ON FRIDAY the 17th of September, the country celebrated Constitution Day, the 150th anniversary of the making of that great document which contains the laws of our country. The convention which were to make these laws was convened on May 25, 1787. This convention was composed of the brainiest men who had labored incessantly for their country, the laws being largely made from those of Great Britian. But the document was not valid until all the states of the Union signed. Delaware was the first to do this, therefore this state always leads in the national processions, and at Presidential Inaurations. Maryland was the seventh to sign. She had insisted that the rich Northwest Territory should be given to the Government so that the poor soldiers, who had fought so bravely in the Revolutionary war, might be paid. Finally this was done and one by one the States signed. Rhode Island being the last.

Thus through all these years the Constitution has stood. Changes have been made as the country has grown, the 13th, the 14th, and the 15th amendment being made regarding the freedom of the slaves and their being made citizens of the United States. Then Senators were to be elected by primary elections instead of by the legislature as heretofore, Women's Suffrage became a law and all these different changes required other amendments.

But the body of this great constitution remains the same, giving the carrying out of these laws into the keeping of three great divisions; the Judicial the Executive the Legislative bodies. The country is safe as long as it obeys these laws and it is required of all holding high positions in the Government, School teachers and those who serve the States, to know and obey it.

IN MEMORIAM

STEVENS—In loving memory of our darling son, Dieky, who left us three months ago today, Sept. 19.

There is someone who misses you sadly,
And finds the time long since you went.
There is someone who thinks of you always
And tries to be brave and content,
Gone is the face we loved so dear
Silent is the voice we loved to hear
'Tis sad, but true I wonder why,
"The best are always the first to die."
"Gods Message"
"Come to my Heavenly Garden
And see in perfect bloom
The flower you loved so dearly
And though I had plucked too soon
Then you will know my reason,
Though you know it not today
Why in his promising boyhood,
I took your son away.
Sadly missed by mother and daddy,
Mr. and Mrs. Oscar C. Stevens.

Grant Loved Horses

As a farm youth in Ohio, U. S. Grant learned to love and appreciate horses and to realize their necessity to the farmer. Years later he was on the field at Appomattox arranging terms of surrender with Gen. Robert E. Lee, and it was doubtless the Ohioan's appreciation of the horse that prompted him to yield at once to the southern commander's suggestion that the Confederates be allowed to retain their horses to take back to the farms with them.

Dorothy Oschman Gold
vs.
Samuel Gold

In the Circuit Court for Kent County
In Equity No. 3066

The object of the Bill fued in the above entitled cause is to procure a Decree setting aside the marriage between Dorothy Oschman Gold and Samuel Gold.

The Bill states:

1. That the said Dorothy Oschman Gold is a resident of the City of Philadelphia, State of Pennsylvania, and that she was a resident of the said State at the time of her marriage in 1931 and has always been.

2. That on the 13th day of December in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty one, she came to Chsetertown, Maryland, with one Samuel Gold of the City of Philadelphia, State of Pennsylvania, and they obtained a marriage license and were married at Chestertown, Kent County, Maryland, by the Rev. J. Harry Wright. A copy of the marriage certificate is filed herewith and marked "Complainant's Exhibit No. 1".

3. That at the time of the said marriage the said Dorothy Oschman was 21 years of age and the said Samuel Gold was 25 years of age.

4. That after said marriage they returned to live in Philadelphia with the said Samuel Gold's mother and that about three months after said marriage an officer came to their home and arrested Samuel Gold on a warrant sworn out by one Anna Roney, who claimed to be the wife of Samuel Gold. That this was the first knowledge your Complainant, Dorothy Oschman, had of the said Samuel Gold having been married before and she has never lived with him as man and wife since.

5. That the said Samuel Gold was brought to Kent County, Maryland and tried for Bigamy in April, 1932, and was sentenced to nine months in the Maryland Penitentiary and later was sentenced to five years at Gratersford, Pennsylvania, for other crimes which she does not know the character of and he is still confined there.

6. That there have never been any children born as result of said marriage.

7. That your Complainant is advised that it is within the power of this Honorable Court upon her petition and evidence supporting the same to set aside and annul said marriage.

It is thereupon, this 12th day of August, 1937, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent County, in Equity, that the Plaintiff, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Kent County, once in each of four successive weeks before the 6th day of September next, give notice to the said Samuel Gold, non-resident defendant, warning him to appear in this Court in person, or by Solicitor, on or before the 20th day of September next, to show cause, if any he has, why a Decree ought not to be passed as prayed.

"LONG DISTANCE" LENDS ENCHANTMENT

THERE'S MAGIC in a Long Distance telephone call.

Yet to thousands of people it is an everyday commonplace matter, familiar as the making of a local call.

It's so cheap, too. After 7 in the evening, and all day Sundays, the lowest rates are in effect. Make a call to some out-of-town relative or friend tonight. Ask "Long Distance" for the rate. You'll probably be mightily surprised to find how low it is.
