THE SOCIAL WANDERER

DEAR ROAMER:

Now that St. Patrick's Day has come and gone, we really feel that Spring is in the air for sure. Plans are being made here and there, everywhere you turn. A bevy of residents are all waxing much enthusiasm over a trip to Bermuda the last of May. Some ten or twelve from here will join the Banker's Convention cruise to southern waters. And oh, what a time they are planning. But more of that, anon.

Meanwhile, here in Mid-Lent, aside from the over night trips hither and yon, I have little news, naturally to relate.

Entertaining is all done on a very small scale and very informally. Last night, Dr. and Mrs. Gilbert W. Mead were hosts to a few friends informally at buffet supper. The Saturday night dances at the Club which are increasingly popular from week to week are the only large gatherings that occur these days. They too, are most casual, yet solve the solution, principally for the younger set, as an outlet for something to do and be with friends.

Up at Washington College to-night, there will be held the annual intersorority dance. This is always quite an occasion for the co-eds, the best beaux are on hand, and the lassies are in charge of the affair.

Mr. and Mrs. James G. Metcalfe will have a few friends for dinner this evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson, of Lansdowne who will be their guests for the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Bingham, Jr., of Baltimore will be week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Beck. This evening the Becks have invited a few friends to greet them before going to the Club.

Another out-of-town guest coming this week-end will be Miss Emma Neal Covington, of Laurenburg, N. C., who will visit Mr. C. A. Hubbard and his daughters for a week at their home in the Wickes Apartments.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schaeffer, of Westfield, New Jersey, will be week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Westcott. Mrs. Westcott who has been visiting the Schaeffers will return with them.

Speaking of apartments, the Dr. A. C. Dicks are giving up their apartment in the Riverside, and have rented the cute little Chaires house on Philosophers Terrace.

Mr. and Mrs. William B. Willis have purchased the house on High St., formerly owned by Mr. Thomas Holdson.

Pneumonia has been at the door of little Peggy Metcalfe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Browne Metcalfe. Peggy has been quite ill at the Kent and Queen Anne Hospital, but we are glad to say that she is greatly improved and practically out of danger.

Mrs. Samuel Cooper is desperately ill at her home on High St.

Mrs. Rufus Collins is very ill in a Baltimore hospital.

From sorrow into gladness we jump A brand new engagement to announce. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Moffet, of Chestertown, have announced the engagement of their daughter. Miss Ursula Moffett to Mr. Augustine S. H. Wiest, 2nd., son of Mr. and Mrs. Augustine S. H. Wiest, of Baltimore, Md. Miss Moffett is a graduate nurse of the Church Home and Infirmary Hospital in Baltimore. The wedding will take place in the early Fall.

Tripping away to Chicago for ten days, on Tuesday, goes Miss Elizabeth Brown, who will visit a former school friend, Miss Betty White. Miss White visited Miss Brown here last summer and was much entertained.

Mr. and Mrs. Eben F. Perkins will go to Baltimore for the week-end where they will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence F. Perkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Collins, Jr., will also be guests in Baltimore for the week-end when they will visit Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. G. Evans. While there they will attend the Ice Carnival on Saturday evening.

But now I leave you, not from choice but sheer necessity. Help me out during this season! Send me some news.

Yours sending S. O. S.

C. H. S. GYMBOREE TO BE HELD MONDAY

Annual Event In W. C. Gymnasium

Elaborate plans are being made at the Chestretown High School, under the direction of Professor Joseph Hall, for the gymboree to be held by that school at the Washington College gymnasium.

The evening of spot events will include basket ball games, boxing, and wrestling and all students will be given an opportunity to exhibit their athletic abilities.

MARYLAND DAY NEXT FRIDAY

To Be Celebrated All Over The State

The history of Maryland is so full of interest, and Marylanders are so proud of their State, that they are always ready to celebrate "Maryland Day," the 25th of March, the date in 1634 when the first colonists under Leonard Calvert, the first governor of the Province of Maryland, landed on St. Clement's Island in the Potomac River. Two days later these colonists sailed back down the Potomac to the mouth of the Saint Mary's River, and up the latter about six miles, and there established the first settlement in Maryland and the first home of religious freedom and toleration in America, at Saint Mary's City. The location of this settlement on the banks of the Saint Mary's River, which was naturally a very beautiful one, was purchased from Tayak, "Emperor" of the Piscataway and Yaocomico tribes of Indians, by Governor Calvert for a few trinkets and garden tools. The charter granting the Province of Maryland, which is said to have been written by George Calvert, the First Baron of Baltimore, and which is a most interesting and remarkable legal document, was to have been granted to the First Baron for public services rendered by him to James I. King of England, and to his son and successor on the throne, Charles I, but unfortunately he died on April 15, 1632, after the charter had been submitted for the signature of King Charles, and the affixing of the Great Seal of England, but before it had been actually signed and sealed. So the grant was made to Cecil Calvert, the Second Baron of Baltimore, the charter being dated 20, 1632.

