THE SOCIAL WANDERER

DEAR ROAMER:

"The time has come" the Walrus said," "to talk of many things" but when it's all said, one topic covers the entirety. What you have for Her, what you have for Him, what to give Aunt Sally, what will please Uncle Ben, and whether Cousin Mary likes blue or pink. Will Tommy be satisfied with trains instead of a bike, or Betty with a doll in place of a doll house? Then comes those Christmas cards that must be addressed. Yes, we may have lost our lists, and the new addresses must needs be found for those who have moved. You are not half fininshed though, for there's the plum puddings, the fruit cakes, the cookies to be baked, and when you think you are all through—why there are presents to be wrapped! At that moment when you have reached the point of exhaustion, some gentle soul reminds you of how many days are left till Christmas. Ah me, it is a rush, but don't let it get you down—make it fun and your Christmas will be a whole lot happier one rather than the ogre named Work, that you will be glad to have pass on its way.

There have been, however, with all this ahead, many of the informal little dinner parties of 6 or 8 that I spoke of last week, which are more or less customary at this time of the year, due to the ducking season.

Dr. and Mrs. Holt Wright entertained at two bridge parties over the week-end in honor of friends from Sudlersville and vicinity.

Dr. and Mrs. Fred Livingood entertained a number of friends at their new home on Washington Ave. Monday evening. The party celebrated the birthdays of Mrs. Livingood, Mr. Conlyn Noland, Mr. Ralph Usilton and the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Bowers. The living room and dining room were attractively decorated with yellow chrysanthemums, and amusing favors were distributed among the guests.

Last night the first formal dance was held up at Washington College, sponsortd b y the Y. M. C. A. I am told the orchestra was excellent and I'm sure the usual "good time by all" was had.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Hadaway and Mr. and Mrs. J. Weldon Walbert, of Chestertown; Mr. and Mrs. Emory Eck and Miss Gloria Eck, of Baltimore, were among those who attended the wedding at Hamilton M. E. Church Wednesday evening of Miss Bertha Patience, daughter of Lieut. and Mrs. George Patience, of Hamilton. Miss Elizabeth Walbert, of Baltimore, a graduate of Washington College, was maid-of-honor.

Mr. and Mrs. Eck and their daughter were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walbert at Fairview Farm, near town.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Joseph Clarke, of the Vernon Apartments, entertained at a farewell breakfast last Sunday morning in honor of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. White, who will remove from Chestertown to Richmond, Va. Mr. and Mrs. White have been residents here for more than a year, making their home on Washington avenue.

Baltimore has claimed many of our residents in the past week or so for either a visit of a few days or week enders:

Mrs. James W. Kirby and Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Kirby were week-end guests of relatives in the Oriole City.

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Gibson and daughter, Marie, were recent guests of their sister-in-law, Mrs. Joseph Wolfe, of Baltimore.

Mrs. James G. Beck was a guest of relatives in Baltimore this week.

Mrs. H. Clay Brown spent a few days as a guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Olive Gilpin at her home in Guilford, Baltimore.

Mrs. Karl Melamet has returned from a visit of several days to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wilkinson at their suburban home near Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Strong, of Chestertown, and Mr. and Mrs. John Welch of Georgetown, have taken an apartment in Baltmore for the winter months, which they will occupy after January 1.

Then Philadelphia comes in for a goodly portion also.

Mrs. Dorsey Hines has been the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Tull several days this week at their home in Cynwyd. Mr. and Mrs. Tull were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hines here last week-end.

Mrs. Philip G. Wilmer and little daughter, Anne, with Miss Elizabeth Brown were visitors in the Quaker City last week-end and while there attended a performance of the musical show "The Three Waltzes."

Mr. John M. DeCoursey, of Kinsale, in Quaker Neck, was a visitor in Philadelphia on business several days this week.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert O. Biltz will move to Philadelphia this week where Dr. Biltz will take a new position. Dr. Biltz has been connected with the Supplee-Willis-Jones here.

Mrs. Lewin W. Wickes has returned from a visit to her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Atherton at their home in Germantown.

Among the guests in town last week-end were Mr. and Mrs. Morton Cole who visited Mr. and Mrs. James G. Beck.

On Monday, Mr. Frank B. Hines, Jr., arrives in New York, from Buenos Aires, S. A. Going to that city to-morrow, Sunday, to greet him, will be his mother, Mrs. Frank B. Hines, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. James L. Springer, of Baltimore, after which Mr. Hines will return to Chestertown with his mother to remain here until after Christmas.

Misses Anna and Helen Welch have closed their home on Maple Ave. and are spending the winter months with their niece, Dr. Berta Whaland at her home in Bridgeton, N. J.

Amidst all the brightness of the approaching season we regret to learn of the illness of:

Mrs. William H. Stayton who is at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Catherine Hulett, near Pomona, Mrs. Stayton has several nurses in attendance.

