the lead locally in an effort to secure these additional lights.

August 27, 1937

Dear Mr. Goldsborough:

Pursuant to my letter to you of July 25, 1936, and other corespondence relative to the furnishing of additional facilities in the way of lighted aids to navigation in the Chester River, I regret to advise you that the provision of funds for special projects of this nature in the Lighthouse Service for the present fiscal year is not sufficient in amount to warrant proceeding with this project as anticipated, such funds as are provided for such purposes being in large part required for expenditure in connection with the provision of aids to navigation for projects of river and harbor improvement authorized by the Congress, or for the preservation of existing structures and facilities.

I am, however, investigating the possibilities as to accomplishing any part of the improvements heretofore desired from other funds which may be available and will be pleased to give you further advices as to the results of such inquiry.

Very truly yours,

H. D. KING,
Commissioner of Lighthouses.

The poll will be under the control of the Kent Agricultural Conservation Association.

All commercial growers of Irish potatoes are asked to record their ideas for or against a potato acreage goal by voting on a secret ballot and depositing same in a sealed box which will not be opened until the end of the week.

TRAFFIC DEATHS LESS IN AUGUST

Majority Of Accidents On Straight Dry Roads

The traffic deaths in Maryland last month showed a decrease over that of a year ago although the large majority of fatal accidents continue to occur on straight dry roads. Of the deaths during the month 20 were motoritsts and 19 were pedestrians.

The accidents at night are double that during daylight, the majority being between 8 and 9 o'clock. 32 of the 38 deaths occured in clear weather.

The total number of fatal accidents for the State of Maryland for the first eight (8) months of 1937 has increased to eighteen (18) percent over the corresponding period of 1936 as the tabulation by months will show. There was a decrease of twenty-five deaths or thirty-nine (39) percent for the month of August over the same month of 1936:

	1936	1937
January	26	67
February	28	37
March	20	45
April	40	29
May	31	36
June	50	51
July	44	54
August	64	39
TOTAL:	303	358

Of the thirty-nine (39) persons killed during the month of August, (19) or 48 percent were pedestrians, (14) or 35 percent were passengers, and (6) or 15 percent were drivers. Most of these deaths occurred in rural sections, as six (6) deaths occurred in Baltimore City, and thirty-three (33) deaths occurred in the Counties.

All of our schools will be opened, and some of the children are attending school for the first time. These children will be walking, riding street cars or school buses. No doubt, these children will be unaccustomed to traveling on our busy streets and highways. Extreme caution should be used by every MOTORIST—upon approaching a child or group of children, and especially, when passing through a School Zone. So far this year thirty-five (35) children have been killed between the ages of 5 to 14 years.

SHOW TO BE HERE NEXT WEDNESDAY

Uncle Ezra In Person Here In Tent Show

John R. Van Arnam, well known for his minstrel shows for 18 years which was oredited with being the last white minstrel in the country, will bring his latest show to Chestertown next Wednesday. The show is not a minstrel but something new in entertainment as he is presenting "In Person" "Uncle Ezra and his Radio Gang" in a brand new waterproof tent Theatre with comfortable seats for 1000 people.

Uncle Ezra does not need any introduction as every radio listener and show-goer is well acquainted with this lovable quaint New England rural character, who is played by Billy Hall of Lewiston, Maine. Mr. Hall will bring to you in person a character tha tmany have tried to impersonate, but none have satisfied the Radio and Stage Public as has Mr. Hall.

Mr. Van Arnam has provided Uncle Ezra with real support in the cast of performers he has selected which includes: The Old Homestead Quartette with those funny boys, but great singers of old time songs "Elmer",, "Lon", "Abner" and "Clem"; then come "Lulu May and Bob," Uncle Ezra's children who dance and sing as only Hillbillys can; next for novelty we have "Lester Leigh and La Grace" the Australia Jugglers and Balancers. A real sensational offering. Then comes "Patricia O'Day" who offers her marvelous acrobatic dance. For those who like to be mystified we bring "The Mighty Wallace", a young Magician with a pleasing Act; the "Maxine Sisters"; "Texas Peggy"; the yodeling cowgirl; "The Dancing Buttercups"; Zeke Hoff and his Georgia Hillbilly Band will play Mountain music as you like to hear it.

The show will be held on the Smith lot on Philosophers Terrace.

A passerby had sometime before reported the deceased to be asleep in his car. His wife had driven to a number of places in the county looking for him when he did not return home to supper. HONOR SOCIETY AT LOCAL COLLEGE

Considered Great Honor For Washington College

Washington College has just been accorded an unusually high honor by the granting of a charter for a circle of Omicron Delta Kappa, to be installed in the near future, according to announcement made today by President Gilbert W. Mead of the Shore institution. The new chapter of Omicron Delta Kappa will be formed from the local group known as the Silver Pentagon Society, which has been active on the Washington Campus for the last twelve years.

The award of the charter has come to the college after more than three years of petitioning, and has been granted only after an exhaustive survey of the college by officials of the Society which limits its membership to a selectea group of institutions of high standing. Due to its age and its restricted enrollment, Washington will be both the oldest and the smallest collgee having chapters of the organization.

