THE SOCIAL WANDERER

DEAR ROAMER:

Every year the approcah of the Lenten season, causes an onslaught of feverish entertainment. It seems as if everyone who even thought of giving a party, decides to do it before Ash Wednesday. Therefore since last Saturday, the town has been gay, in one form or another, of social activity. Luncheons, suppers, dinner parties, brdige and even a dance have held the week in their grip.

The "open house" at the Chester River Yacht and Country Club last Saturday night had a large number at its initial entertainment which is a good omen that the Saturday evenings in the future will not be lacking in a place to go and find amusement.

On Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Browne Metcalfe entertained a few friends at buffett supper.

Monday passed quietly.

Tuesday, Mrs. Herbert Skipper and Mrs. Etta Fountain entertained at a large luncheon and bridge party

Dr. and Mrs. Julian Corington entertained at two birthday parties within the past week. Last Friday night Paul Corrington was host at a dessert-movie party for eightten boys in honor of his birthday, while on Tuesday night, Mr. and Mrs. Corrington entertained at bridge followed by supper for their daughter Marietta.

Wednesday, Mrs. Simon Westcott was hostess at a luncheon followed by bridge.

Thursday, Mrs. Thomas Kibler entertained at luncheon and bridge, while on Thursday night the dinner dance at the Country Club, given by the men to the ladies of the Club, completed the day. It was lots of fun, the dinner was delicious and we all had an elegant time.

Friday, Mrs. Frank B. Hines entertained the members of her bridge club, with luncheon.

To-day,

Saturday, Mrs. Dorsey Hines will be hostess at a small luncheon-bridge party.

Miss Barbara Hubbard will entertain a number of friends at a party in the late afternoon at her home in the Wickes Apartments.

To-night, sounds the death knell of the league basket-ball games to be played at home. Loyola will visit us and I hope we go over the top with the usual bang. There's one more game here before the season ends, but the opponents are not members of the league.

Last week-end, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Armstrong were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Thomas Kibler. Mr. Armstrong, who is well known here, is a member of the McDonough School faculty.

Mrs. Kibler will entertain at another luncheon bridge on Monday.

Mr. Horace Beck, Jr., of Atlanta, Ga., was the guest of his father, over Monday.

Mr. Morris Paschal, of Wilmington, Del., was the guest last week of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Eshman.

Miss Virginia Jones, of Baltimore, who spent the past two months visiting friends in New Mexico and California, has returned East and was a guest of her father, Dr. and Mrs. Wm. S. Jones last week-end.

Miss Elizabeth Brown has returned from a week's visit to Philadelphia with relatives and friends. She was accompanied home by Miss Ellen Adair, of Wilmington, who will be her guest for the week-end.

Miss Brown has accepted a position at the Garrison Forest School, near Baltimore, where she will be an instructor starting at the Fall term.

Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Hines were guests this week of Mrs. Hines's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Tull at their home in Cynwyd, Pa.

Dr. and Mrs. Gilbert W. Mead were guests over the week-end of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Mead in Washington. On Saturday, Mrs. Mead was one of the 23 honor guests at the Pan Hellenic luncheon given at the Shoreham Hotel in that city. Mrs. Mead was chosen as a representative of the Alpha Chi Omega Sororiety of which she is a member.

Mrs. Edward Robinson and Mrs. Clifton Rollison spent a few days this week as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sigenfuse at Dumont, N. J. During their visit, they spent a great part of their time in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Collins, Jr., were guests this week of Mrs. Collins's father, Mr. Nathaniel Dare Sollers in Baltimore. While there, they attended the wedding on Wednesday of Miss Dorothy Sollers and the Rev. Duncan Fraser, which took place at noon in Memorial P. E. Church. Mr. Fraser is the assistant rector of the Church of the Epiphany in Washington, D. C.

Mrs. A. C. Dick has returned after a visit to Houston, Texas, and a visit to Hollins College where she attended a reunion.

Well, it's time to stop and here's best wishes for a pleasant week-end. Tuesday, remember, is Shrove Tuesday—and you know what that means—

Yours for a pancake,

THE WANDERER

Proposal Made to Redivide State Into Seven Districts

Consolidation of Maryland's counties into seven districts is proposed in a bulletin on "Economy in County Government," just published by the University of Maryland's Agricultural Experiment Station.

While similar proposals have been advanced before, this is the first thorough study ever made of the probable economic and social effects of consolidation.

The study was conducted by Everett C. Weitzell, a graduate assistant in the Department of Agricultural Economics, under the direction of Dr. S. H. de Vault, professor of agriculcural economics, and Paul Walker, associate in agricultural economics.

The redistricting, which is possible under the Maryland Constitution by act of the General Assembly and vote of the county residents involved, would consolidate:

Garrett and Alleghany counties into District 1.

Washington, Frederick and Carroll into District 2.

Montgomery and Howard in District 3.

Baltimore and Harford into District 4.

Anne Arundel, Calvert, Charles St. Mary's and Prince George's into District 5.

Cecil, Kent, Queen Anne's Talbot and Caroline into District 6.

Dorchestter, Somerset, Wicomico and Worcester into District 7.
