RADIANT LIVING

The Cup or the Water?

By Rev. C. M. Griffeth
Pastor Calvary M. E. Church
Sudlersville, Md.

A certain philanthropist had a fountain placed by a wayside for the benefit of his tired thirsty fellow men who passed that way on the hot days of the summer time. To this fountain he had chained a drinking cup which was very beautifully designed.

Some time later there came along thta way an art critic. He stood by the fountain studyingf its design and began to find fault with the art work which was upon the cup.

The remarks of the art critic were carried to the giver of the fountain. Upon receiving these critical remarks the philanthropist asked if there were any who found that the fountain brought relief to them on a hot summer day. When he was told that many travelers stopped there and found refreshment, he smiled and seemed satisfied and expressed the wish that the art cirtic himself might find that the cup he criticised could carry refreshment to himself.

After all, the most important thing about the fountain was not the design on the cup, but whether or not it brought relief and refreshment to the hot thirst travelers along the dusty road.

There are a number of people who will stand off and criticise Jesus Christ. They will deny His virgin birth, His sinless life, His atoning blood, His resurrection, His ascention, His coming again. They will deny almost everything concerning Him, but while they are standing there denying this or that, there are thousands of others, who, drinking the water of life which He so freely gives to the whosoever will, find a deep satisfying refreshment to their weary souls.

It is very evident that the critic has never deeply drank from the cup that he criticises.

One drink from the Fountain of Life, the Christ, will open your eyes to the beauty of the Cup.

THOSE WHO REMAIN

When death visits a home, the first concern is to perform the last service to the loved one in a becoming manner. What ever is done must express all the reverance and affection that is felt at such a time. But in addition to this a further responsibilty rests upon the funeral director. It is his privilege and duty to lessen as far as lies with in his power, the burdens laid upon those who remain. By countless little acts of thoughtfulness he can make the way easier for them.

We consider this part of our work as important as any other. Our highest aim is to have our patrons look upon us as trusted friends, ready and anxious to render sympathetic assistance to those who remain behind.

B. R. FELLOWS,
Funeral Director.

1938 Ford V-8 Standard Tudor Sedan

MOST popular of all the Ford V-8 body types is the standard Tudor sedan, shown above. A longer hood, more sweeping lines and newly-designed front end, grille, louvres, fenders and hubcaps are featured. The car is available either with 85 horsepower or 60 horsepower V-8 engine. Interiors are attractively appointed. The front seat is full width. The seat back is divided. The sections are hinged diagonally and swing inward as they are tipped forward so as to leave a wide passageway on either side for entrance to the rear seat. Like all Ford body types the Tudor sedan has a large built-in luggage compartment. The standard cars are engineered for owners who demand the maximum of economy in first cost and operating cost.
