After spending Saturday and Sunday with the formers mother, Mrs. Ida V. Kirby they left for their home on Sunday. We were very glad to see Mrs. Paul Vansant who has been very ill for many years, able to stand the drive. She will be remembered here as Miss Flora Kirby.

The many friends of Miss Helen Schellinger are happy to know she is getting along very nicely at the Kent and Queen Annes Hospital after an operation on Monday last and trust she will soon fully recover. Our club meetings are very pleasant but sorry she can't be with us for some time yet.

It was a shock to us all to hear that a bald eagle had been shot and wing broken here in Quaker Neck. Mr. and Mrs. Strothers Dunn who have rented Mrs. Tobey Wharf bungalow the past two seasons picked him up on the road near the pond at the Yacht Club. Some one evidently shot it thinking it to be an Osprey or fish hawk, which it resembles. The latter has the head streaked with white and a light breast, while the eagle has a pure white head (looking as if bald when viewed at a distance) The eagle's breast is same shdae as the back. Too bad to have this happen to such a rare and distinguished visitor here. This bald eagle is found in every state in the union at intervals but especially along the ocean and wider shores even in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Hadaway, Frank Jr., and Grace spent Sunday afternoon in Worton and while there heard the boy preacher at Worton Church. They visited Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Hadaway. We are glad to hear Mowbray is getting along very nicely in a Baltimore Hospital.

Mr. Stanley Goodman, of Va., returned to the home of his parents in Cliff on Wednesday night bringing with him his bride for a week who was also from Va., "Congratulations Stanley."

Mr. William Dickerson has been spending a few days with his daughter, Mrs. John Hilyard in Millington.

Last week we noticed in our local paper the death of Mr. Harry Dannacker, of Warwick, he has some relatives here in Quaker Neck. We extend our sympathy to his relatives.

Mr. Charlie Slagle on Wednesday slipped in the mud and injured his knee which he has had so much trouble with. He broke his leg 2 years ago.

Ice From Polar Regions

The ice that drifts down from the polar regions each year would make a layer a foot thick if it were spread evenly over the land surface of the earth.

What War Did to Paraguay

Paraguay's five-year war against Brazil, Argentina and Uruguay, from 1865 to 1870, halved the population and left eleven women to one man.
