THE SOCIAL WANDERER

DEAR ROAMER:

Hello! Here I am back with pen in hand to greet you once more, right on old Abe Lincoln's birthday. Hope that he is giving you a holiday at any rate. February is so full of birthdays for those of renown and us lesser mortals too, that I always think of it as a party month. Bright, attracive favors and color schemes, always so alluring to make one entertain, encounter us at every turn and so, dear hostess, do your stuff.

Last Sunday night two buffet suppers were afloat. Mr. and Mrs. J. Thomas Kibler entertained a number of the young married set, and Mr. and Mrs. Rolph Townshend were hosts at a smaller supper.

On Saturday, Miss Harriett Louisa Rogers was hostess at bridge in honor of Miss Martha Speicher who left this week for Bucknell University where she will pursue her studies.

Miss Margaret Jefferson has just returned from New Yory where she completed her spring shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. Hynson Rogers are spending this week-end in Baltimore as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wethered Barroll at their home in Ruxton.

To-night, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nicholson are entertaining the bridge crowd at dinner. Among the out-of-town guests, who also are week-end guests, will be Mr. and Mrs. Richard Carvel, Mr. and Mrs. Gilpin Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard C. Needles entertained at dinner last Sunday, in honor of the former's birthday. Among the out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. H. Vernon Needles, of Dover, Delaware, and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. White, of Milton, Delaware.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Davis celebrated their 46th wedding anniversary on Thursday of this week at their home on Washington Avenue. They were surprised that evening by a visit from their son, Mr. Fred Davis and family who brought refreshments for the celebration.

Mrs. H. Clay Brown left yesterday for Baltimore for a few days visit, where she will be the guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Olive Gilpin.

Mrs. Frank Woodside, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Simon W. Westcott since Christmas left this week to visit friends in West Chester, Pa., for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Perkins, of Baltimore, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ebben F. Perkins.

Mrs. D. W. Ingersoll and son, Gilbert, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Baker at Island Heights, N. J. They also visited Mr. William Baker at Princeton University.

Mrs. T. B. Kilbourne is spending several days in Baltimore as the guest of Mrs. J. H. Clendaniel, Jr., and Mrs. Kennard Aldridge.

Mrs. Hal Curry, who has been spending some time here as the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Frank B. Hines will return to her home in Connecticutt on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Irvine, of Baltimore, will be week-end guests of Mrs. Henry Kratzer at the Wickes Apartments.

Misses Dora McIntire, of East Orange, N. J., and Madge Wilkinson, of Philadelphia, were week-end guests of Mrs. Maggie McIntire.

Mrs. S. S. Price, of Lynch, is spending a few weeks in Philadelphia as the guest of her step-son, Mr. William V. Price and family. Mrs. Price will also visit, while there, her grand-daughter, Mrs. Walter Kernan.

The day of hearts and flowers is at hand, the day when Cupid smiles his best; the day when hearts are young, candy is sent, rhymes, poses and all the rest.

St. Valentine comes on Monday "blue", then we'll learn if love is true; so remember all young lovers, and husbands old, there'll be no excuse to say—you had not been told.

Yours for the best

AMERICAN STORES CO

once a small grocery---NOW an institution

The healthy growth of any business is always consistent with the manner in which it serves. Today, we look back through 47 years of consistent business building to one small grocery store, then the hope of two enterprising young men. Down through the years the desire and will to serve better, strict adherence to highest standards of purity and quality, a direct Producer-Consumer Plan of Merchandising, eliminating uneconomical double handling, thus insuring Mrs. Homekeeper more value for her food dollar, and quicker turnover which guarantees fresher foods on our customer's tables, have largely been responsible for the high place held by American Stores today. As we go forward, this week we are celebrating our
