THE SOCIAL WANDERER

DEAR ROAMER:

Well, how did you like the snow right on the eve of Spring? Remember I said last week only the weather, was capricious. We, mortals, have been living a very quiet, sober-minded life of late, and so the snow at least broke the monotony. Meetings, lectures and the like have occupied our time.

Our Garden Club and outside friends were much entertained by Mr. Graham on Tuesday when he substituted for the original lecturer on his talk "The Control of the Japanese Beetle." After the talk, Mrs. T. B. Kilbourne was hostess at tea for the members of the Clubs.

Wednesday, Mrs. Clara Stacy, Solandt, held a large audience fascinated up at Reid Hall on her talk of Old Glass. Many have told me, they found this lecture the most interesting of all. Following the discussion tea and cake were served. The last of these series of talks will be held after Easter the topic being Silver.

Thursday, was the day of the Kent County board meeting of the Maryland Children's Aid Society. Read on another page what work this group is doing and how you can help. A series of articles will appear each week.

On Sunday last, Mr. Wilbur Ross Hubbard entertained the members of the Queen Anne's Hunt Club and a few additional guests at luncheon.

Sunday night, Mr. and Mrs. Tilden Brice were hosts at a buffet supper.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Thomas Kibler were hosts at dinner to members of the Washington College basketball squad at dinner on Tuesday evening at their home on Front street.

Guests in town include, Mrs. Guy Merril Stone, of Pittsfield, Mass., who came on Monday for a visit of two weeks. This week she has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Eben F. Perkins, and next week Mrs. Stone will visit Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Collins, Jr., As always, this popular visitor from the North, is much feted and has been entertained constantly at luncheon and dinner, informally.

Miss Margaret E. Jefferson, will be a guest of friends in Washington, D. C., this week-end. Tonight she will be guest of honor at a large dinner party.

Miss Adelaide Glascock has returned to her home here after a week's visit with her niece, Mrs. C. D. Drayton in Washington, D. C.

Miss Jennie Nickerson, of New Jersey, is the guest of her brother, Mr. and Mrs. William E. Nickerson.

Little Sonny Wollaston, of Newark, Del., has been visiting at the home of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Eshman, here.

Miss Carolyn McKee, secretary to Metcalfe Brothers returned home on Sunday evening after a six week's trip to Florida. During the trip eight days were spent in Havana, Cuba.

Little Leonard E. Needles entertained a number of his little friends at his home on High St., Friday afternoon. The occasion was in honor of his ninth birthday.

Mrs. Maggie McIntire and Mrs. William Kirby spent the week-end in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Rufus Collins is at the Union Memorial hospital, Baltimore, for special treatment. She was accompanied by her husband and daughter, Mrs. Marion Smith, and her husband Franklin.

In line for congratulations are:

Mr. and Mrs. George Maxwell, he the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Maxwell, who are being congratulated upon the birth of a fine daughter at the Kent and Queen Anne's General Hospital Saturday evening of last week.

AND

John U. Truslow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Neal A. Truslow, Chestertown, Md., has been placed on the Lehigh University honor list for the first semester by Dean C. M. McConn. Truslow is a junior in the College of Engineering.

Are you rea dy to go to the Gymboree to-night? We'll see the state boys play the Out-of Staters, and lots of other events 'Twill be hard to root against some of the boys we've been cheering for all winter, but you know I am

Yours for Maryland My Maryland,

THE WANDERER

The Children's Aid Society

The following is an example of what becomes of a child under the supervision of the Kent County Board of the Maryland Children's Aid:

A pal is a pal and even if he descends upon you with four children, and himself in a dangerous ill condition, you will want to shore your last crust of bread with him.

That is how the man felt about it, but the "last crust of bread" was an actuality. He could not provide a square meal all around that afternoon when Jim brought his four children on their ramshackle old truck and almost stumbled in the door.

Conditions at home had become intolerable for the father, desperately ill with rheumatism. His slovenly wife couldn't be blamed too severely because she was of a very low intelligence.

When it was apparent that Jim had brought his children to stay, the friend came to the Children's Aid office. "I'd help them if I could but five more to feed—we can't manage."

Jim died later after long continued treatment in a hospital. His wife was found to be totally unfit to care for the children—she was both feeble, minded and diseased.

So the Children's Aid had the responsibility of making plans for the children. As always, we realized the seriousness of our job, for the children's future was largely dependent on plans we would make.

We got in touch with relatives in Pennsylvania. They wanted a little boy, and as they had a good home we were glad his problem was so easily solved. The two oldest girls we placed in a boarding home, where the boarding mother, for a monthly sum that barely met expenses, gave them not only the necessities of life, but the affection and interest that flowed naturally from her kind heart. She had a real job on her hands to train these little Wild Indians, who had known none of the refinements of the average home.

