CHURCH NOTES

RADIANT LIVING

He Can Not be Poor

By Rev. C. M. Griffeth
Pastor Calvary M. E. Church
Sudlersville, Md.

When Martin Luther wrote his famous ninety-five theses and tacked them upon the door of his Church, he stated in his sixty-second thesis: "The true and precious treasure of the Church is the Holy Gospel of the glory and grace of God."

The Bible is indeed a treasure that is not only precious in itself but it also enriches every one who possesses it.

No man who possesses a Bible can truly call himself a poor man. A poor man is one who is devoid of wealth. Any man who possesses a Bible is not such a man because he has in his hands one of the greatest treasures in the world—the Word of God to man!

The Bible is the most astonding book ever written. It even speaks to a man without being opened. Let him do no more but glance at the cover and it will speak to his soul.

No man can read its pages without becoming a better man for so doing. Not only will he become a better man, but he will become a richer man. He will be richer in thought, in vision, in heart.

In that Bible are truths, precepts, principles, which, when applied to the problems of life, always result in a betterment of one's condition. His health will improve. He will increase the number of his friends. Even his financial siuation will become better.

The Bible is the key book to successful happy living.

MILLINGTON

The Ladies Aid, of Asbury M. E. Church, met on Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sudler G. Wiest.

The Ladies Club held a Christmas party in Communtiy Hall on Wednesday evening and had a good attendance and it was enjoyed by all present.

The Community Fire Company will give their usual treat to the children of this community on Tuesday evening, Dec. 21st and a large number are expected to be present.

Mrs. Arthur Tonkin returned home from Sabillasville, Md., on last Saturday after a short visit there, she is somewhat improved. Her niece Mrs. Ida Hauptman, of Media, Pa., is visiting at present with her and Mr. Tonkin.

Mr. Adolphus Davis returned home on Monday from the Maryland General Hospital Baltimore after two weeks stay at that institution. He is not at all improved but just wanted to get back home.

Mrs. Charles Bell and daughter, Jane, spent a few days last week with her mother in law, Mrs. Florence Bell in Denton, Md.

Mrs. Cecelia Wolfson, the Evangelist, a daughter of a Rabbi and a former actress, is being entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Clarence M. Melvin, Jr., while she conducts evangelistic services at Delaney, Del., M. E. Church.

Miss Mary Horsey, of Hyattsville, Md., spent the week end in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Warner Porter.

Miss Pauline Jones visited in Wilmington, Del., on Wednesday of this week.

Miss Charlotte Jones, of Wilmington, was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Jones on Tuesday.

Mrs. Cecelia Wolfson filled the Pulpit at Asbury M. E. Church on Sunday morning last and had an attentive and appreciative audience.

Mrs. Elma Medders Sparks, widow of the late Avener Sparks of near Millington, died last Sunday night after a short illness following a stroke of paralysis. She was in her 69th year.

Mrs. Sparks was the daughter of the late Wright and Annie Howard Medders and had spent most of her life in Kent and Queen Anne Counties. She was the last survivor of her immediate family as her brothers, Sturgis and Andrew and her sister, Mary, had passed away some years ago.

Funeral services were held at Millington M. E. Church on Wednesday at 2 o'clock. Rev. C. M. Griffeth officiating. Interment in Millington Cemetery, Sparks and Good, funeral directors in charge.

THOSE WHO REMAIN

When death visits a home, the first concern is to perform the last service to the loved one in a becoming manner. What ever is done must express all the reverance and affection that is felt at such a time. But in addition to this a further responsibilty rests upon the funeral director. It is his privilege and duty to lessen as far as lies with in his power, the burdens laid upon those who remain. By countless little acts of thoughtfulness he can make the way easier for them.

We consider this part of our work as important as any other. Our highest aim is to have our patrons look upon us as trusted friends, ready and anxious to render sympathetic assistance to those who remain behind.

1938 Ford V-8 Standard Tudor Sedan

MOST popular of all the Ford V-8 body types is the standard Tudor sedan, shown above. A longer hood, more sweeping lines and newly-designed front end, grille, louvres, fenders and hubcaps are featured. The car is available either with 85 horsepower or 60 horsepower V-8 engine. Interiors are attractively appointed. The front seat is full width. The seat back is divided. The sections are hinged diagonally and swing inward as they are tipped forward so as to leave a wide passageway on either side for entrance to the rear seat. Like all Ford body types the Tudor sedan has a large built-in luggage compartment. The standard cars are engineered for owners who demand the maximum of economy in first cost and operating cost.
