THE SOCIAL WANDERER

DEAR ROAMER:

This week has been practically devoted to "fireside chats" not only by the powers that be, but by just plain folks like you and me. Where are all those skies of blue? Yes, the rain and cold has kept us huddled around the hearthstone and what we've talked about ought to be material for me right now, but well, I just can't let go a lot of it yet, the time hasn't come; so in the meantime here's where I fill in.

The foot-ball season is on and although we have had no games here, many have forsaken the town for the past two Saturdays and visited Annapolis or Philadelphia to shout their cheers for the pet team. And yesterday afternoon, oh my, they simply streamed to Baltimore to see the Washington-Hopkins game, Friday night. Many will stay over for the big Navy-Harvard game to-day, if they survive the dance given by the Baltimore Chapter of the Washington College Alumni which was held in the Submarine Room of the Lord Baltimore Hotel, following the game.

Others will take to the water this week-end, however. Dr. and Mrs. Frank B. Hines will spend the week-end aboard the yacht of Mr. and Mrs. Morton Cole and to-night will attend the pig roast on the shore of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Haynes at their place in Georgetown on the Sassafras River. Many from here have been invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson, of Lansdowne, Pa., were guests last week-end of Mr. and Mrs. James G. Metcalfe.

Miss Gloria V. Eck spent the past week-end at "Fairview Farm," with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. Weldon Walbert. On Saturday Miss Eck rode in the Mecklenburg Riding and Hunt Club Horse Show at Easton.

Mrs. W. F. Haines, of Seaford, Del., has been the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Robert Huey for the past ten days, during which time she was extensively entertained.

Mr. and Mrs. Preston P. Heck are guests of the latter's father, Mr. H. T. Jewell, here. Mr. Heck will shortly open an office for the practice of law here.

Mr. Frederick Usilton, of Crisfield, Md., was a guest last week-end of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick G. Usilton.

Miss Harriett Louisa Rogers is the guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. William D. Gill in New Albany, Indiana.

Last Sunday, Chestertown was well represented at the concert in Easton given by John Charles Thomas. Never have I heard Mr. Thomas sing as well, and the program was one that inspired all music-lovers. An additional spice to the afternoon was the presence of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Tunney whom everyone saw on leaving the concert.

Many from here will witness tonight the performance of Alfred Lunt and Lynn Fontanne in Amphitryon 38 at Ford's this week. Among those who will spend the week-end in Baltimore and attend the theatre, will be Miss Dorothy Vickers, Mrs. Raymond Humphreys and Miss Snodgrass.

Mrs. Tilden Brice and her daughter, Miss Priscilla Grainger will be guests in Hagerstown this week-end where Miss Grainger will be one of the bridesmaids at the wedding of Miss Laura Roulette and Mr. Frederick Wright which will take place Saturday evening at 8 o'clock at St. John's Episcopal Church, Hagerstown. Miss Roulette was a college chum of Miss Grainger's at Sweet Briar College.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarke Grieb and their son, Mr. George Grieb will visit in Philadelphia this week-end where they will attend the races at the Rose Tree Hunt Club, near Media, Pa., and the dinner at the club following the races.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Brandolini are receiving congrautlations on the birth of a son born at the Kent and Queen Anne's Hospital this week. Mrs. Brandolini was formerly Miss Fern Blackway.

Miss Laura Thomas has been confined to Easton hospital for treatment this week.

Lo! The skies have cleared since I've been writing and the fire grows dim, so off for the great out-doors and sports.

Yours for a winner,

THE WANDERER

The local field ball and soccer teams won the games played against Galena Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bean are the parents of a fine son. Mr. Bean spent last week in Keyser, W. Va., and brought back with him Miss Evelyn Cosner.

IF YOUR PRODUCT IS SOLD NATIONALLY

It Can Be Sold In This Community

Come on! Let's do the town!

Across the street from that filling station (selling a national brand of gas) is a big food market. Shelf after shelf of national brands--cereals, canned goods, specialties, biscuits, coffee, tea, California oranges, Florida grapefruit---everything.

Next door an auto sales-room displays a popular make of car. Up the block, across from the movie, a hardware merchant shows a window of radios and refrigerators---all national makes. A tobacco shop sells nationally advertised cigarettes, drug stores sell national drugs, beauty shops recommend nation-known cosmetics.

A thriving, busy, nationally-minded community of people who are well dressed, prosperous---eager to buy. They know values--products. Why? They read their local community newspaper and heed the advertisements listed in its columns.

If your product is sold nationally it can be sold in this community And the best way to sell it is to advertise it in this local community newspaper reaching a majority of the substantial families, reaching them consistently, week after week, in their homes.
