THE SOCIAL WANDERER

DEAR ROAMER:

Heigh-ho, heigh-ho—to make your troubles go—a "Spring Frolic" is in the offing—the actual date, Friday evening, April 22. This dance to be held at the Country Club will be fashioned in the time of the gay nineties, and what fun is in store when the guests arrive in costumes apropos.

Meanwhile, in addition to the open house every Saturday evening, there will be a tea on Sunday afternoon, tomorrow from 4 until 6 at which time, Mrs. James G. Metcalfe will be hostess.

I hope there will be some out-of-town guests with us, as these teas, are always a pleasant diversion for Sunday afternoon, particularly if one has house guests. At present, the only ones I've heard of are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Decker, of Wayne, Pa., who will visit Mrs. H. Clay Brown, for the week-end, and Mr. and Mrs. H. Gilpin Brown who will spend the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. James G. Beck and—

Misses Alice and Louise Duffey, of Baltimore, are week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Morris K. Barroll. This afternoon, Mrs. Barroll will entertain informally at bridge in honor of her house guests.

Last week,we had quite a few here from out-of-town.

Miss Harriette Welch accompanied Mrs. Harry Catlin from New York and were guests over the week-end of Mrs. Etta Fountain, Mrs. Herbert Skipper, and Mrs. Charles B. Whaland.

Mr. George Brice, of Far Hills, N. J., has been the guest of his sisters, Mrs. Fountain and Mrs. Skipper all of this week.

Mr. Ira P. Romberger, his daughters, Miss Margaret Romberger and Mrs. Walter H. Eshleman, and Mrs. Catherine Leach, of Harrisburg, Pa., were week-end guests of Dr. and Mrs. E. Clarke Fontaine here. Mr. Romberger is Mrs. Fontaine's father.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hopkins, of Baltimore, were week-end guests of Dr. and Mrs. Gilbert W. Mead.

Mr. William Hepbron Gill and family of Lansdale, Pa., were week-end guests of Mr. Gill's mother, and his two brothers, Messrs. Lee and Henry Gill.

Mr. Earl Willis, of Catonsville, Md., was the guest of his mother, Mrs. Thomas Willis over the week-end.

Mrs. Charles D. Drayton, of Washington, D. C., was the guest of her cousin, Miss Adelaide Glascock for several days this week.

Many ladies from Chestertown were invited to view the bloom at the country place and gardens of Miss Miriam Leaverton, this week.

Much improved in health, Mrs. Harry D. Potter returned to her home, Gratitude, Rock Hall, after spending the winter in St. Petersburg, Fla.

Mrs. Rufus Collins has returned to her home here from a Baltimore hospital. However, she remains very ill.

Mrs. Nora C. Maxwell is recovering from a major operation, performed last Friday at the Kent and Queen Anne's Hospital.

Miss Elizbaeth Willis, whose engagement was announced recently, was given a surprise shower last Friday evening by members of the By-Kota Club.

Mrs. Ella P. Robinson entertained at a birthday party last Saturday evening in honor of her son, William Allen.

Mrs. Carrie Harkins, of Wilmington, is the guest of her niece, Mrs. Rose Howard.

Home for the spring vacations are Harrison W. Vickers, 3rd, law student at the Uuiversity of Virginia, Kemp Bordley, student at West Nottingham Academy in Cecil County, Phil Brooks from the University of Maryland and Miss Fredrica Metcalfe from Hollins College, Va.

Three weddings drew our attention this week.

Announcement has been made of the marriage last Saturday of Miss Marion Elizabeth Hopkins, Kent county public health nurse, and Dr. H. Rolfe DuPuy, Kent health officer. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Hopkins, 521 East Cold Spring Lane, Baltimore, at 3 p. m.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. R. D. Clare, pastor of St. Mark's Lutheran Church. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The marriage of Miss Jean Leary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Ellsworth Leary, to Mr. Walter Owen Rodney, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Reuben Rodney, took place at Wesley Chapel Parsonage on Saturday, March nineteenth.

The young couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. George Rogers, of Philadelphia. Mrs. Rogers is the bride's sister.

The bride attended the Marjorie Webster School and Goucher College. The groom is a graduate of Goldey College.

After a wedding trip to New York the bride and groom are at home in Rock Hall.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. G. Lynch.

Mr. and Mrs. Reason A. Warehime, of Baltimore, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Mildred E. Mertz to Mr. Oscar S. Leaverton, of Fairlee. The ceremony which took place, Saturday, March 19 was performed by the Rev. E. L. Cardey at the parsonage. Mr. and Mrs. Leaverton will reside in Baltimore.

Mr. Medford Brooks will return this week-end from a trip to Cuba.

So Heigh, ho again, as home from work we go,

Yours from Snow White,

THE WANDERER

Would Stabalize Egg Price

The Agricultural Adjustment Administration announced recently that the Federal Surplus Commodities Corporation has been authorized to purchase eggs if there is a decline in present price levels or in the levels which a normal seasonal advance may bring in the near future.

No Free Seeds This Spring

The flow of "free seed" letters is beginning again, but indications are there will be fewer than last year. For 15 years the U. S. Department of Agriculture has been trying to convince 13,000,000 people that it has no free seeds or plants. Yet each year, as spring approaches, thousands of requests pour in from farms, suburbs and penthouses. And all the writers of these letters meet disappointment.

Producing Pound of Honey

At least 3,360,000 flowers must be visited in the course of a day by 80,000 bees to produce a pound of honey to store in the hive.
