NEWS GATHERED ON THE PENINSULA

The strike of crab pickers at Crisfield is in its third week and now is at the conference stage. The meeting was arranged by Robert W. Knadler, field examiner for the National Labor Relations Board, between the packers and Michael Howard, organizer for the United Cannery, Agricultural, Packing and Allied Workers.

The conference disbanded, however, when Howard demanded a contract guaranteeing wage rates for a definite period.

The strikers, all women, left their jobs when packers ordered a reduction of ten cents a gallon on the picked crabs.

Two youths identified as William Lord, 17, and Orville Smith, 18, both of Concrod, Md., held up a filling station owned by D. W. Banning on the Eastern Shore near Dover Bridge and escaped with a slot machine after allegedly firing two shots at Vernon Swann. State officer Daugherty received a call over the State police system and captured the two youths who were held under $5,000 bail.
