THE SOCIAL WANDERER

DEAR ROAMER:

Last week we went Heigh-hoing to the Fair and this week we honk,honk to the Automobile Show. Have you been? Well you ought to go, even if it does make your mouth water for a brand new means of conveyance and make you want to turn that muddy old car over to the pile of has-beens. It's well worth seeing, aside from the fact that you again will be helping a most worthy cause.

Four very popular out-of-town guests here this week have caused the slacking pace of entertaining to be speeded up a bit. Mrs. Louis Skinner, of Bronxville, N. Y. who has been the house-guest of her sister, Mrs. James G. Metcalfe, was the honor guest at a luncheon given on Wednesday, by Mrs. R. Hynson Rogers.

The same day, later in the afternoon, Mrs. Frank B. Hines was hostess at a tea, which was given in honor of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Ben Houston, of New York.

On Wednesday evening, Mrs. H. Clay Brown entertained at bridge in honor of Mrs. Leonard DeMerritt, of Baltimore. So really that day was a Merry-Go-Round, which incidentally, did not break down.

Armistice Day, Thursday dawned and I saw all of them fresh as daises at a luncheon-bridge given by Mrs. Eben F. Perkins.

To-day, Mrs. Barclay Kilbourne is entertaining at a luncheon-bridge in honor of Mrs. Clyde Pindell, of Howard County who is a house guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence P. Strong and Mrs. Kilbourne. The ball has started rolling—roll on.

Speaking of parties though, there really is going to be a swelelegant one at the Country Club next Friday night when the Entertainment Committee is putting on a Dinner-Dance for the Club Members and their guests. Sounds right good doesn't it? Well, from all I hear, it's going to be, so take hubby's tux out of moth-balls don your brilliants all ye members and guests, and be right on hand when the gong sounds.

Looking around town, over top my "speaks", we find some more guests who were here last week-end, and some who are still here:

Miss Nancy Jean Usilton, of Washington, D. C., was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. B. Usilton last week-end.

Mr. Albert Nichols is spending a month with his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Rolph Townshend.

Mrs. Anna Pippin, of Severna Park, Md., spent the week end as the guest of her daughter, Miss Anna Pippin and Mrs. Louise Dutcher.

Mr. and Mrs. Millard Scott, of Baltimore, were week end guests of Mrs. Maggie McIntire. Mrs.. McIntire returned to Chestertown after a visit with them and sister in Baltimore.

Miss Mildred Heinemeyer, of Baltimore, spent the past week-end as guest of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Legg at their home near town.

Miss Katie Smith, of Port De Posit, was the week end guest of her sister, Mrs. William Nickerson.

Mrs. Mary E. Reed is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Roy Woodland at Marion, Md.

Miss Lucy Wheatley, of Anapolis, was the week end guest of Miss Flora Wheatley.

Lieut. and Mrs. Harry Deringer with their little son are occupying an apartment in the Wickes Apts. for about three weeks.

Mrs. Lee Barnes, of Fairlee, underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Kent and Queen Anne's Hospital on Monday.

Coming for this week-end will be: Mr. and Mrs. Emory Case, of Lancaster, Pa., who will be guests of Mr. C. A. Hubbard and his daughters, Misses Barbe and Dian Hubbard at their home in the Wickes Apts.

Miss Anne Boardman, of Baltimore, who will visit Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Collins, Jr.

But all is not hither, some is thither. And the thithers are the ones we are going to talk about next.

Yseterday, Mrs. Hiram S. Brown, of Godlington Manor, accompanied by her son, Col. H. S. Brown, motored to New York, where Mrs. Brown will visit her daughter, Mrs. E. M. Childs and other relatives for a stay of three weeks.

Thursday, Mr. and Mrs. R. Hynson Rogers motored to New Albany, Ind., to visit Mrs. Rogers' sister, Mrs. Gill. Miss Harriett Louisa Rogers, who has been a guest of her aunt for the past three weeks will accompany her parents, on their return East.

Mrs. Claude Truslow is the guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson R. Collins, at their home in Montclair, N. J., this week-end.

The Misses Brooks who have closed their home at Quaker Neck Wharf left this week to spend several months in Florida as is their custom each year.

Mr. Daniel Ingersol of the "Silver Hill Farm" returned home on Tuesday after spending a few days in Wilmington, Del.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Wheatley are visiting in New York, and witnesses the Major Bowes broadcast Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Thomas Gale and daughter, spent last week in Baltimore.

Mr. Marvin Williams has returned to Chestertown after a week in Columbus, Ohio.

Miss Zoa Elliott, spent the week end as a guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Frederick, at Lynch, Md.

Miss Shirley Fox was the guest of Miss Joyce Cooper at Carlise, Pa., over the week end and while there attended the Dickinison-Gettysburg game and dance.

But now I've told you of who's here and who's there, so off I helter, skelter, in my motor car, maybe fast, maybe slow, but surely, to the auto show.

Yours for a ride,

THE WANDERER

ACTIVITIES AT THE LOCAL HI SCHOOL

By ROSALIE BONNETT

Wednesday, November 10, another series of movies was given in the assembly at one o'clock. The program was "Seein' the Inguns", "Sunset Trail", and Snowtime". It raised a great deal of enthusiasm from the students and made their next day's work more enjoyable.

The Rock Hall soccer team Proved victorious over Tri-County for the Kent and Queen Annes County championship. The game which was very close, was played on the C. H. S. athletic field. The score was 2-1.

The Honor Roll for the month of November was:

SENIORS:—Mary E. Humphreys, Miriam Sewell, Mary L. Russell, Arlene Rodney, Virginia Primrose, Catherine Newton, Ruth Groves, Maria Petry, Anna Lucht, Catherine Fields.

JUNIORS:—Frances Harris, Naomi Russell, Elizabeth Wheatley, Helen Culver, Margaret Ann Dukes, Eleanor White, June Maslin.

SOPHOMORES:—Walter Pardee, James Bringham, William Payne, Louise Baster, Lena Geary, Natalie Goodman, Elsie May Ireland, Katherine Magrogan, Dorothy Hilyard, Betty Groves.

TYPEWRITING

The Juniors taking typewriting for the first time have been learning the fundamentals. Concentration, Coordination, and attention play a large part in their work and advancement depends upon them. The Seniors taking the advanced course in typewriting have been reviewing last years work and working hard to increase their speed as well as accuracy.

STENOGRAPHY

The Juniors taking stenography have been doing quite well but more study and thought will be needed in the future to assure the speed required. As for the Senior Stenography Majors, they have been reviewing the principles of shorthand and trying to increase their speed. They have done very well so far but much better work is expected in the remaining year.

SPECIAL MEETINGS AT CHESTERTOWN M. E. CHURCH TO CONTINUE

The Special Meetings that have been in progress at the Methodist Episcopal Church will be continued through this week. These meetings have been well attended and it is expected the interest will increase through the remaining evenings. The public is invited to join in this special effort to strengthenthe faith of God's people and offer an opportunity to all in the community who do not know Christ as a personal Savior to come and find forgiveness nad peace with God. The visiting ministers for this week will be: Monday evening, Rev. David Wood, pastor of Crumpton, M. E. Church; Tuesday will be the evening for the opening session of the Training School, no service will be held except the devotional service which will be led by Rev. R. W. Hallman, pastor of Still Pond M. E. Church; Wednesday evening, Rev. W. P. Roberts, Chestertown, M. P. Church will preach; Thursday evening, Rev. A. G. Lynch, Wesley Chapel, M. P. Church the preacher; Friday evening the pastor will be the evening speaker. All services will begin at 7.30 o'clock. There will be special music and singing each evening.
