RADIANT LIVING

The Recognition of Infinite Love

By Rev. C. M. Griffeth
Pastor Calvary M. E. Church
Sudlersville, Md.

Whne Hagar, lost in the wilderness and crazed by the suffering of her dying child, saw that well of water to which God led her, she also saw much more. She recognized the fact that God was not unmindful of her need.

Driven by his fiery wife, Abram hand sent Hagar and her son forth into the wilderness to perish. But God was not to be thus misrepresented by harshness. By disclosing to her a well of water, he would reveal to Hagar His true nature of compassionate mercy.

The greatest of the wells of Grace which God reveals to men perishing in the death valley of sin is a revelation of His infinite love—so fascinating to hte soul, that a mans' whole life is changed by it.

And so it might be that somewhere, in some crisis of a sinner's life, when the world has cursed him, and the self-righteous people have spured him, leaving him to perish in discouragement and doubt, that there has come to him a revelation of that fact that, as John says, "God is love!"

Thank God for the marvelous change that comes to those whose eyes have been opened to behold the well of divine love from which the soul can drink the cleansing waters of mercy and forgiveness.

THOSE WHO REMAIN

When death visits a home, the first concern is to perform the last service to the loved one in a becoming manner. What ever is done must express all the reverance and affection that is felt at such a time. But in addition to this a further responsibility rests upon the funeral director. It is his privilege and duty to lessen as far as lies with in his power, the burdens laid upon those who remain. By countless little acts of thoughtfulness he can make the way easier for them.

We consider this part of our work as important as any other. Our highest aim is to have our patrons look upon us as trusted friends, ready and anxious to render sympathetic assistance to those who remain behind.
