THE SOCIAL WANDERER

DEAR ROAMER:

The ides of September past, and with some retrospection "who knows where or when" the summer flew? And here already are we ushering in Freshman Week at Washington College. After all of the attractions of the town have been viewed, receptions, parties and words of advice given, thence begins the actual work next Monday when both Freshman and Senior "heave to."

Meanwhile other young people of of the town are preparing to go away and one by one we pack them off, some to new fields, some to boarding schools or colleges, and some to complete their education in life's own school.

Miss Alice Dole has resigned her position as teacher in Laurel to accept quite a promotion. She has been named supervisor of Art in five schools in Hampton Township, Allison Park, Pa., a suburb of Pittsburgh.

Miss Nancy Jean Usilton left Thursday for Washington where she will resume her duties as a playground instructor.

The early Fall has chalked to its' credit, the second large party of the season, his week, when Col. and Mrs. H. S. Brown entertained on Thursday evening at a picnic in the Grove of Godlington Manor. Mr. and Mrs. John Charles Thomas were honor guests. Well, it was a wonderful party. The picnic grove is on a high bank overlooking the river, forming a perfect setting to begin with. The moon was perfect and after supper, the guests gathered around a huge campfire and sang. To complete the joy of the evening, Mr. Thomas was kind enough to render two solos which simply held everyone spell bound.

On Friday, last night, Mrs. Charles Shaunghessy, and Mrs. Robert Wood entertained at a bridge party, at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Kratzer.

Last Saturday veening Mrs. Phil G.

Mrs. Sheen's daughter, Mary, was married at Madison, New Jersey, early this month and is now residing in Bloomfield, New Jersey. The Sheen family spent several years in Kent and other Shore counties where the late Rev. Lewis B. Sheen was rector of Old St. Paul's and of churches at Ocean City and Berlin, Maryland.

Miss May Ireland is visiting her brother, Mr. William Ireland at Haddon Height, N. J.

Mr. Charles A. Wilson motored to his home in Wisconsin last week-end. He was accompanied as far as Chicago by Miss Sue Smith.

Mrs. William Nickerson is spending the week with relatives in New Jersey.

Mrs. Charles Anderson has been spending several days, the guest of relatives in Wilmington.

Mr. and Mrs. William Blyman and son, of Philadelphia, and Mr. Allie Blyman, of Wilmington, Del., were week end guests of their brother, Mr. Harvey G. Blyman.

Mrs. M. E. Lane, of Wilmington, Del., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McLaughlin.

I read a poem "Writing", to-day, and two lines impressed me, specially as I write now.

"And words come only when they are bidden,
Not there to begin with, as in song."

They have not come, so "What to do about it, but put out the lights and go to bed."

Yours in repose,

THE WANDERER