The smallest child, who usually crawled behind the skirts of her sisters when an adult entered the room, was accepted for care by an institution. But we soon heard from her. The matron had been unable to persuade her to speak to any adult—though she would talk to the children. They were not equipped to handle behavior problems—could we take her back?

We placed her with her sisters in the boarding home. She is gradually overcoming her shyness, and talks to the boarding mother, but not yet to others!

Have you tried

ALKA-SELTZER?

Alka-Seltzer makes a sparkling alkaline solution. As it contains an analgesic (acetyl-salicylate), it first relieves the pain of everyday ailments, then by helping to restore the alkaline balance, tends to remove the cause when due to hyperacidity of the stomach.

Get Alka-Seltzer at your drug store in 30¢ and 60¢ packages for home use, or ask for a glass of Alka-Seltzer at the soda fountain.

NEWS GATHERED ON THE PENINSULA

Loan Money For New School

A private corporation began financing today the construction of the new $108,000 Washington High School at Princess Anne.

Residents of the town were asked to sign promissory notes so that construction can begin immediately.

The notes wil be liquidated by payments of $10,000 annually by county commissioners until the indebtedness is paid. The WPA has granted $41,000 toward the erection of the school.

Mayor Of Elkton Attacked

Police turned today to the possibility that the asailant of Mayor Henry H. Mitchell, of Elkton, was a disgruntled taxicab driver who was unable to pay the $100 license fee imposed to limited activities of marrying parsons.

Mayor Mitchell was attacked Thursday night as he returned from a banquet of the volunteer fire company by a "tall, thin man" who did not take any valuables from him. After the 300-pound Mayor grapled with the man, he was struck on the head and knocked unconscious.

Today he said, "I don't know who else it would be other than one of the drivers." He is still confined to his home with cuts and bruises.

Volunteers Paint Cambridge Hospital

Volunteer painters working in their spare time are gradually giving the Cambridge, Maryland, Hospital a new coat for spring.

It has become the fashinoable thing to do for women (and sevreal men) to arrive at the hospital Wednesday and Thursday mornings to apply for a painter's brush and bucket. The project is being sponsored by the women's auxiliary of the town and in some cases more volunteers have turned out than there are brushes.

May Order Chimney Cleaning

The City Council of Elkton is considering an ordinance to force home owners to clean their chimneys regularly. A wave of fire resulting from sooty chimneys was the cause of the ordinance.

Triplets Born At Elkton

The stork has presented Mr. and Mrs. Roger Lee, of Monkton, Cecil County with triplets, tipping the scale at five pounds each. "Getting along Fine" is the report on the newcomers, George Donald, Betty Joan and William Earl.

Paving Work At Town Of Millington

The town of Millington with a population of 450 approximately, is bisected by two important highways.

Not many years ago it was a quiet town with tree-lined, unpaved streets, and uneven, ill-kept brick side-walks.

Today it is a-modern small town with paved streets, cement side-walks, gutters and curbs, with more prosperous stores than most towns twice the size. Located here also is a modern milk cooling depot and milk condensing plant, and is division headquarters for the Eastern Shore Public Service Company. And with the completion of our contemplated improvements, we expect and are going to use every effort through attractive offers to locate small industries in the town of Millington.

These improvements are being carried on with the aid of the Federal Works Progress Administration. This project is known as O. P. No. 65-25-580 Work Unit of Kent County, Portion of State-Wide Project C-No. 194.

The work at present is incomplete, but in progress toward fininshing. Enough work has been done to give the town a modern appearance and is a matter of pride to the townspeople, and has been the direct cause of many property owners to effect repairs, paint up and otherwise renovate their properties.

This project has taken care of all the cases of registered relief in this locality and hteir experience has given them a wider field of activity.

Another of the direct results is that it keeps the children off the concrete streets with their roller skates of which practically every child has a pair.

Another project of long standing, upon which estimates have at various times been made is a water system and a sewerage disposal system. This project, in view of the many houses installing running water and baths is now being given serious consideration, and providing Federal Aid can be procured, will be carried to a conclusion.

The same relief workers now employed on the present project, could be used on the water and sewerage systems under proper supervision.

While the side-walk, curb, and gutter project was and is permanent but not revenue producing, it is expected the sewer and water systems would be partially if not wholly self liquidating.

The project, like the sidewalk project would serve all the people also, as in the matter of reduction in fire insurance rates.

Money expended—

Federal Funds, Labor $6772.00; Supervision $700.00; Material $830.00; Total $8302.00. Sponser Fund, $3617.96 Total $11,919.96.

Total Workers—10 to 21 men, skilled and unskilled, at any one time, but as some found employment, others were used until all needing aid were taken care of.
