THE SOCIAL WANDERER

DEAR ROAMER:

Easter at last, and with it, the warm sunshine, flowers and all that goes with it to make us know that Winter has packed his bag and gone. I think we were all glad to speed the parting guest and greet the Lady Spring with open arms.

The week past, has naturally been unusually quiet, and with the exception of the fire bell, the only bells we've heard have been church bells. College students, have been coming and going and it's a little hard for me to keep up with them. Some have Spring vacations one time, some another, and still others have a purely Easter holiday. Therefore, if I neglect to mention some of their visits, you'll know I just haven't seen them.

Home comers for Easter, include Prof. and Mrs. Charles Shaughnessy of Emmittsburg, Pa., who are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Kratzer. And right here let's all extend heartiest congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Kratzer who will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary to-morrow, Easter Sunday!

The Misses Anna and Helen Welch have returned to their home on Maple Ave., after spending the winter months in Bridgeton, N. J.

Quite a few out-of-town guests were here last week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Settle and Mr. O'Mear D. Crothers were guests of Miss Margaret Jefferson.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Stewart Fitzgerald, of Princess Anne, Md., and Mr. and Mrs. E. Clarke Fontaine, Jr., of Baltimore, were guests of Dr. and Mrs. E. Clarke Fontaine.

Dr. J. P. Franklin, of Cumberland, is recuperating from an attack of pneumonia at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse D. Maxwell. Mrs. Nora Maxwell remains at the Kent and Queen Anne's Hospital, where she is fast recovering from a recent operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Armstrong, of Baltimore, were week-end guests of Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Hughes.

Going away for Easter? Well, a few are:

Mrs. William A. Jackson and her son, Mr. Harold Hallett will leave today, to spend Easter in New York, returning the middle of next week to their home, Jackstead, on Fairlee Manor Farm.

Mrs. Harry Jefferson and her daughter, Miss Margaret Jefferson will spent the week-end in Montclair, N. J. On Monday evening, Miss Jefferson will attend the Nelson Eddy concert at the Lyric in Baltimore.

Dr. and Mrs. G. Howard Dana will spend the week-end in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Eben F. Perkins will visit Mr. and Mrs. Brooke Bond at their home, Port Republic, Calvert Co., Md.

Mrs. Karl Melamet and son, Karl, will visit Mr. and Mrs. Karl Schmidt in Mt. Washington, near Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Collins, Jr., will visit Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel D. Sollers in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Blizzard, of Cambridge, Md., are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son. Mrs. Blizzard was formerly Miss Isabelle Crow of Chestertown.

Things are looking up for next week, and there will be many out-of-town guests here for the Gay Nineties Party at the Club next Friday.

Coming on Thursday will be Miss Helen Hawkins, of Baltimore, who will visit Mr. and Mrs. Harry Deringer for the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Beatty, of Rose Valley will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clarke Grieb.

Any number of parties are being arranged before the dance which always insures a successful evening. Some will be large, some small but at any rate it will mean fun.

The largest, perhaps, will be the one to which Dr. and Mrs. G. H. Dana have issued invitations, (which, incidentally were as clever and cute as could be.)

Mr. and Mrs. Clarke Grieb will entertain at dinner prior to the dance in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Beatty.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris K. Barroll will be hosts at a buffett supper and the rest of the parties, I'll have to save for next week, because at present, they are indefinite.

The "bustle" and ado still continues over the costumes—whether Mi Lady should bustle or not ,whether the gentleman's trousers are short or tight enough and so on. Oh, it's been lots of fun.

So don't miss the Frolic of the Spring.

If you are on parade Sunday, just think how much more so you'll be when you waltz to the Blue Danube. I'll be seeing you and till then, a Happy Easter.

Yours in Anticipation,

THE WANDERER

ODDS AND ENDS FROM C. H. S.

By Helen Marie Culver

All around the school on Wednesday afternoon, April 13, you could hear "See you Tuesday", "Have a good holiday", "Whoo, just think, five whole days of no school". Even though they seem glad to get away from school they will be really glad to get back.

The Press Club is now talking about ones that are eligible for the Press Club pins. There will be pins for the four persons that have done the most for the club. So far the committee has selected six from which the club members are to elect four. They are Robert Logan, Milton Dorf, William Baldwin, Harold Boericke, Mary Landon Russell, Mary Elizabeth Humphreys.

Another problem in the Press Club is the picking of next year's Reflector Staff. The matter is being taken up with much consideration because they carry on the Reflector next year.

"No, no, not that way. Try it again". Yes, the Dramatic Club play is progressing rapidly. The characters seem to be learning their parts well. Don't forget to mark off April 29 on your calendar so you can see the climax of the great mystery comedy at William Smith Hall.

The Seniors are now trying their luck in writing poetry. They have been studying it for quite a while. Time will tell whether we have some future poets in our midst.

Since Old Man Weather has reformed, the boys have played one baseball game at Sudlersville. The girls are busy passing off tests for their badges.

On May 7, at Wilmington, Delaware the Goldey Spelling contestants will try their luck. There are two teams, the Junior team, consisting of eighth and ninth grade pupils and the Senior team consisting of the tenth and eleventh grade pupils. The teams are: Junior Team—Elsie Ireland, George Ruppert and Elmer Thomas. Alternate—Eleanor Jones. The Senior team is Elizabeth Wheatley, Joseph Ruppert, Harold Boerike and the Alternate —Noami Russell.

SCOUT ACTIVITY IN KENT COUNTY

Galena Again Defeats Chestertown

The speed ball team of Chestertown Troop No. 130 was beaten by Troop No. 157 of Galena on April 14. The final score left Chestertown trailing with 9 runs and Galena 21. Scout Louis Atwell of Galena proved himself the star of the game aided by Scouts Frank Newnam and Robert Newnam and the full cooperation of their team mates. Chestertown displayed some fine playing with Scouts Robert Logan, Gladden Coleman and Russell Climer taking the lead. Galena took the lead in the early part of the game and gradually built it up, to a terrific advantage. Both teams proved the best of sportsmanship and other games of this type are planed in the near future. This is the second tim that this troop has taken over the Chestertown Scouts, the latter being several weeks ago when Galena played Chestertown in various Scout games. The score of this even was 33 to 38 in favor of Galena.
