THE TRANSCRIPT

ALTHOUGH DEMOCRATIC politics in Maryland has, on the surface, quieted down there is a lot of interest in all parts of the State as evidenced by the fact that fourteen hundred Democrats from all parts of Maryland attended the annual banquet of the Young Democratic Clubs of Maryland in Baltimore Wednesday evening. The meeting was for the purpose of bringing about a Democratic victory and was non-partisan as far as Democratic factions are concerned.

Following short addresses by Mrs. Elizabeth R. Menefee, National Committeewoman and Mr. Howard Bruce, National Committeman, the announced and proposed candidates for the nomination for Governor were called on for five minute talks. In order to avoid any partiality the names were drawn out of a hat to determine the order in which they should speak. The order in which they came out of the hat were Lansdale G. Sasscer, President of the Senate, William S. Gordy, Comptroller of Maryland, Dr. Charles H. Conley, Herbert O. O'Connor, Attorney General of Maryland and Howard W. Jackson, Mayor of Baltimore. As each candidate's name was called there was a burst of applause and some boos and the supporters tried to make their exhibition the loudest and longest but it did not decide the election as the greeting was about even. Each speaker advocated a Democratic Governor for Maryland using only a small part of their time to personal references.

United States Senator Millard E. Tydings was called on and made an outstanding address. His introduction, like the others brought forth a few boos and the kindest thing that could be said for the booers on an occasion of that kind is that they had ovr-imbibed. He opened his address as a challenge to his opponents by defending his action in the Senate. He pointed out his untiring activities in the past two national elections and stated that he had supported the President whole heartedly when support was needed in 1933 and 1934 but that as long as he was Senator he will vote for and support those measures which he believes to be to the best interests of the people of Maryland and the Nation. He further stated tha the is going to be a candidate for the Senate and during his campaign he will take issue with his critics on National legislation. His talk was forceful and well received. The last and feature speaker of the evening was Hon. James Farley, Postmaster General. He delivered one of those ably executed Jim Farley talks that left no qustions or answers. He started that he favored primaries in the Democratic party at it created popular interest in politics but that he, as National Chairman, would take no part in the Maryland primary.

The result of the meeting was that Maryland Democrats are very much interested in the forthcoming election and it is to be hoped that following the primary the same interest will be shown in the general election. There will probably be a lot of healing to be done in the space of two months between the primary and general election. There is very little question but that Sasscer, Jackson and O'Connor are in the fight to the finish. There is however still a question as to whether Gordy and Connelly will run for the office.

Weather Report For October

October, 1937, in Maryland and Delaware was the coolest October since 1929 and the wetest October since 1932. Sunshine was ten per cent. less than normal. The first and second decades were cool while the third decade was mild. Rainfall was light, but well distributed, during the first half of the month and was much above normal during the second half being marked by heavy rains on the 18th to 20th, 22nd to 23rd, and 27th to 28th. The week of the 18th to 24th was windy.

The mean temperature in Maryland, from reports of 37 stations already received, was 53.8°, which is 2.2° below normal. In Delaware, 7 stations reporting, the mean temperature was 55.5°, or 1.9° below normal. In Maryland the highest monthly mean was 57.7° at Crisfield and the lowest 45.5° at Sines. In Delaware the highest was 56.1° at Delaware City and the lowest 54.3° at Wilmington. The highest 24-hour temperature was 87° at Cumberland on the 6th and the lowest 14° at Sines on the 25th.

The average rainfall for the month in Maryland, 44 stations reporting, was 7.44 inches, which is 4.31 inches above normal. In Delaware it was 5.41 inches, or 2.36 inches above normal. In Maryland the greatest monthly amount was 9.41 inches at State Sanatorium and the least 3.94 inches at Princess Anne. In Delaware the greatest monthly was 6.34 inches at Bridgeville and the least 4.08 inches at Odessa. The greatest 24-hour amount in Maryland was 3.25 inches at Picardy and in Delaware 1.97 inches at Milford, both on the 27th to 28th.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—
Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go
The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sunk and the world looks punk.
Laxatives are only makeshifts. A mere bowel movement doesn't get at the cause. It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up". Harmless, gentle, yet amazing in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name. Stubbornly refuse anything else. 1k
