THE SOCIAL WANDERER

DEAR ROAMER:

Good morning or good evening! Don't know what time you are reading this, but greetings anyway. Everyone seems still breathless from the basket-ball game Wednesday night, and to-night there's still another thrill in store.

Aren't you always sorry when the season is over? I am. It's such a nice event to anticipate for Saturday evenings. Well, from the cards, the club members received this week, it looks as if you are going to always have something to do on a Saturday night. The club is to be open to members and their guests for either cards, dancing or what have you. On Tuseday, George's birthday, plans are being made for a dinner dance. The details have not been final, so I can tell you no more than this. Anyway, it all sounds good, and here's wishing much success to the new entertainment committee.

Last night, there were big doings up at Washington College. The grand Prom known as the "Penthouse Serenade", held in the Gymnasium, was led by Howard Henry Pfund, President of the Junior Class and Miss Doris Hebditch, of Havre de Grace, who acted as Queen of the Prom. Miss Hebditch was escorted by Mr. Pfund.

It seems to be the week for Proms. Up at St. Andrews, Middletown, the private boys' school, they are having their Senior Prom. Four of the town's sub-debs will go up for it and spend the week-end. They include Miss Betty Beck, Miss Dian Hubbard, Miss Nancy Shakespeare and Miss Marshall Earle.

Even the little folks have been breaking out into parties recently.

Frances Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Foster Brown, entertained a few of her little friends at a Valentine party at her parent's home on Friday evening.

Little Betty Turner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Turner, entertained a number of young friends at a party at her home on Front street Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Simon Westcott entertained at dinner followed by bridge on Wednesday evening.

Mr. Wilbur Ross Hubbard was host at a terrapin dinner at his home, Wide Hall, last Saturday evening.

A double surprise birthday party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Starkey, in the Baldwin Apartments on Monday evening in honor of Mr. Starkey's birthday, and Mr. John Golden, of Princeton, N. J., whose birthday was the same date.

Miss Priscilla Granger will be hostess this evening, Saturday, at a dinner party followed by a miscellaneous shower in honor of Mr. and Mrs. William Beck Nicholson, whose marriage took place recently. Mrs. Nicholson was formerly Miss Nancy Kane.

Mrs. Herbert Skipper and her sister, Mrs. Etta Fountain will entertain at a bridge luncheon on Tuesday, George Washington's birthday.

Many guests have been coming and going, the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Bingham, Jr., of Baltimore, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beck last week-end.

Mr. William A. Jackson and Mr. Harold Hallett, have returned from a week's visit to New York. They were accompanied home by Miss Betty Russell, of New York, who will remain over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Joseph Clarke, of the Vernon Apartments, entertained the following week-end guests: Mrs. Anna E. Clarke, Mrs. James O'Farrell Clarke and Miss Catherine Clarke, all of Baltimore.

Mrs. J. W. Blount, of Galena, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Julian Coleman.

Mrs. Stewart Matthews, of Wilmington, Del., has been the guest of Mrs. L. H. P. Vansant and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry T. Williams have returned from a week's visit with her sister, Capt. and Mrs. E. A. DeWitt, U. S. A., at New York.

To-day, Mrs. Thomas Massey and Mrs. James G. Metcalfe will leave by motor for Florida where they will visit friends of Mrs. Massey's.

In the meantime, we'll be here, and the closest to Florida will be one of the famous oranges to our lips.

Yours remaining,

THE WANDERER

ODDS AND ENDS FROM C. H. S.

Editor—Milton Dorf

The Sophomores held a very successful Valentine Party last Friday night. Only a part of the class was present but each one brought a guest. They played many games and topped this off with orange and crackers.

The Soccer-Fieldball Banquet will be given February 25. This banquet, which is only for the members of the soccer and fieldball teams, is to be followed by a party which is open to everyone in the school.

The Junior English Class presented the play "The House of Seven Gables" last Tuesday. The players acted their parts very well and the play was a big success.

