CHURCH NOTES

RADIANT LIVING

Trusting Divine Love

By Rev. C. M. Griffeth
Pastor Calvary M. E. Church
Sudlersville, Md.

Many a soul has been lost by despair. Having been caught in the snares of misfortune, they have given up all hope. It may be that you too are feeling the downward pull of discouragement.

But when all goes wrong, why not turn to God? Have you forgotten the divine invitation: "Come unto me all ye who are weary and heavy laden, and I will give you rest?"

God's love is always available to the soul, even to the soul lost in sin. God therefore needs no entreaty to make Him willing to turn to us in our need. He does not need to be prolongingly implored to help us as though it were

God's love is always available to the dertake.

God's love, as the radiancy of the sun, is perpetually constant. One needs but to turn to the light, and he shall not be in darkness. Seek then, not to turn God unto yourself, but rather seek to turn yourself unto God. And turning to Him, trust Him with all that simplicity with which a child puts his confidence in his father. Then shall the moral gloom, the misery of your heart, and the troubles which distress your mind, be dispelled by the radiance of His Divine Compassion. The blues cannot live in God's sunshine!

When this realization of the constancy of Divine Love is born in your soul, it will be as a resplendant dawn of a new born day. It will be an hour laid up in everlasting memory.

THOSE WHO REMAIN

When death visits a home, the first concern is to perform the last service to the loved one in a becoming manner. What ever is done must express all the reverance and affection that is felt at such a time. But in addition to this a further responsibilty rests upon the funeral director. It is his privilege and duty to lessen as far as lies with in his power, the burdens laid upon those who remain. By countless little acts of thoughtfulness he can make the way easier for them.

We consider this part of our work as important as any other. Our highest aim is to have our patrons look upon us as trusted friends, ready and anxious to render sympathetic assistance to those who remain behind.
