THE SOCIAL WANDERER

DEAR ROAMER:

Raise the song of Harvest home! Thanksgiving less than a week off, and I hope the larder has been garnered against the coming of the youths on their way home from boarding school and colleges, to partake of this greatest of feast days 'neath the parental roof.

Starting last week, the ball of social activities has really been rolling fast, as if getting into trim for the gay holiday seasons approaching. Last Sunday evening, Mrs. Thomas Massey entertained at a buffet supper in honor of Mrs. Clyde Pindell, house guest of Mrs. Barclay Kilbourne and Mrs. Lawrence Strong. On Wednesday, Mrs. Pindell was the guest of honor at a bridge-luncheon given by Mrs. Rolph Townshend, while on Monday evening Mrs. J. Browne Metcalfe was hostess at a movie party in honor of Mrs. Pindell.

At the time of this writing, indications point to a big party at the Country Club when the dinner-dance for members and their guests is to be the featured entertainment of Friday evening.

Among the out-of-town guests include Mr. and Mrs. Austin F. Shure, of Baltimore, who are house-guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Browne Metcalfe for the week-end.

Invitations have been received by a number of people here to the House Warming which Mr. and Mrs. George Maurice Morris will give at their home in Washington to-day. It will be remembered that this colonial home was purchased in Massachusetts and removed to Washington where it was rebuilt piece by piece.

Mrs. Harold M. Baker, of Toms River, New Jersey, and son Mr. William Baker, of Princeton University, visited in Kent County over the week-end, renewing old friendships, and were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Rex N. Whaley.

Other guests last week-end were: Dr. Josph P. Franklin, of Cumberland, was the guest last Friday and Saturday at the Worton Manor home of Mrs. Nora C. Maxwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold O. Mauritson, of Malden, Mass., and Miss Mildred Laddie, of Dracutt, Mass., are the guests of Mrs. Mauritson's mother, Mrs. Mary E. Walters.

Mrs. Mary V. Lane, and son, Mr. and Mrs. Price Lane, and two children, and Mrs. Bertha Beardfl of Wilmington, Del., were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McLaughlin.

Mrs. Carl M. Russell, of Baltimore, was the week end guest of her sister, Mrs. J. H. Sides.

Mr. Jessup Wilmer, of Allentown, Pa., was a guest of relatives here last week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Springer, of Baltimore, have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Emory at their home in Broad Neck this week.

Mrs. Simon W. Westcott is visiting at the home of her uncle, Dr. James Hurtt in Washington, D. C.

Miss Freida Dorf was a guest at the Phi Epsilon Pi Fraternity House Party at Penn State College this past week end. She also attended the University of Maryland vs. Penn State football game.

Mrs. William H. Davidson will spend a few days next week in New York returning for Thanksgiving. On the following Monday, Mrs. Davidson will go to New York, remaining there until January 6, when she will sail for Santa Domingo.

Mr. Frank B. Hines, Jr., will arrive in Chestertown about December 15 from Buenos Aires, S. A., where he hsa been employed with the DuPont Company for the past year. He is to be transferred to a position in this country.

Miss Dorothy Vickers left on Friday to attend the Harvard-Yale game on Saturday, spending part of the week-end in New York City as a guest of friends.

Mrs. H. Clay Brown and her daughter, Miss Elizabeth Brown left on Wednesday to be the guest of Mrs. Ela Maxwell at her home in New York City. They will remain there for a week, when they will go to Philadelphia to spend Thanksgiving as guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. Gilpin Brown. Miss Brown will attend the Army-Navy game on Saturday, December 3rd.

Mrs. Robert Harrison, of Land's End Farm, has returned from a week's visit with friends in Virginia.

Mrs. H. B. Slaughter, of Washington, D. C., is the guest of her niece, Mrs. James G. Beck.

Time's up, and so, A Happy Thanksgiving to you and a wish that all is safely gathered in—ere the winter storms begin.

Yours for wholesome grain,

THE WANDERER

NEWS OF ROCK HALL HIGH SCHOOL

Monday was a day of both defeat and victory for the Rock Hall soccer and fieldball teams. The soccer team drove all the way to Elkton only to fall defeated before that team with the disappointing score of 3-2. It could well be described as a freak games. For 3 quarters Rock Hall led 2-0 after a well placed kick by Warren Smith in the first quarter had scored a goal. A foul gave Elkton a free kick and by chance it went through the goal, but, as no player had touched the ball, it only counted one point. Then with Rock Hall valiantly trying to hold their one point lead, Elkton dug in and scored the winning goal. Of course our team felt bad, but they are good sports and admit they were defeated by a better team with fair playing.

The victory was gained by the field ball team over North East at Rock Hall. Three years ago, North East defeated our team so you can imagine the excitement at the thought of another chance at them. The first half found Norh East entirely crushed by a 12-0 score.

