THE SOCIAL WANDERER

DEAR ROAMER:

The social life of the town seems to be at a very low ebb. No scouts have reported anything and moreover no one seems to mind the rest period. These fall days are too glamorous to make one even wish to be inside and consequently, the outdoor spirit prevails. For those who ride, for those who hunt or fish, for the golfers and the pedestrians, the days with few exceptions have been ideal.

It almost seems like all who were going, have gone, all who were coming, have come, all of which leaves me little about which to comment. Well, it will not be ever thus, so in the meantime, just be glad my job is not yours and go on enjoying the relaxation at hand.

An approaching wedding of interest to many in this vicinity is that of Miss Elizabeth Lowe Twilley, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Chas. R. Twilley and Mr. Frank L. Koherlerman, Jr. son of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Koherlerman, of Baltimore. The wedding will take place on Oct. 16 at 4.30 p. m. in the First Methodist Episcopal Church in that city, followed by a reception at the Beech avenue home of the bride's parents.

Dr. Esther M. Dole, of the faculty of Washington College attended a board meeting in Annapolis, this week of the state organization of the D. A. R., of which, she is the State Historian.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Beck will return to-day for the week-end with Mr. Horace Beck, who has been their guest since Thursday. Mr. Beck accompanied his daughter, Mrs. Catherine Beck Jones, to Baltimore, when she sailed from that city on the City of Norfolk, for Hamburg, Germany. From there Mrs. Jones will entrain to Vienna, arriving there about October 20.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Stam are guests of the former's mother, Mrs. Annie H. Stam at her home in Chevy Chase, Md., where they are spending their vacation, for two weeks. Mr. W. S. Brinsfield is at Stam's while Dr. Earle Stafford is substituting at Rock Hall for Mr. Brinsfield.

Mrs. Eben F. Perkins was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Brooke Bond, at her home Port Republic, Calvert Co., several days this week.

Dr. and Mrs. Macdonald Dick, of Durham, North Carolina, were guests last week-end of the former's brother and sister-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Dick.

Mr. Louis Hess, son of Dr. and Mrs. L. C. Hess, formerly of Chestertown, was the guest of Miss Lillie Fowler last week.

Mr. Jack Nelson was a guest of his father at Cottage City, Md., last week end.

Misses Erma and Helen Adams spent last week-end visiting in Baltimore and Harpers Ferry, Va.

Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Simpson, of Washington, D. C., were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Cooper.

Mrs. Horace Needles was the guest of her sister in Media last week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Gilpin Brown accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Decker, of Philadelphia, will be week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. G. Beck and Mrs. H. Clay Brown. To-night Mr. and Mrs. Brown will entertain at dinner and bridge at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Beck.

Our Garden Club will hold its Octobermeeting on Wednesday, October 20th, at which time, Mrs. James Nicklin will be the hostess. There will be a small chrysanthemum show for the members, starting at one o'clock, and in view of this, sandwiches and tea will be served in place of the later afternoon refreshments.

The Junior Auxiliary members of the Kent and Queen Anne's Hospital will serve as ushers at the recital of Ruth St. Dennis which be held here on October 24 in William Smith Hall. They will also assist in receiving guests at the reception following, in honor of Miss St. Dennis, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Maxwell at Worton Manor.

Don't forget this is the week when you will gather up your discards for the Rummage Sale at the Old Post Office on Friday and Saturday, Oct. 14, and Oct. 15, to be held under the Auspices of the Ladies auxiliary of the Kent and Queen Anne's Hospital. Help make it a huge success—rid your house of all those articles of which you have no use, clean out that closet that is too packed, give your shoe rack more room and by no means ask friend husband first.

Yours for distribution,

THE WANDERER

College Alumni To Hold Dance In Baltimore

Following the Washington College-Johns Hopkins football game at Homewood Friday night, Oct. 15, the Baltimore Chapter of the Washington College Alumni Association will hold a dance, in the Submarine Room of the Lord Baltimore Hotel.

Mr. Earl J. Cullen, 316 W. Saratoga St., Baltimore, Md., is handling tickets for the occasion.

Why National Advertisers USE THIS NEWSPAPER

People are interested in other people, especially in people they know. That's why hundreds of families in this community subscribe to this paper year after year.

On these pages they find the names of fellow-townspeople, often their own. So, besides the ordinary interest of nation-wide news, this paper offers the even greater reader-interest of local community doings.

National advertisers believe that by using these columns they are reaching the greatest number of substantial families in this community, reaching them at home and in an effective and friendly manner.

But this newspaper performs another important service. By displaying the advertising of local merchants side-by-side with the products of national advertisers these national products become identified with the local market, with local merchants.

In this way, on these pages is forged the important last link between the manufacturer and his local community dealer and their customers. That's why, for local buyer acceptance, for local dealer tie-up, local community newspapers are best.
