WILL EXHIBIT FIRE CAUSES HERE MON.

Unique Demonstration To Be Staged By Prof. Criswell

Residents of this section will have an opportunity Monday night to hear and see an illustrated lecture on the causes of many fires in the homes that no one knows how they start.

The demonstration and lecture will be by Professor R. B. Criswell, of the University of Maryland who was recently appointed organizer of the various fire schools that have been established in the counties of the State.

This is a free demonstration with miniature appatus mounted on tables, which demonstration shows by quick-reacting flames and controlled explosions, many of the common causes of disastrous home fires and conflagrations. The fire hazards demonstrated include: Matches and Smoking; Electrical, such as a penny behind fuse, and a heated iron off its stand; Oily mop; Combustible toys and combs; Flour and Cornstarch; Kerosene in stoves; Home cleaning; Gasoline vapor travels, etc.

Fires from many of these causes often are classed as "of unknown origin" and a better knowledge on the part of both women and men will materially help save property, and lives.

The demonstration will be held in the fire house, Chestertown next Monday night starting promptly at 7.30 p. m. to which the public is not only invited but urged to attend. It is being arranged by the Chestertown Rotary Club with the fire company co-operating.

Vernon Selby Thought To Be Wounded In Spain

Mrs. W. O. Selby, of Chestertown, has every reason to believe that the Norman Selby, referred to in John Honeycombe's report of the casualties among the Washington-Lincoln batallion in Spain is in reality her son, Vernon Selby. Honeycomb reported Norman Selby as wounded and suffering from a breakdown in a hospital in Barcelona. Vernon Selby joined the Washington-Lincoln Batallion in Baltimore and has been connected with the Loyalist troops for several months. His mother, who heard from him each week has received no word since February 11th.

Mrs. Selby received word from Congressman T. Alan Goldsborough yesterday to the effect that the Ambassador to Spain had reported to the State Department that all wounded Americans in Spain had been transferred to hospitals in Barcelona.

CHILDREN'S AID STARTS DRIVE HERE

Be A Good Neighbor

Knock, Knock! Open the door of happiness to children of Kent county who are neglected and mistreated in their own homes. Starting on Monday, April 18 and lasting until April 30, the drive for funds to carry on the work of the Kent County branch of the Maryland Children's Aid will continue. When you hear a knock at your door, remember the visitor who comes to ask for your contribution is doing her bit. It is not easy to beg, she probably would rather be home too, but is acting for a worthy cause of your county. Give all you can, be it large or small, and when she comes, think not of her as one more interruption to your day, but as a worker out to help little children seeking the warm and generous reponse of kindly men and women.

It costs $100 to care for 1 child, for 1 year. What part of the year will you make happy and give wholesome environment for some little girl or boy?

Mrs. Dorsey Hines is President of the board of the Kent County branch of the Maryland Children's Aid.

PLAN GORDY DAY AT SALISBURY SAT.

Shore Wide Celebration To Be Held Saturday of Next Week

A celebration rivaled in magnitude only by the Bicentennial program of 1932 is being planned for Gordy Day in Salisbury, April 23. Interest in the event has been so large that this week the sponsoring organization, the Gordy for Governor Club, decided to extend an invitation to the entire Eastern Shore to participate.

The parade, opening the day's program, will start as soon after 11 o'clock as the various units can be formed into line. It is expected that all Shore counties will be represented in the line of march, which will be punctuated by bands and drum and bugle corps. Various local organizations and a large mounted until will be augmented by fire companies. An invitation has been sent to every fire department in all the nine Shore counties.

Preparations have been made to provide roast ox, steamed oysters and sandwiches to thousands of visitors immediately following the parade. The food wil lbe served at the rear of Court House Square and on the Elks' lot opposite the square.

At 2 o'clock the program calls for massed band music and brief talks by prominent guests from all parts of the state and Baltiomre City.

A reviewing stand will be erected on the south side of the square, where distinguished guests will watch the parade. Later in the afternoon the short talks will be made from the stand.

A reception committee, consisting of more than one thousand men and women from Salisbury and the county, will be appointed in the next few days to escort out-of-town guests and assist them in nejoying the event. A traffic committee is at work on traffic and parking plans to minimize inconveniences for the visitors.

Early next Saturday, two caravans accompanied by sound cars, will start from Salisbury on a tour of the eight Southern Eastern Shore counties as another means of extending an invitation to all the Eastern Shore to come to Salisbury for Gordy Day. Each caravan will travel more than 200 miles, the combined itinerary covering every section.

APRIL TERM OF THE CIRCUIT COURT CONVENES MONDAY

Criminal Docket Small—Short Session Predicted

The April term of the Circuit Court for Kent County convenes here next Monday, April 18th, and present indications point to a short session as far as the criminal docket is concerned. At this writing the docket includes only four cases to be presented to the Grand Jury, one of which is a violation of the State Liquor Law, others include an assault case and malicious destruction of property.

The appeal docket includes 14 cases, most of which are assault and battery and automobile cases appealed from the Magistrates Court. These appeal cases do not have to go before the Grand Jury.

The present State law, whereby all criminal cases that are not classed as a felony are tried in the Magistrate's Court, greatly simplifies the work of the Grand Jury and Circuit Court. Outstanding among these nonfelon cases are larceny whereby the amount involved does not exceed $25.00. These minor larceny cases used to take much of the time of the Circuit Court.

Judge Thomas Keating drew the following Jurors to replace those who were excused:

First District—Harry L. Higman in place of James P. Donohue excused.

Second District—Walter B. Harris in place of Fred H. Cornelius excused. Lester M. Carter in place of Ernest W. Horsey excused.