Mrs. Howard Hadaway returned to her home at Fairlee after being confined to the Kent and Queen Anne's Hospital.

Mr. Levi Downey was taken to the Kent and Queen Anne's Hospital this week for observation and treatment.

Mr. Fred Robinson who has been quite sick, this week.

Miss Fannie DeCorse, who is confined to her bed at her home on High St.

Mrs. William H. McKee who is critically ill at her home on Campus Avenue, extended,

Mr. William Lewis who fell on Thursday at the home of his brother, Mr. Albert Lewis causing a severa injury to his leg.

And now with best wishes for a speedy recovery to them all, and a passing remark that if you missed the most interesting and enlightening lecture on A Thousand Years of Porcelain, given by Mrs. Clara Stacey Solandt on Thursday, you have much to regret. Fortunately, there will be two more after Chirstmas on Glass and Silver, the dates of which to be announced later. It behooves you to be there, for a treat lies in wait.

Yours for the unknown,

THE WANDERER

Tax Returns To Be Made Quarterly

After the month of December, 1937, tax returns under Title VIII of the Social Security Act will be filed quarterly instead of monthly. The quarterly return will be a combined tax and niformation return. The first quarterly return will be for January, February and March, 1938, and must be filed in the office of the Collector of Internal Revenue, Baltimore, Maryland not later than April 30, 1938. Blank forms for the filing of this re turn wil be mailed to you in sufficient time for preparation and filing before the due date. If you have not filed Social Security returns in the past, make request for forms.

Your monthly tax return for December, 1937, must be filed as usual in hte office of the Collector of Internal Revenue, Baltimore, Maryland, not later than January 31, 1938. All remittances should be made payable to the Collector of Internal Revenue.

Requests Closig Of Calvert Street

The Mayor and Council of Chestertown at their monthly meeting on Monday, tabled a request by Mr. Louis C. Robinson that Calvert Street, in the rear of the elementary school building, be closed to traffic during certain hours of the day. The request was made due to the children, during the play periods, running out on the street.

The Council suggested that a fence or some other obstruction be erected on the school grounds to take care of the situation.

ACTIVITIES AT THE LOCAL HI SCHOOL

Coach Hall has been doing fine work with the boys in football which has just been initiated into the extra-curricular activities at Chestertown High. Of course this year's season has been entirely learning the fundamentals of the game and putting them to practice and no interscholastic games were played. To give the boys a chance to show that they had learned and to get the thrill of a real game, he divided the entire squad into two parts. The Army and the Navy. These two teams battled it out to see who was supreme on Thursday afternoon. Navy was the first to score and may be that was due to the goat that the two sea scouts had on the sidelines as a mascot. When the final whistle blew the score was tied 6-6, which seemed to the spectators a fine way to end the first football game.

The Girls' Bowling League is in full swing. Two matches have been played with Rock Hall. Last Saturday the Chestertown High "Greyhounds" defeated th e Rock Hall High "Blues" 2-1. The members of the "Greyhounds" were Elizabeth Wheatley, captain. Dian Hubbard, Marian Thomas, Helen Marie Culver, and Alice McKensie.

	Greyhounds	Blues
1st Game	364	482
2nd Game	377	372
3rd Game	445	376

On Tuesday the Chestertown High Alley Cats were defeated by the Rock Hall Reds 3-0. The members of the Alley Cats are Frances Kreeger, captain, Mary Lib Humphreys, Ruth MacVean, Laura Greenwood and Catherine Newton.

Alley Cats	Reds
359	369
329	387
374	381

On Wednesday an intra-mural game was bowled. The "Tabbies" defeated the Greyhounds. The Tabbies are Anna Miller, Mary Emily Willies, Emily Brice, Mary Tucker Lusby, and Ruth Groves.

Greyhounds	Tabbies
375	472
440	554
326	382

So far the star performer is Mary Emily Willis who has bowled a game at 153.

The boys too have organized a bowling team. They played their first inter-scholastic game with Rock Hall Wednesday afternoon. No definite team has been chosen and every boy that wanted to bowl was given a chance.

Personality Editor .... Frances Harris
Assistant Personality ... Dian Hubbard

The first meeting of the P. T. A. was held in hte auditorium of the high school Monday evening at 8 o'clock. Its purpose was to revive the interest this year in this organization. No business was discussed. The first part of the program was a play entitle "Trifles" by Susan Glaspell. This was presented by the drama class under the direction of Miss Bryan. The characters were all portrayed well. Then two movies were shorn. Bakelite was the first and showed all the uses for Bakelite and how the different types are made. The second showed the various parts of the engine of an automobile and their uses. Both of these were educational.

The 4A English class has finally finished the study of Shakespeare Monday we had a test on the subject. One question was asked what was tragical about Macbeth. One person answered "Ducan The King of Scotland, went to bed a well man and woke up dead."