Boy Scouts in forty-nine nations now number over 2,500,000, an increase of nearly 87,000 in a year.

It is estimated that Hawaii pays more taxes into the United States treasury than nineteen of the states.

In Alaska there is only one person to every ten square miles while in Puerto Rico there are 520 to a square mile.

In downright combat, a horse can move a big gun to a new point of vantage better than a motor, cavalry officers have told the house appropriations committee.

MILADY'S DOINGS

Face powder is now used by 95 of every 100 women in England.

More than 80 per cent of present-day snuff users in England are women.

The brain in women seldom exceeds an average weight of 1,140 to 1,340 grams.

South Africa's first Indian girl guide troop has been organized at East London.

A woman in England boasts that she has had the same carpet on her floor for half a century.

The average woman enjoys being envied even more than the average man enjoys being praised.

QUAKER NECK NEWS

Word was received on Wednesday from Mrs. W. R. Startt that her husband who is in the Hospital in Baltimore was much worse and had to have a blood transfusion. His son-in-law, Mr. Shaffer, gave a pint of blood. Mr. Startt was operated on last week. We trust he will soon recover.

Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Whaley has returned home after a pleasant stay in the South and at Key West, Florida for a few weeks.

We regret to announce the death of Mr. C. R. Neal who has lived for good many years in Baltimore. She has been suffering from a heart ailment for quite some time. Funeral was held from Cook's funeral parlors yesterday at one o'clock. The deceased was a brother of Mrs. Ida V. Kirby and leaves quite a few other relatives here.

Mrs. Elston Brown returned home after a short stay in Baltimore with her husband and daughters.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Reynolds and baby spent Sunday at Queen Annes County with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Boone, of Betterton, was home to visit Mrs. Boone parents on Sunday here in Quaker Neck.

Mr. William E. Dickerson, Sr., and family having sold their home to Mr. W. R. McAlpin last year, have purchased a lot from Mr. T. R. Starr at Pomona and wil lstart building a bungalow in the near future.

Miss Mary M. Brown daughter, of Mr. Gilbert Brown, of near Barclay announced the marriage of his daughter to Mr. Rodney H. Bell, of Dover Del., last week. The Bride wore wine and brown with matching accessories The reception was held at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. A. Dovanon, of Dover. The couple will reside in Dover, Del., The bride is a niece of Mrs. William E. Dickerson at Cliffs and lived here quite some years ago.

The Quaker Neck Neighborhood Club meeting of last Wednesday was postponed on account of the death of Mrs. Lillian Richardson in Baltimore she being a relative of Mrs. James Clark's where the meeting was schedule to be this month.

We extend sympathy to the family of the deceased, Mrs. Richardson. Mrs. Frank Shinn, Mrs. Arthur Burris and Mrs. Elmer Newsome of Quaker Neck attended the funeral in Baltimore and interment was in Chestertown cemetery.

On Sunday last we were very much surprised but pleased to have with us Prof. Grover C. Nicholson, of Willard's Md., who favored both Bond and Mowbray church with very pretty selections. Mrs. Etta Dean was the leader and the topic was interesting. This Sunday night Mr. Walter F. Starr will be the leader, services at Mowbray as usual. The congregation is very sorry to learn the illness of Mr. W. R. Startt he being a faithful member for many years.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Larrimore, of near Millington visited Mrs. Larrimore parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Yerkie of near Pomona a few days last week.

Miss Helen V. Dickerson, of Philadelphia, Pa., was home to visit her parents over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Watson and son were guests of friends near Rock Hall on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell Smith, of Chestertown, spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mrs. Smith's parents at Cliffs.

The St. Patrick's Social held by the Pomona School. The P. T. A. committee on Thursday night proved to be a hilarious success. At the past two P. T. A. parties the public has been impressed by the excellent management and have had a happy time together.

Camels' Use in Battle

Tribal battles between the Arabs of North Africa always end in a sudden retreat of the side which first discovers it has only one camel left for every three men, says Collier's Weekly. Three is all a "mehari," or racing camel, can save at one time, two riding on its back and one hanging onto its tail.

Discriminating Zeal

Some things will not bear much zeal; and the more earnest we are about them, the less we recommend ourselves to the approbation of sober and considerate men.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of our dear mother, Margaret L. Elliott, who departed this life March 8, 1937.

Just one year ago today,
You left us all in sorrow,
On that day you went away,
To greet the land of bright tomorrow.

Your deeds of kindness here below,
The joys you left behind,
Have made our lives more brightly glow,
In being tender, good, and kind.

In leaving us you made hearts sad,
Since by death you were taken away,
But as we ponder hearts grow glad,
Of thoughts, we will meet again someday.

By her daughters.
