WASHINGTON WINS BASE BALL OPENER

Local College Nine Shows . . . Promise For Season . . .

Washington College opened its base ball season Wednesday afternoon with a 4 to 1 victory over Westchester Teachers College and the game showed the local college nine to be in excellent condition in spite of the short available practice season.

This initial game brought out three qualities in the Washington nine which are essential for a championship team. They are:

1st. An able pitching staff.
2nd. A hard hitting team.
3rd. A fast fielding team.