Omicron Delta Kappa is nationally recognized as the outstanding intercollegiate society whose purpose is to have a limited number of upperclassmen students who are outstanding leaders in college life. Circles of the fraternity are to be found in about fifty of the leading colleges and universities, especially in the eastern and southern states. Membership is highly prized by those who achieve it, and in many institutions election is regarded as the highest honor which can come to any student, since both scholastic and non-scholastic leadership is recognized.

Neighboring institutions with which Washington College will be associated in the work of Omicron Delta Kappa include Johns Hopkins, William and Mary, Washington and Lee, Hampden-Sidney, Lehigh, Dickinson, and the University of Maryland, in all of which institutions Circles are located.

President Mead of Washington College is an honorary member of Omicron Delta Kappa, and will act as advisor of the new circle during the installation. Dr. F. G. Livingood, Dean J. S. W. Jones and Athletic Director J. Thomas Kibler are faculty members of the Silver Pentagon Society which will form the nucleus of the new O. D. K. circle. Active members of the Silver Pentagon Society include Elton L. Wilmot, Waterbury, Conn., President; H. Luther Bergdoll, Lawrence W. Buffington and Leon D. Horowitz of Baltimore; James D. Salter, New Castle, Del., John C. Mead, Chestertown, William W. Thompson, Rock Hall, George M. Eisentrout, Midland, Md. Others will be chosen after the opening of college next week.

CAPT. WOODALL ON RIPLEY BROADCAST

Invited To Tell Of Life Saving On Bay

Captain Washington I. Woodall, of Chestertown, Captain of the Love Point Ferry, has been invited to talk over Ripley's "Believe It Or Not" program this fall.

Captain Woodall has accepted the invitation and it is understood that his talk will be based on his life-saving record in his many years of traveling across the bay. His rescues will number in the hundreds of yachtsmen who have been in distress and last year on one occasion he rescued 256 persons from a bay steamer during an excursion of the Automobile Dealers Association.

The date of the broadcast has not been set but it should be interesting, particularly to his many friends here.

All construction materials are barged to Treasure Island, site of the 1939 World's Fair in San Francisco Bay, from railheads and freight piers on the mainland.

The Freshman class includes 18 students from Chestertown, and 5 from other parts of the county. Only six are from other states which makes the college a real factor in the education of Maryland boys and girls.

CLUB MEMBERS WIN AT FARM EXHIBIT

Take First Places At Two Exhibits

Kent 4-H Club Members exhibiting ten (19) calves and two pigs at Timonium last week represented the county in a very satisfactory manner by winning in stronger competition than usual. The Judging Team, composed of Virginia Dulin and George Robert Moffett, of Chestertown, and Whitney McCrea of Rock Hall, stood in fifth place when the results of the contest were read at the 4-H Banquet, held in Towson on Monday night. Each Team member won places in the individual classes. Baltimore County Team, coached by former Kent County Agent, H. B. Derrick, was first

Placing on the Kent calves was as follows:

JERSEY BREED

Virginia Dulin won first in fast competition on her yearling heifer and was a close second to the winner of the best fitted and shown heifer of the show, shown by a McDonough School boy. The Judge took a good half-hour to make the decision and finally placed the Kent heifer in second place. It will be remembered that Virginia won the fitting and showing cup at the 1937 Kent County Cattle Show. In the Jersey heifer calf class, Virginia Dulin stood 4th and Doris Dulin 6th.

HOLSTEIN BREED

Whitney McCrea of Rock Hall won frist in the Junior Yearling class and Howard S. Leaverton, Jr., won first in the senior yearling class. Both heifers were beaten in the championship by Esther Holter of Frederick County who won the championship with her heifer calf.

In the heifer calf class, Geo. Robert Moffett placed 10th and Albert Baxter 11th.

In the Swine Classes Whitney McCrea won first on his junior Duroc Sow Pigs and first on his Junior Boar Pig.

Kent's 4-H Club "string" made a stop on the way home and took in the show at Fair Hill in Cecil County on Saturday, where they were very successful winning about $60.00. Each year the boys come home with a determination to go back the next year and do better, which they usually do. As Mr. Ikler said at the 4-H banquet at Timonium, "the education received by fitting and exhibiting cattle is something no one can take from us."

STATE POLITICS

With the Democratic primaries yet a year off, State policitics is the most talked of subject of State-wide importance. The early start is attributed to Mayor Jackson's announcement of his candidacy for Governor. The Mayor's activities have been largerly directed at the Eastern Shore and he has spent and is spending much time in this section. It is apparent that so far he is basing his campaign on Baltimore and the Eastern Shore.

In discussing the political prospects with politicians in various part of the State one finds a wide difference of opinion, from some comes the reply that the Mayor has the nomination in the bay while others insist that Messrs. Sasscer, Gordy, O'Connor, and Bruce are planning a ticket that will receive State-wide backing.

Leaders in many parts of the State are waiting for future developments before taking any definite stand on the nomination.

As to the propsoed opposition to the Mayor, one prominent Shoreman this week stated that in his belief Mr. Bruce will make a very strong candidate in veiw of the fact that the people of the State are anxious for a business man for Governor because a man of that type who has been paying taxes and not spending them would be a great addition as the State executive. Of course the rank and file of politician who makes a business of it probably would not favor such a man, but whatever may be the outcome, it promises to an interesting and active year.
