RADIANT LIVING

Continuing Love

By Rev. C. M. Griffeth
Pastor Calvary M. E. Church
Sudlersville, Md.

We cannot escape the fact that Jesus makes love a personal requirement of each one who would be a real follower of Himself.

At the last meeting with His disciples, just before the betrayal, when He so much desired to impress upon them the one outstanding thing that was to be required of them as disciples, what was it that Jesus said to them? Just this: "This is my commandment, that ye love one another, as I have loved you."

And is it no love applied to the problems of life that marks us as true Christians?

To meet this continuous task of love is not easy. Was it easy for Him to bear the lacerating crown of thorns? Was it easy for Him to suffer the pain of the flesh-tearing spikes as they were brutally pounded through his hands and feet? Was it easy for Him to pray: "Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do?"

The secret of meeting this task of love is to have the presence of the love of God in the heart. For it must be in the heart, before it can be in the deed. And the secret of having the love of God in one's heart is to have the God of love in one's heart.

When hte God of love controls your mind, your thoughts, your emotions, your reactions, you will be sure to do always the loving thing.

Revial Services At Sudlersville

Mrs. Cecelia F. Wolfson, converted Jewish evangelist, will conduct a series of revival services for two weeks, beginning Sunday morning, Januray 23rd, at Calvary M. E. Church in Sudlersville, Md., and closing Sunday evening, February 6th.
This is a return engagement of Mrs. Wolfson, who was at Calvary M. E. Church two years ago and held a very successful engagement.
Mrs. Wolfson has had a very unique experience in life, being born in the home of a Jewish Rabbi and a descendent of a long list of Rabbis. She spent her earlier days on the New York S tate and was late converted to the Christian religion. How God took care of her when she was ruthlessly driven from her home is one of the most interesting and exciting stories ever told from the Christian pulpit.
As a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church and devoting her life to evangelism, she is being invited to the pulpits of some of the largest churches of the eastern Methodist Conferences. Mrs. Wolfson possesses a very charming personality and a captivating voice, both in speech and in song, and imparts to every one who meets her an inspiring influence.

NEWS OF ROCK HALL HIGH SCHOOL

One of the most interesting enterprizes to be started in the Rock Hall High School lately is the orchestra.
This is composed of about fifteen members of the high school. Mr. Jesse Downey has kindly consented to take charge of them and we are certainly grateful to him. The orchestra is to meet every Wednesday. They have had two meetings so far. When the clarinets, trumpet saxaphones, and trombones are all blowing at once, it is quite advisable to stuff your ears full of cotton and get as far away as possible.
Preparations for the P. T. A. bake are rapidly drawing to a close. The donations have nearly all been accounted for, and al arrangements agreed upon for the climax on Saturday, January 22, in the Rock Hall fire hall. We hope you are able to get some of the fine cakes, pies, hot breads or dressed poultry.
The girls of the high school have formed a basket ball squad and are diligently practicing under the supervision of Miss Ashley. They are looking forward to the day when they wil be able to challenge the Chestertown girls, to a match. Let's hope it is in the near future.
The girl's bowling team again emerged victorious after their matches on Tuesday afternoon. The scores were close, but Rock Hall pulled through ahead.

ACTIVITIES AT THE LOCAL HI SCHOOL

Now that another week of the new year has passed the students are getting more accustomed to writing 1938 instead of 1937 on a large number of papers you can find 1937 used exclusively. Perhaps this will teach some of the pupils to keep their minds on what they are doing while they are doing it.
The meeting of the Reading Club was held on Thursday, January the thirteenth. The members have planned a new method of entertainment; one of the plans is for one member to pick the title of some book, another pupil shall tell the author of the book, and someone else will give the main characters. A plan of this type is a boon to education as well as a past-time of fun for the members.
Movies were held in the auditorium on Thursday, January 13, and also on Monday, January 17. On Thursday the program consisted of only one picture of which the title was "Black Beauty". This was a wonderful example of the raising and training of a racing horse. It proved that a person is kind to an animal the animal will be kind to him. Monday's program consisted of "Hotel Continental", a story of fast action and a story to bring to the children that crime does not pay. The short subjects were one of AEsops Fables entitled "The Office Boy"; the ohter was "Tune Up and Sing" starring Lanny Ross, a popular radio star.
Friday is the big day for the seniors; that is the day set for the Senior Prom, and all of the seniors are looking forward to a big time.
The intra-mural games of the classes are now in progress.
Friday there were games between the Freshmen and Sophomores, and the Juniors and Seniors. The Juniors won by a score of 14-12. The Sophomores won 9-8. Monday there were games between the Freshmen and the Seniors. The Seniors won by a score of 20-4. There also was a game between the Sophmores and the Juniors. The Juniors won by a score of 5-4.

THOSE WHO REMAIN

When death visits a home, the first concern is to perform the last service to the loved one in a becoming manner. What ever is done must express all the reverance and affection that is felt at such a time. But in addition to this a further responsibilty rests upon the funeral director. It is his privilege and duty to lessen as far as lies within his power, the burdens laid upon those who remain. By countless little acts of thoughtfulness he can make the way easier for them.

We consider this part of our work as important as any other. Our highest aim is to have our patrons look upon us as trusted friends, ready and anxious to render sympathetic assistance to those who remain behind.
