NEWS GATHERED ON THE PENINSULA

Would Lower Salisbury Assessment

A determination to revise downward the high figures reported for Salisbury real estate was the answer of the Board of County Commissioners of Wicomico on Tuesday to the Executive Committee of the Taxpayers League at a hearing when a formal protest was entered in regard to figures on the new assesment already received.

Asserting that there was no basis for the high rating placed on properties in question, the Commissioners said they failed to understand how such high valuations were arrived at.

Hosiery Plant For Crisfield

There is every hope that a hosiery manufacturing concern which is determined to move a part of its plant from Philadelphia, will locate in Crisfield shortly, through the efforts of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Suggests Toll Bridge Across Bay

Details of a plan for a Chesapeake Bay crossing combining a tunnel and bridge, for a traffic tunnel under the Patapsco below Baltimore and for bridges over the Susquehanna and Potomac rivers were annuonced this week by Representative Ambrose J. Kennedy, of Maryland.

The plan is embodied in a bill which Mr. Kennedy has introduced in Congress.

The bay crossing, between Sandy Point and Kent Island for a combination bridge and tunnel is estimated to cost approximately $13,000,000, Mr. Kennedy said.

Would Aid Seafood Packers

Acting upon the request of packers engaged in the seafood industry along Chesapeake Bay, representing Crisfield, Tilghman, Cambridge, St. Michaels and other places, Sentator Tydings today appeared before the Committee on Appropriations and succeeded in having an amendment accepted authorizing the expenditure of $10,000 by the U. S. Bureau of Fisheries for the purpose of employing a bacteriologist and a chemist. The amendment will now go to the floor and conferences for final consideration.

Potato Acreage In Somerset

In Somerset county the census figures have shown in 1930 and 1935 that around 2000 acres of early and late crops of white potatoes are grown in the county.

Propose Glasgow—Newark Road

The proposed new highway from Glasgow to Newark will pass more than a half-mile west of Cooch's Bridge, where the American flag was first unfurled in battle.

Thus, most of the persons using the proposed new road will pass the historic spot without knowing that they are anywhere in the vicinity of the Revolutionary battleground.

Postpone Field Trials

The fourth annual Maryland field trials of the American Chesapeake Club scheduled to be held on March 17, 18 and 19 on the Bohemia river estate of R. R. M. Carpenter, near Bohemia Bridge, Md., have been postponed indefinitely, it was announced yesterday.

Would Further Improve Kent Island Narrows

At the request of Congressman T. Alan Goldsborough, the Committee on Rivers and Harbors, House of Representatives, has passed a resolutibn authorizing a review of the reports on the existing project on Kent Island, with a view to the consideration of further improvement of the channel from Chester River to Eastern Bay.

Congressman Goldsborough secured the dredging of the channel in 1929 at a cost of $75,000, and in 1934, an allotment of $11,500 to restore the Kent Island Narrows Channel to a depth of eight feet.

As the attendants were helping him out of bed. Hall collapsed, pinning one of them against the wall. He had traveled widely as a show attractions.

Three-Cornered Mayor Fight At Salisbury

The Salisbury Mayoralty fight, the Democratic primary being April 12, today became a three-cornered proposition, something unknown for more than 15 years, when Arthur W. Boyce, a present member of the Maryland Legislature and a past president of the City Council, tossed his hat into the ring.

No New Postoffice At Centreville

Definite indication that the time was not ripe for securing the erection of a postoffice in Centreville was given to a delegation representing the Centreville National Bank and others who journeyed to Washington on Monday.

A number of reasons were given as to why no postoffice would be erected but the basic one was that no money was now available in this Congressional district for the purpose.
