GLIMPES FROM SHORE COUNTIES

Dorchester county, Maryland ranked fourth among all the counties of the United States in the number of acres planted in tomatoes, according to the census for 1935. The number of acres planted in 1934 in that county was 10,183.

Three Maryland counties were included among the leading 50 counties in the United States in acreage devoted to strawberries, as shown by the census of 1935. Somerset county stood 17th, Wicomico county was 26th, and Worcester county was 39th.

A Delmar man was burned to death, a Philadelphian committed suicide and a New Jersey man was critically injured in an accident involving two automobiles and a truck in New Jersey Friday night of last week.

A car driven by Harold Heltke, of New Jersey, was sideswiped by a man who failed to stop, and was thrown into the path of a produce truck driven by Luther Redish, Delmar. The truck burst into flames and Redish was burned to death.

The driver who failed to stop was later halted by officers, identified as John Taylor, of Philadelphia, and jail ed. During the night he hanged himself in his cell.

Turkey growers of Maryland have called a meeting for January 12 to be held at the Lord Baltimore Hotel for the purpose of organizing a Maryland State Turkey Growers Association. Mrs. A. W. Mayor J. Wallace Woodford, of Dover, announced yesterday morning that the city had completed negotiations for the purchase of Silver Lake. The purchase will include all of the land that is under water at the lake and the lowlands extending from the dam to Divsiion street.

According to present plans of the city it is expected to develop the entire area into a park site that will eventually extend from a point near the old Dover wharf through the Loockerman and Division streets bridges and around to a point above the present new Sliver Lake bridge.

Because Mrs. Hynson Cohee, of Magnolia, wants her baking pan back, the Peninsula Horticultuhal Society's apple pie baking contest has backfired. The first prize went to James Harris, a farmer, the only male entry. In his acceptance speech at the scoiety's meeting at Camden, Del., last week, he promised to meet all comers.

Several days later, however, Mrs. Lucy Conwell, who had charge of the contest, said that she received a request from Mrs. Cohee, a neighbor of Harris, that her pan be returned.

Mrs. Cohee said she baked the pie for Harris but was not aware it was for a contest. She evidenced no interest in the silver platter given as first prize but she would like to have her baking pan returned.

Sarah E. Rawleigh
vs.
Charles Albert Rawleigh

In the Circuit Court for Kent County
In Equity No. 3075

The object of the Bill filed in the above entitled case is to procure a Decree for divorce a vinculo matrimonii.

The Bill states:

1. That on March 3rd, 1904, Sarah E. Rawleigh was married to a certain Charles Albert Rawleigh of Kent County in the State of Maryland, with whom she has been living until the 14th day of November, 1934.

2. That though the conduct of your Oratrix towards her husband, the said Charles Albert Rawleigh, has always been kind, affectionate and above reproach, the said Charles Albert Rawleigh had, without any just cause or reason, abandoned and deserted her, and has declared his intention to live with her no longre, and that such abandonment has continued uninterruptedly for at least three years, and is deliberate and final and beyond any reasonable expectation of reconciliation.

3. That there has been born to said parties nine children, three of whom are living as follows: Walter Rawleigh, aged 28, born February 1st, 1909; Charles Albert, Jr., aged 25, born Jan. 18th, 1912; and Robert Hope Rawleigh, aged 13 years, born Aug. 13th, 1923, and that said Complainant requests the custody of said child. Your Complainant does not desire to cause any estrangement between the infant child and his father and is willing for said child to see and visit his father for a reasonable time each year.

4. That since said separation the said Charles Albert Rawleigh has not contributed to the support of herself or their children.

5. That for some years past the said Charles Albert Rawleigh, her husband, has treated her with great cruelty, harshness and brutality, at times striking and beating her and on or about November 14th, 1934, his conduct became so intolorable that she was obliged to leave his house.

6. That he has ever since by threats and violence prevented her from returning to his said house and has refused to permit her to live with him and will not contribute anything to her support.

7. That ever since the said marriage your Oratrix has behaved herself as a faithful, affectionate and chaste wife towards the said Charles Albert Rawleigh and her entire conduct has always been beyond reproach.

8. That your Oratrix is wholly destitute of means of supporting herself during the pendency of this suit, or of defraying the costs and expenses attending the presecution of the same.

It is thereupon, this 18th day of December, 1937, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent County in Equity, that the Plaintiff, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Kent County, once in each of four successive weeks before the 17th day of January next, give notice to the said Charles Albert Rawleigh, non-resident defendant, warning him to appear in this Court in person, or by Solicitor, on or before the 1st day of February next, to show cause, if any he has, why a Decree ought not to be passed as prayed.
