Spiced Apple Muffins Should Be Piping Hot

SPICED apple muffins served piping hot with a generous supply of butter will make a feast of the simplest meal. Try them for breakfast with crisp bacon slices, for luncheon with vegetable platter or salad bowl, or with fruit salad for dinner in place of dessert. The tested recipe follows:

Spiced Apple Muffins

2 cups pastry flour, sifted before measuring
⅓ cup sugar
4 teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon cinnamon
1 cup milk
3 teaspoons butter, melted
1 cup finely chopped raw apples
1 egg, beaten

Sift together flour, sugar, baking powder, salt and cinnamon. Combine milk, beaten egg and butter and add to dry ingredients. Mix thoroughly and fold in chopped apples. Drop in well greased muffin tins and sprinkle on a cinnamon and sugar mixture using 2 tablespoons of sugar and ½ teaspoon cinnamon. Bake in a moderate oven (375° F.) for 20 to 25 minutes.

Yield: 12 muffins 2½ inches in diameter.

ON THE SCREEN AT THE NEW LYCEUM

Franchot Tone and Gladys George in "Love Is A Headache"

Katharine Brush, whose best-selling novel, "Young Man of Manhattan," was made into a motion picture hit, has scored again with the adaptation to the screen of her original story, "Mannequin," co-starring for the first time Joan Crawford and Spencer Tracy. The picture shows on Monday, and Tuesday, Feb. 21 and 22 at the New Lyceum Theatre.

With the New York Miss Brush knows so well as an exciting background, this is the human, realistic tale of a girl born in a Hester Street tenement, who winds up in a multi-millionaire's penthouse. Jessie Cassidy, played by Miss Crawford, asks for nothing more in life than three clean, comfortable rooms and the man she loves, but fate takes a hand when two men battle for her.

The first is Eddie Miller, portrayed by Alan Curtis, Hollywood's newest leading ma ndiscoverey. The second s John L. Hennessey, a part which gives Trcay a rugged characterization as a wealthy steamship owner who rose from Hester Street. Surprising story twists lead to a dramatic climax when Hennessey goes broke and Jessei finally finds happiness in three rooms.

Miss Crawford, never more beautifully gowned, wears twenty-eght costume changes, designed by Adrian as an advance fashon preview of feminine styles for 1938.

In promnent featured roles are Ralph Morgan; Mary Phillips, New York stage actress; Leo Gorcey, who plays the same type of swaggering waterfront tough role that brought him fame as "Spit" in the Broadway stage production of "Dead End"; Oscar O'Shea, veteran character actor who was discovered in a WPA theatre project and scored an immediate hit in "Captains Courageous"; Elizabeth Risdon and others.

Frank Borzage, whose most recent film success was "Big City," and who gave the screen "Farewell to Arms," "Seventh Heaven" and "Street Angel," was the director.

Dedicated to laughter, its chuckle-producng situations assisted by one of the screen's finest comedy crews, 'Love Is a Headache" opens at the New Lyceum Theatre on Wednesday and Thursday, February 23 and 24.

Co-starring Gladys George, in her frst screen comedy role, and Franchot Tone, the picture concerns the dilemma of an actress who finds herself saddled with two orphaned children as the result of her press agent's machinations.

The press agent, Ted Healy, by his "adopton" stunt, brings Miss George into sharp conflict with Tone and Ralph Morgan, both of whom are in love with her.

Tone enacts a newspaper columnist. When police, urged on by Morgan, hint that they are about to arrest her for kidnapping the two children, Miss George flees to a small New York town. There Tone joins her and they hold a conference as to what to do with the children.

The innkeeper, who is also a justice of the peace, overhears their plotting. Believing, from what he overhears, that it is Tone's duty, he forces them to marry at the point of a shotgun.

The cast is supplemented by the comedy antics of Mickey Rooney, Frank Jenks, Virginia Weidler, Jessie Ralph, Fay Holden, Barnett Parker and Julius Tannen.

Directed by Rchard Thorpe, whose most recent comedy successes include "Double Weddnig" and "Man-Proof," the picture was produced by Frederick Stephani.

Watch Your Kidneys!
Help Them Cleanse the Blood of Harmful Body Waste
Your kidneys are constantly filtering waste matter from the blood stream. But kidneys sometimes lag in their work—do not act as Nature intended—fail to remove impurities that, if retained, may poison the system and upset the whole body machinery.
Symptoms may be nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—a feeling of nervous anxiety and loss of pep and strength.
Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder may be burning, scanty or too frequent urination.
There should be no doubt that prompt treatment is wiser than neglect. Use Doan's Pills. Doan's have been winning new friends for more than forty years. They have a nation-wide reputation. Are recommended by grateful people the country over. Ask your neighbor!
