THE SOCIAL WANDERER

DEAR ROAMER:

"Deck the halls with boughs of holly, 'tis the season to be jolly; don we now our gay apparel, troll the ancient Yuletide carol." Does this traditional song express the jollity of the Christmas celebration around you? If not, why not? Make it be true.

Here I am writing you again so soon and not much has occurred in the meantime except much bustle and ado. However, one bit of interesting news has been sent me, and before wishing you a Merry Christmas, read ahead.

Dr. and Mrs. Clinton A. Kane, of near Perryville, Md., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Nancy Kane, to Mr. William Beck Nicholson, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Earle Nicholson, of Chestertown. The wedding will take place Tuesday, December 28th at St. Mark's Episcopal Church near Aikin, Md. Now, isn't, that exciting? We all know "Bill Nick", and many of us know Nancy, who is a senior at Washington College and a member of the Alpha Chi Omega Sororiety. Congratulations, both of ye!

And now back to Christmas. Instead of the usual let-down, nothing to-do feeling we generally experience on Christmas night, t'will be different this year.

The Chester River Yacht and Country Club is having its dance that night, with the famed Earle Simpson's orchestra to render the special touch. Before the dance, Miss Priscilla Granger and her cousin, "Bus" Humphreys will entertain at a large egg-nogg party for their many friends. And then when the day after rolls around, Sunday, and still that old "let-down" wants to come creeping on, a large number of people will be ready to go again. The most attractive and original invitations have been issued to a buffet supper at the Lotus Inn, to be given by Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Earle Nicholson, and Mrs. Hynson Beck. We are all anticipating this with the keenest interest and pleasure.

On Tuesday, Miss Dorothy Vickers will entertain at a large tea from 4 until 6, when younger society will be there, for a cup and a sup.

On Tuesday night, the young group will continue their gaiety when a Junior dance will be held at the Country Club. Of course if one looked in, the Big Apple consisting of trucking, Susie Q-ing and the like will probably be in progress as part of their fun. These Junior dances have been very popular this year among this set, which have afforded an additional amusement during the various holiday seasons.

for the day of days are Miss Harriett Outside of the regular school-crowd, home, among the home-comers Welch from Sag Harbar, L. I., Miss Alice Dole from Pittsburgh, Pa., Mr. James L. Bacchus, of New York, Miss Nancy Jean Usilton of Washington, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shaughnessy, of Emmittsburg, Mr. and Mrs. James L. Springer and Miss Leonora H arris Springer, of Baltimore, will be house guests of Dr. and Mrs. Frank B. Hines over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Tull, Mr. Harvey Tull, of Cynwyd, Pa., Miss Emily Pribe, of Cincinnatti, Ohio, and Mr. Edw. Townsend of Baltimore, will be guests over the Christmas week-end of Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Hines at Riverside.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard D. Rees will have as their guests for Christmas Miss Laura J. Rees of La Plata, Md., Miss Edith S. Rees, of Cleveland, Ohio, Mr. Walter H. Rees, of Canton, Ohio and Mr. H. Dale Rees, Jr., of Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Maxwell will be hosts over the holiday to Mr. E. Joseph Maxwell, of Detroit, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. George B. Maxwell, of Tarrytown, N . Y., and Mr. and Mrs. Hall, of Baltimore.

Miss Rebecca Kendall, of Ancon, Panama, Canal Zone is spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil W. Kendall.

All of the in-between activitise, I'll save for next week, but don't forget to save some vim and vigor for the New Year's Eve dance Friday night. For "Fast away the old year passes" so be ready to "Hail the new, ye lads and lasses."

And now wishing you all the rhymes and verses that come on your Christmas cards, I'll merely say—

Yours for a Merry Christmas to all,

THE WANDERER