Speaking of plays, the Senior Class after much debating has at last chosen their Senior Class Play. It is called "Pride and Prejudice" and is by Jane Austin. No date has been set to give the play as yet. The cast is as follows:

Mr. Bennett	Robert Logan
Hill	Donald Latham
Mrs. Bennett	Maria Petry
Lady Lucas	Ruth McVean
Charlotte Lucas	Catherine Newton
Jane	Marie Schauber
Elizabeth	Laura Greenwood
Lydia	Margaret Anne Brice
Mr. Bingley	Charles Harper
Agatha	Ruth Groves
Mr. Collins	Charles Rollison
Amelia	Nettie Smith
Mr. Wickham	Louis Anthony
Belinda	Ellen Bordley
Amanda	Virginia Primrose
Capt. Denny	Milton Dorf
Young Man	Tommy Robinson
Second Young Man,	Robert Wiltbank
Maid	Esther Carroll
Maggie	Anna Miller
Mrs. Gardner	Nina Ford
Lady Catherine de Bourgh	Sarah Speicher
Col. Fitzwalbert	Arville Wright
Mrs. Lake	Ruth Perry

The juniors continued their winning streak in basketball by defeating the Freshmen 33 to 6 while the Sophomores played above their head to hold the Seniors to thirteen Points to lose by the score of thirteen to seven.

The lineup of the teams is as follows:

Teams	W	L
Seniors	5	4
Sophomores	2	7
Freshmen	2	7

Marietta

Marietta is Hebrew and means "little Mary." It is also a flower name, from the mariet, another name for the Canterbury bell, which in florigraphy means "acknowledgement."

Snake Enemy No. 1

So full of venom is one snake found in India that the grass and undergrowth through which it passes is scorched.

Europe's Fantastic Highway

The Tyin-Ardal road in Norway, often called the most fantastic highway in Europe, is 26 miles long and drops 3,500 feet in a series of forty-three hairpin bends.

Frost Flows Downhill

On a still night, frost will flow downhill almost as water does, piling up at the bottom of small valleys and depressions.

White Sands Spectacular

Some globe trotters say that the White Sands National monument in New Mexico is more spectacular than the great Sahara desert.

QUAKER NECK NEWS

The Quaker Neck Neighborhood Club met at Mrs. Milton Faulkner on Wednesday at 1.30 p. m., Past President, Mrs. Arthur Burris in the chair, Miss Helen Schellinger gave the Demonstration, "Colors". Those present were: Mrs. Frank Shinn, Mrs. Arthur Burris, Mrs. Wm. J. Maslin, Mrs. Myrtle Brockson, Mrs. Nellie Lee, Mrs. Dorothy Newsome, Mrs. George Carroll, Mrs. Edward Greenwood, Mrs. Wm. Davis, Mrs. Milton Faulkner, Mrs. Martha Omeara, Mrs. Vickers Walbert, Mrs. Gorden Kendall, Mrs. Elwood Vansant, Mrs. Jean Clarke, Miss Helen Schellinger. Miss Florence Mason, of the University of Maryland, gave a few suggestion, after the business meeting and adjournment. We were invited to the dinning room where delicious refreshments were served.

"Congratulation" to Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Wallace who were recently married.

We are sorry to report Mrs. Clayton Larrimore, of near Millington, has been quite sick suffering from scarlet fever. Her mother, Mrs. O. E. Yerkie, of near Pomona, report at this writing she is better, also Mrs. George Grussing is making satisfactory progress toward recovery as she is able to sit up now. Mrs. Grussing has had pneumonia.

Mrs. George Carroll has been going to a Chiropodist in Easton, Md., and at this time she is being helped. We hope for complete results.

Mr. and Mrs. Lister Crouch, of Rock Hall, were visitors at his sisters on Sunday.

Bond and Mowbray Church service this Sunday night at usual. At Bond last Sunday Mrs. Truitt was leader, Prof. Frank Goodwin was the speaker. Sunday, Feb. 20, Mrs. Nelson Watson will be leader at Bond Church.

The P. T. A. Valentine Social held at Pomona School on Monday nite last was a huge success they had many different entertainments including a spelling Bee and grab bag, etc. The attendance was very good and every one seem to be taking great interests and trying to make this the banner year.

Mrs. Albrecht has returned to the home of Mrs. J. K. Smith after being in the Hospital for a short time. We trust she will soon be well again.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. T. Brown spent a few days in Haddonfield, N. J., with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Brown. While there she visited Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Brown, Jr., in Philadelphia. Miss Evelyn Brown returned to Baltimore this week after a few days home here with her parents.

The many relatives and friends of Mrs. Margaret Hadaway will be glad to know that she is making rapid recovery and is able to sit up in the chair and can enjoy being down stairs with the family.

There has been a change in time of Prof. Grover C. Nicholson Broadcasts he is on the air over Station W. S. A. L. (Salisbury) on Thursday 2.15 p. m. and on Saturdays at 9.30 a. m. in a Broadcast of "Old Timers".
