THE SOCIAL WANDERER

DEAR ROAMER:

The blue flag of Kent unfurled itself on Monday and the dedication of the remodeled Court House proceeded. Being a newcomer to the county, I was enlightened as to its significance. However, I found in trying to gain a little knowledge that a lot of the "borners" didn't know themselves when I first asked, "What is the blue flag?" Live and learn is right. Seems to me rather queer, we all didn't know it, whether we were of the Historical Society or not, I think we ought to be pretty proud of the fact that Kent was one of the seven counties to have a flag of its own. Why don't we see it more often? The banquet of the Historical Society that evening seemed to go with a punch and zest and although I was only one of those who "serve and wait" they all seemed to find the feast a quintessence to the day.

The movie "The Life of Emile Zola" has taken us all by storm this week and furnished more instructive conversation throughout the week, than several bits of gossip could do in a month. Those who missed it, have much to regret.

The meeting of "Our Garden Club" on Wednesday was a "wow" to use a little slang. Roses to Mrs. James Nicklin, the hostess, but I have written this up elsewhere, so won't stop with details here. Oh yes, we had a little slippery time getting there, but it was worth it.

To-night, we have Ruth St. Denis in dances of the Orient, and ought to feel sort of set-up in having such a renowned dancer to come here. Who says there is nothing in this town? I don't know of any community our size that gets more breaks and they are deserved. After all, they are not just breaks. Someone, somewhere is working all the time to give this 3000 population a chance to enjoy and benefit of the better things. What greater democracy is there? If we all could adopt a motto to Boost, not berate, many of us would be better off mentally and in accomplishment.

Now I've finished, but I just had to let off a little steam.

Among the week end guests expected at Worton Manor, the home of Mrs. Nora C. Maxwell, are Mr. and Mrs. George B. Maxwell, of Tarrytown, N. Y., and Dr. Jane Leslie Kift, Miss Karin Hedenburg, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Alexander, Miss Ruth St. Denis, Miss Virginia Miller and Mr. Wells Hively, of New York.

Mrs. Benj. Houston, of New York, has been a guest this week of her brother and sister-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Frank B. Hines.

Mr. and Mrs. James Gillespie and son, of Philadelphia, Pa., were guests last week end of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Emory. This week Mr. Walter Miller, of Caldwell, N. J., has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Emory for several days.

Miss Rebecca Wickes, of Baltimore, came on Thursday and is the guest of Mrs. Lewin W. Wickes until tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Connelly, of Thurmont, Pa., were guests last week-end of Dr. and Mrs. Julian Power.

Mr. and Mrs. William T. Henry, of Baltimore, were week end guests of the former's sister, Mrs. Thomas Kennard.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Chaires and son, Mr. Solomon T. Chaires, are spending the week as guests of the former's son, Mr. and Mrs. G. Bates Chaires, at Oakland, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. William B. Usilton, 3rd, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beck in Baltimore, while Mrs. Wm. B. Usilton was the guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Dr. and Mrs. Wm. Gardner.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lloyd Dandridge, of Baltimore, will be week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Collins, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris K. Barroll were guests in Baltimore this week of Misses Alice and Louise Duffy who entertained in their honor.

Dr. and Mrs. Gilbert W. Mead left Wednesday for East Orange, N. J., where they were guests of Mrs. Clarence Hodson until Friday. Dr. Mead then motored to Poughkeepskie to attend the Regional Meeting of the Association of American Colleges of of which he is a representative, while Mrs. Mead visited friends in New York, during that time. They will return to Chestertown to-morrow.

Mr. Marcus Dill, of New Burn, North Carolina, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Stenger on Front St.

Birthdays have been in order for both old and young this week. Mr. Lewin L. Russell observed his 86th birthday on Tuesday while Mrs. Virginia E. Moody celebrated her 91st birthday on Friday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. F. Thompson.

Eleven years ago this week and next, three little babies were in the Easton hospital. To-day they are celebrating birthdays. Jane Brooks gave a party on Monday to celebrate hers, Betty Truslow was hostess to her little friends Wednesday to honor hers, and Reese Corey has his cake and ice-cream next week.

Mr. and Mrs. William B. Willis are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a fine son, born at the Kent and Queen Anne hospital on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Sutton are receiving congratulations on the birth of a fine daughter born Friday morning at the Kent and Queen Anne's Hospital.

Maybe eleven years from now I'll be telling you of these babies' parties, or perhaps there will be another scribe in my place.

Yours in doubt,

THE WANDERER

ACTIVITIES AT THE LOCAL HI SCHOOL

By ROSALIE BONNETT

Although there are no startling events happening in the school at present, there are a few things of interest As atheletics are our main source of news, we will give brief accounts of the games.

Friday afternoon Galena journeyed to C. H. S. and were defeated in fieldball by a score of 6-2. Also the boy's soccer team was defeated by a score of 13-1 in our favor. These scores seem like old times, but we only hope they continue.

The line up of the fieldball game was as follows:

Chestertown	Pos.	Galena
C. Newton	L W	M. J. Rasin
F. Kreeger	L I	H. Price
E. Wheatley	C F	M. Haley
E. M. Leonard	R I	M. Newnam
N. Russell	R F	M. Churcey
M. A. Brice	L H B	V. Jones
R. MacVean	C H B	D. Coleman
H. Culver	R H B	D. King
L. Greenwood	L F B	P. Fogwell
F. Harris	R F B	C. V. Davis
V. Newcomb	G	D. Hyland

Substitutes:—N. Miller, C. Coleman.

C. H. S. was scheduled to meet Rock Hall on Tuesday, in soccer and fieldball on the opposing team's field. The game was postponed until the following Thursday, because of the rain.

We wish to extend thanks to Miss Elizabeth Brown for her excellent refereeing in field ball last week. She also taught the girls to play hockey last year, and we hope she will continue to do so this year.

Mrs. Whittier Copper has donated a victrola to the school, and we expect to get much pleasure from this generious gift.

New clubs are still organizing; recently the 4-H club organized under the supervision of Miss Schellinger.

As there have been so many students wishing to join the Knitting Club, and as Mrs. Comegys can instruct only a few girls at a time, there will be two meetings a week instead of one.

At last the glad day has come, the fieldball uniforms have arrived. They are a deep red, and are in sizes that will fit all. Every girl also received a red sweat shirt to match the shorts, while one sweat shirt has a hood for the goal keeper. Red has always meant danger, and we hope it will continue to do so while the C. H. S. girls are competing in games.

ATTENDS DEDICATION

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence G. Brown and Mrs. Charles C. Schreiber attended the corner-stone laying of the New Eastern Star Chapel at Bonnie Blink this week.

OUR GARDEN CLUB HOLDS EXHIBIT

Mrs. James Nicklin Hostess To Garden Club

Our Garden Club was well represented at the meeting, on Wednesday held at the home of Mrs. James Nicklin. One of the most interesting and enjoyable meetings of the year, the afternoon was socially and instructively a huge success.

Luncheon was served at 1.30 p. m. followed by a business meeting and a most interesting talk "Planting for Autumn Beauty," given by James Anthony. At 4o'clock tea and cake were served and the exhibits, brought by members, viewed. The judging was done by Mrs. Rumsey Anthony and her son, James Anthony during the business meeting.

Mrs. Earl Nicholson won the sweepstake prize, while tying for second place were Mrs. H. Clay Brown, Mrs. Sam Emory and Mrs. H. A. Kratzer. On drawing Mrs. H. Clay Brown was lucky and was awarded the plant prize.