In the second half, with the wind against them, Rock Hall made only 4 more points. North East rallied and managed to push through 2 goals and score one penalty shot. The final score was 16-5, which puts the fieldball team in position to play the winner of Talbot and Caroline Counties on Friday. Two more games decided the Eastern Shore Champions and if determination helps, Rock Hall has a fair chance.

Tuesday night was the scene of another Social. This time to raise money for the soccer team's equipment. It was attended by over 100 people who raised the profits to $12. Many of them were smaller children who came to see the puppet plays produced as entertainment. Other entertainment was provided by George Prason's singing, Mrs. Downey's piano playing and Jesse Downey's games. Everyone seemed to enjoy themselves and we hope to be able to entertain them again soon.

The Senior Class plays are to be given on December 2nd and this time they will surely be ready.

BETTERTON

Tomorrow evening the Epworth League of the Methodist Church will be led by Miss Dorothy Crew. She will be assisted by Mr. Joseph Bitler and three singers from Philadelphia. These singers were with Mr. Charles Roberts at an Epworth League service in September and were greatly enjoyed. They will also sing at the worship service following the Epworth League.

Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Moore have moved from Betterton to Chestertown as a more central location for Mr. Moore's business.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Crew entertained a number of relatives and friends on Saturday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Crew, of Philadelphia, who were recently married.

Rev. E. C. Collins, of Wilmington, is enjoying several days gunning in Kent County, as has been his custom for a long time. He is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. Leonard Price.

Mrs. Susie Brice and Miss Elizabeth Brice are enjoying a week's vacation with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gooding in Wilmington.

Mrs. John Dempsey has returned from the University Hospital in Baltimore and is spending a while with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Smith.

Mrs. Norman Lewis and little daughter, Virginia, of Baltimore, spent the week with her mother, Mrs. Anna Wilmer.

Mrs. George Brice entertained the members of the Epworth League at its business and social meeting last Thursday evening. The president, Mrs. Floyd Smith and five young members attened the Wilmington District Epworth League Convention at Bethel on Saturday.

The members of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society met with Mrs. Ernest Horsey on Thursday afternoon for the November meeting.

ACTIVITIES AT THE LOCAL HI SCHOOL

By SARAH SPEICHER

What a pleasant surprise was experienced last Friday when Mr. Stenger announced that the movie, "Girl of the Limberlost," was going to be presented in the assembly immediately at the end of school. After the end of the picture everyone was smothered with smiles, and their week end started quite enjoyably.

On Thursday of last week the Seniors held their annual class meeting. They discussed the probability of a Dragon, and also elected some committees for the remaining year. The results were:

Junior-Senior Prom Committee—Marie Schauber, chairman; Mary Lib Humphreys, Orville Wright.

Senior Play Committee—Laura Greenwood, Chairman; Marie Petry, Margaret Groves.

Motto Committee—Frances Kreeger, chairman; Esther Carroll, Virginia Primrose.

Color and Flower Committee—Ruth MacVean, chairman; Margaret Ann Brice, Catherine Fields.

A very interesting program was given by the 2c music class on November 17. The program was as follows:

Instrumental Solo—Natalie Goodman.
Recitation—Hester Leaverton.
Tap Dance—Madeline Thrift.
Recitation—Elsie Ireland.
Instrumental Solo—Lena Geary.
Vocal Duet—Lillian Lee and Doris Coleman.
Vocal Sola—Louise Thompson.
Piano Duet—Betty Groves and Sarah Scotten.
Vocal Solo—Hope Marie Jones.
Vocal Solo—Arthur Newsome.
Impromptu Speech—Jessie Middleton.
Vocal Duet—Louise Thompson and Dolores Scott.
Recitation—Katherine Magrogan.
Vocal Duet—Mary Townsend and Ethel Stoops.
Recitation—Etta Mae Leonard.
Instrumental Solo—Hope Marie Jones.
Reading—Dorothy Hilyard.
Instrumental Solo— Frances Hadaway.
Vocal trio—Florence Brown, Ella Coleman, Sarah Jane Chambers.

In the other music classes we are studying about the development of music from the time of Christ on.

Music programs are being prepared by the two sections of the eighth grade to be given before Thanksgiving.

Second Trainnig School Course Next Tuesday

The Kent County Standard Training School opened its first session at the Methodist Episcopal Church Tuesday evening with an enrollment of 47. Those enrolled are representativ of most of the churches of the county. The school will continue each Tuesday evening closing on Friday evening, Dec. 18. Any who would like to enroll and receive credit for their work toward a certificate may do so by enrolling on Tuesday, November 23. The hour for the opening class each evening will be 7.30. The public is invited to sit in for any class any evening and welcome also to participate in the devotional service which will be held beginning at 8.20 o'clock each evening.

Kent's Largest Man Dies

Samuel McKenney, Kent's largest man died at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel McKenney, of near Massey, last week and funeral services were held on Saturday of that week.

Mr. McKenny, who was 27 years of age, weighed 600 pounds at the time of his death which followed an illness of only a few hours. In spite of his size, he was able to work and assist on his father's farm.
