CHURCH NOTES

RADIANT LIVING

Behind Closed Doors

By Rev. C. M. Griffeth
Pastor Calvary M. E. Church
Sudlersville, Md.

You will recall, immediately after the crucifixion of Jesus, the disciples had seculded themselves away in some upper room in the city of Jerusalem. Here because of their fear they had themselves behind bolted doors and ed that the Risen Christ suddenly appeared in their midst and convinced them of His resurrection.

It was while they were thus secluded shuttered windows.

I wonder if, in the fact that He appeared to them while they were secluded, that there is not here a suggestion of the secret of obtaining a manifestation of the living God? I wonder if, in order to become conscious of the presence of the spiritual, we must not first of all exclude from our attention, as much as possible the material, at least the entiriy of that world whose spirit knows not God?

If the presence of God has never been a reality in your life may it not be due to the fact that you have too many doors and windows open?

To become conscious of the presence of the Spirit of God, one must get behind the closed doors of immaculate living. Behind such closed doors one finds a blessed relaxation from the strains of life—a resting upon the Infinite Love that transforms one's inward turmoil into a holy calm, one's worries into trusts, one's fears into faith.
