THE SOCIAL WANDERER

DEAR ROAMER:

After the ball was over—most of us went home and to bed. Tired and a little warmish from the extra furbelows of our gay nineties attire. But, with weariness and heat, there was the sense of an evening well spent and thoroughly enjoyed. All of the costumes were splendid, and as the head of the committee announced—so good, that instead of a prize to just one of two, a prize to all. Therefore, each lady was given a very beautiful pink rose. This was in addition to the three attractive old fashioned bouquets bestowed as door prizes—for the first couple to come, the tenth and the twentieth.

I am not alone in thinking, had prizes been awarded, undoubtedly the first would have been won by Mrs. Morris Keene Barroll. Her gown, her hat, her parasol and accessories were not only in true period, but exceedingly becoming. She really was lovely. A word must be said of the Flora Dora Sextet. Six young matrons wore strikingly attractive costumes and paraded ensemble during the grand march. The solo dance by Dian Hubbard and Vannort Simpers brought a thunder of applause.

And now May approaches, packed with interesting events during the first two weeks anyway. Of course, on May 2, the New Lyceum will probably be packed to the outer doors as the drawing for the trip to New York takes place. Suppose you get it? Or if I? Well, if I do, don't wonder where I am next week if you miss my letter. I'll be in bed overcome with surprise and excitement. However, I hardly think you need worry, that is, for me.

Up at Washington College this week-end, it is an outstanding time for the Gamma Sig's. They have been pledged to the national fraternity Zeta Tau Alpha and the formal initiation is due to take place over the week-end. This makes the second of the three Sororieties to become affiliated with national organizations, and for the distinctive honor, all of the friends of its active and alumnae members, rejoice.

The Pilgrimage of the Federated Garden Clubs comes to Kent on Friday and Saturday, May 6 and 7. About fourteen of the homes in the county will be open, during which time, the hostesses have asked various ladies to help them receive. I do hope the weather will be nice and not too hot. If you are thirsty when in town, you are invited to the Chester House for a refreshing cool drink.

The same Saturday as the Pilgrimage, the men will be having their kind of a good time. The golf season officially opens at 1 P. M. A match between two teams will be held, followed by a stag dinner at the club house to all members. It behooves all ye men to get in all the practice you can, for a prize will be given to each member of the winning team.

On May 14, comes the annual observance of Old Chestertown Day. The proceeds, of which go to the Library. Elaborate plans are being made, and it is hoped for the success of last year to be surpassed. More of this later.

The same day in Baltimore will be held the heralded Preakness Ball, in the evening. You probably have heard by now, that Elizabeth Dixon has been chosen as the Duchess of Kent. This is, of course, quite an honor, as one of the requirements be, that the young lady is noted for her beauty and charm. And Bessie, (as we all know her) has it.

The Maryland Hunt Cup Race today in Baltimore will attract a number of Kent Countians. Many will go over for the week-end, while others will probably go just for the day. This is the third and last, and incidentally, the most colorful of the three Point-to-Point Races. Miss Margaret Atkinson, of New York, who has been spending the week visiting her relatives at Piney Grove, the Emory home, expects to have quite a few guests for the week-end, and with them will go over to the race.

Mrs. William T. Dixon will have a group of young people as house guests for the week-end, among whom will be her son, William T. Dixon, Jr., a classmate, William Merideth from Princeton, and Miss Fairlee Nicodemus of Smithtown, Long Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fennimore and little daughter, Frances, will be guests at the Maxwell home, Worton Manor for the week-end. Mr. Fennimore returned from Turkey last Saturday after a six months stay there on business.

Mrs. Harry Slaughter, of Washington, D. C., is for two weeks a guest of Mr. and Mrs. James G. Beck.

Mr. Howard Baldwin has returned from Florida where he enjoyed the winter months.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Turner and Miss Betty Lewis, of Washington, D. C., were week-end guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lewis.

Mrs. W. Vernon Kirby has returned to her home here after vsiiting in Baltimore.

Mrs. Mary E. Reed, who spent the winter months with her daughter at Marion, Md., and Mrs. Dugan in Baltimore has returned to her home here.

Mrs. Mamie Walters who visited her son-in-law and daughter in Malden, Mass., during the winter returned on Tuesday to her home here on West High Street.

Yes, all returning to Chestertown for May and the enchanting months that follow. Home is a pretty nice place about now, and we should stay right here. However, I'm leaving today!

Inconsistently yours,

THE WANDERER

NEWS OF ROCK HALL HIGH SCHOOL

I have very sadly neglected my job during the past two weeks. However, I shall once again try to redeem myself.

Easter vacation was the most enjoyable time that a good many of us have had since Christmas. Everyone has returned with new Easter clothes, and new spirit. I guess we are all looking forward to June now.

But before June comes field day. Our teams are working franticall to try and get more organization and teamwork in their game. Both boys and girls can be seen sprinting around the track. I will admit that the boys are a little faster than the girls, but not too much. While I'm on the subject of sports I might mention that baseball game that took place Tuesday. It seems as if the Church Hill boys did a neat job of trimming dear old Rock Hall. Well, boys, see if you can't haul down that flag of defeat in the next game.

The Juniors have decided to sponser the Fairlee Minstrels at a show here next Tuesday. That is Tuesday, April 26th. We hope to see a large crowd. The tickets can be bought from most any of the school students. We hope you can come.

The senior girls are working on a very interesting unit in Home Economics. They are planning the homes that they would like to build. They are finding out about the cost, procedure, types of homes, furniture, etc. It is one of the most interesting units that we have ever taken up. At least the girls seem to find it so. The talks given in class the other day were very entertaining and interesting.

I do believe I'm out of news again. Before I close I'd like to remind you once more about the Junior's minstrel show next Tuesday night.

Habits of Bears

Several kinds of bears are noted for their habit of sleeping during the winter. The Kodiak bear uses a cave in which to spend the winter months. Kodiak bears have brown fur and sometimes are called "Alaska brown bears." They are the largest members of the bear family.

Have Deftest Toes

Tribesmen and tribeswomen who live deep in the Malay jungle, have perhaps the deftest toes in the world. The Malay shoes are provided with a knob upon a stem, and around this the Malay girl must wrap her toes if she is to keep her sandals on. In other words, to remain shod at all, she must walk partly on the side of her foot.

Invented Loaf Sugar

Sir Henry Tate, an English sugar merchant, had a devise patented for cutting sugar into small cubes for convenient use in the home.

Gourmet and Gourmand

The word, gourmet, means a person who is selective in his choice of articles of food. A gourmand is one who overeats.
