Hints for Homemakers

By Jane Rogers

INSTEAD of discontinuing the service of winter vegetables that have made their appearance too frequently at the table, dress them up in a style that will make them seem new to the eye as well as the palate. An intriguing new sauce prepared with Brazil nuts, for example, will do a great deal in bringing cauliflower back into favor. The tested recipe is easy to follow.

Cauliflower With Brazil Nut Sauce

1 head cauliflower
4 tablespoons butter
½ cup chopped Brazil nuts

Remove leaves from cauliflower and soak in cold water thirty minutes. Cook in a very small amount of water with a dash of sugar and of salt in a heavy, covered utensil. When tender, drain. Melt one tablespoon of the butter, add nuts and when brown, add remaining butter. Pour this sauce over the cauliflower.

Silencing Radio Clicks, Roars and Sputters

WHEN your reception of a radio program is interrupted by clicks, sputters or a sound like a heavy ash can being dragged over the cellar floor, there is an excellent chance that it is due to interference by any one of a number of electrical devices in or near your home. Familiarity with the characteristic sounds caused by various devices will often make it a simple matter to locate and eliminate the source of the trouble.

Loose connections of reading lamps or light bulbs may cause a series of annoying clicks. Clicking can also be caused by a nearby, flashing electric sign or even by dialing or jiggling the hook of the telephone. Heating pads and thermostatic devices such as automatic electric irons and the heater for the tropical fish aquarium sometimes produce both clicks and roaring

ON THE SCREEN AT THE NEW LYCEUM

Choice of "Naughty Marietta," Victor Herbert's classic operetta, as the vehicle for filming the screen's first great musical adventure story, has brought to picture audiences one of the greatest musical works ever composed.

Produced on a spectacular scale by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, with Jeanette MacDonald, the Sonia of "The Merry Widow" and acknowledged one of the greatest singing stars of the American screen, and Nelson Eddy, American operatic baritone, hailed as a sensational "discovery" among romantic leading man, "Naughty Marietta" was filmed as a thundering drama of the romantic Creole days of St. Louis, a vehicle that gives to the famous Victor Herbert music the importance it merits.

One of Five Greatest

"Naughty Marietta" is acknowledged one of the five greatest comic operas ever composed in America, the others being De Koven's "Robin Hood," and Herbert's "Serenade," "Fortune Teller" and "Mlle. Modiste."

It was first produced in the New York Theatre, November 7, 1910, by Oscar Hammerstein, with Emma Trentini, from grand opera, and Orville Harrold. Herbert's music had a libretto by Rida Johnson Young. It took the country by storm. "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life," one of its greatest songs, remains popular to this day and is masterpieces. "I'm Falling in Love with Someone" is another song that has come down the years as popular today as at its premiere.

Metro- Goldwyn - Mayer's screen transcription of "Naughty Marietta," which will be shown at the New Lyceum on a return engagement on Monday and Tuesday, February 14 and 15 takes on as much importance as its original stage premiere because of the unique handling of the story. The old comic opera libretto was laid aside, and the stirring incidents, historical facts and dramatic thrills referred to in dialogue in the stage version are actually shown.

The importation of the Casquette Girls from France to mate with the settlers in Louisana, the New Orleans marriage auction, the battle of the Everglades, the pirate capture of the casquette ship, the Paris of Louis XV and other authentic and dramatic details of the history of the founding of one of America's most romantic city were woven into a thrilling adventure romance, directed by a master of adventure, W. S. Van Dyke, of "Trader Horn," "Thin Man," "Manhattan Melodrama," "The Pagan," "Cuban Love Song," and other successes.

Epic saga of the West and the story of how law ond order supplanted the reign of the six-gun, "The Bad Man of Brimstone," starring Wallace Beery, will show at the New Lyceum on Wednesday and Thursday, Feb. 16 and 17.

Famous for his portrayals of bad man roles, Beery, as leader of a gang of outlaws who rule the town of Brimstone, is offered one of the finest opportunities of his long cinematic career.

Filmed against scenes of rugged grandeur in the Zion National Forest of Utah, "The Bad Man of Brimstone" is the story of a gangster of the '80's whose reign is interrupted when he discovers that a stranger who is attempting to clean up Brimstone is his own son.

The part of the son is taken by Dennis O'Keefe, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's newest discovery. O'Keefe falls in love with the daughter of Brimstone's crooked judge, Virginia Bruce.

Directed by J. Walter Ruben, the picture boasts one of the largest and most impressive suporting casts of any major Western production in some years.

Occupying prominent spots in the picture are Joseph Calleia, Lewis Stone, Guy Kibbee, Bruce Cabot, Cliff Edwards, Guinn Williams, Arthur Hohl, Robert Gleckler, Noah Beery, Scotty Beckett and nearly a dozen other equally well-known players.

Romance, comedy and gripping drama blend swiftly in the action of the production and the roar of a six-shooter begins and ends it.

That Nagging Backache

May Warn of Disordered Kidney Action

Modern life with its hurry and worry, irregular habits, improper eating and drinking—its risk of exposure and infection—throws heavy strain on the work of the kidneys. They are apt to become over-taxed and fail to filter excess acid and other impurities from the life-giving blood.

You may suffer nagging backache, headache, dizziness, getting up nights, leg pains, swelling—feel constantly tired, nervous, all worn out. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder may be burning, scanty or too frequent urination.

Use Doan's Pills. Doan's help the kidneys to get rid of excess poisonous body waste. They are antiseptic to the urinary tract and tend to relieve irritation and the pain it causes. Many grateful people recommend Doan's. They have had more than forty years of public approval. Ask your neighbor!
