THE SOCIAL WANDERER

Dear Roamer:

The arrows are up and the Garden Pilgrimage of Kent is on. Visitors in great numbers have been in the county yesterday and still more are expected today. The more that come, the better we like it. And as for next Saturday, Old Chestertown Day, we really anticipate the sidewalks to be crowded.

Between the two big Saturdays, the coming week will hold two events of local interest. On Tuesday, the May meeting of "Our Garden Club" will be held at the home of Mrs. W. Clarke Grieb. At this time, Mrs. Lewin Wickes wil give a talk on "Iris".

On Wednesday, at Reid Hall, Mrs. Clara Stacy Solandt will give her only talk on "Old Silver". You are requested to take any pieces that you have, to aid in the discussion. This should be a tremendously interesting topic and I shall be looking for you at 2 o'clock.

Invitations have been received in the county to the wedding of Miss Evelyn Osborne Squire, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Amos Squire, of Ossining, N. Y., to Mr. Harvey Willard Culp, of New York, son of Mrs. Harvey W. Culp, of Baltimore, formerly of Chestertown. The wedding will take place on Saturday, May 21st at 11 A. Another honor tendered recently to one of "our" girls was the election of Miss Fredrica Metcalfe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Browne Metcalfe, as President of the Sophomore class at Hollins College for next year. A coincidence in connection with this honor was that the election was held on her 18th birthday.

REPORT OF SCOUT ACTIVITIES FOR KENT COUNTY

Roundtake Meeting Held This Week

The third Kent County Scouters Roundtable was held at Washington College on Monday, May 2. District Commissioner Chas. Lee Gill presided over the meeting. Plans were discussed for the First Kent County Scout Camporee by Scout Field Executive Charles R. Andreas from the Dover Field Office. This camporee is to be held on the Bay Shore May 27 and 28. Various Patrol Contests will be staged by the different patrols of the represented troops. Such games and events as: Fire Building, Scouts Pace, Morse and Semiphore Signaling, First Aid, Knot Tying Flag Raising are a few of the events that are planned. This will be an over-night camping session with a Council Fire Court of Honor. This Court of Honor should be one of the most impressive ever staged in Kent County. Every troop in Kent County will be present and will enter as many patrols as they have in each event. The entire competition will be staged on basis and every patrol can enter as many events as they want. The parents of all Scouts are especially invited to attend this affair and also any other people who wish to come will be welcome. The Camporee opens on Friday, May 27 at 4.30 and closes Saturday, May 28 at 4.

Dr. Fred G. Livingood talked on Board of Review and Court of Honor procedure. It was decided that all Board of Review material must be in the Dover Scout Office before May 20, in order to be awarded at the Court of Honor on May 27.

The fact was brought up that there are now over 150 Scouts in Kent County a figure that no other county on the Eastern Shore of Maryland can boast on in per capita to the number of boys of Scout age. This is a fact that all should be proud of and is proves that Kent County is surely becoming Scout minded.

Plans were also made public of the combination Scout and 4-H Club banquet which is planned for next December. O. H. Benson, National Rural Scout Commissioner has been secured as speaker for the affair. Mr. Benson was formally head of the National 4-H Club before he became connected with the Scout Movement.

It was also planned to have all Kent County Scout Troops re-register on the same date and plans are being made to put this into effect. The likely month will be October or November.

The following Kent County Scouters were present: District Commissioner Chas. Lee Gill, Scout Field Executive Chas. R. Andreas, Assistant Scoutmasters John C. Eliason and Earl D. Lamborn of the Chestertown troop No. 130, Elmer P. Volke of the Sea Scout Patrol, Lambert Wickes of Chestertown, Troop Committeemen Herman MacCauley of the Galena Troop No. 157, Earl Gillfillen of the same troop who is Scoutmaster, Scoutmaster C. R. Ayres and Assistant Scoutmaster C. Stubblebine of troop No. 146 of Rock Hall, Assistant Scoutmaster Galen Clark of Betterton Troop No. 126, Assistant Scoutmasters W. Bolton and J. Berg of the Galena troop, Dr. Fred G. Livingood who is chairman of the Kent County Court of Honor, and Senior Patrol Leader Noble Riedy of troop No. 130 of Chestertown.

Scouters Taking Training Course

The second session of the "Troop Program Building Course," was completed on April 30th at Washington College. This course was conducted by Scout Field Executive Charles R. Andreas and Skipper Elmer P. Volke. The following Scouters attended this course: C. Lee Gill, Galen Clark, Mark Morse, John Eliason, Earl Lamborn, Noble Riedy and Theodore Redman. This course ended in a Treasure Hunt which ended at the Scout Cabin of Chestertown Troop number 130, where a discussion and "Bull Session" was held. It was decided that the second session would be held at Washington College on May 5.

Rodney Camp News

Little by little, the news about the coming Rodney Scout Camp season is taking form. At a meeting of the Council Camping Committee in Wilmington, Delaware, on April 20, announcement was made of a number of staff appointments. Jim Glaes will journey frmo Pittsburgh to resume the post as Assistant Camp Director. Eddie Canewell's familiar figure will be seen again on the waterfront. Jack Kreshtool of the Cheechakoos, and Carl Backus of the Pioneers, will be at their old stand.

Carroll Cox of the University of Delaware, popular 1937 Nature Director will take up with the snakes and frogs exactly where he left off last year. Let's hope he is successful in relocating "shiftless", the young skunk, the Camp pet last year!

Cub Pack Meets

Cubmaster Thomas Richey of the Chestertown Cub Pack reports that a very successful Pack meeting was held on April 29th in the Chestertown Elementary School. There were 22 Cubs present and four Scout leaders or Den Chiefs. The feature of the evening was a bird house contest, in which the Cubs displayed various bird houses which they had constructed. The first prize for the most original went to Cub Billy Cooper and the prize for the best looking went to Cub Walker Eliason. The Cub Den with the best original house was awarded a Cub Den Flag and this went to the Thunder Bird Den or Den No. 1, of which Jimmy Crouch is the Den Chief. The entire Den is to be congratulated on their fine work as well as the Cubs that won the individual prizes. Plans were also made to have a "Mut" show at the next Pack meeting which is planned for the near future.

Kennedyville Troop Successful With Bake

Troop No. 140, of Kennedyville, was very successful with their Bake which was held in Chestertown on Saturday, April 30, in Chestertown. Many Scouts were present at the occasion. The cooperation of the parents of the Scouts and others helped make the bake a success.

Added Enrollment In Galena Troop

It is reported that the Galena Troop No. 157 had over 22 members present at its last meeting which was held on April 28. This troop is now considered second troop in Kent County, the largest being troop No. 130 of Chestertown that has over 50 registered members. Scoutmaster Earl Gillfillan has made a very fine troop out of these boys. He is assisted by Assistant Scoutmasters, C. Berg, P. Stradley and W. Bolton. It is to be remembered that most of these boys live outside of Galena and some have to come as far as eight miles. This is considered a very fine record for this troop.

New Scouts In Troop No. 130

Scout Russell Climer was awarded his Tenderfoot Badge and registeration at the meeting of troop No. 130 on May 4th. Scout Wilbur Craine was awarded his transfere to troop No. 130, he comes from New Jersey.

World Scout Membership

It is to be noted that the following figures were released this week by National Scout Headquarters. The figures are as following, this is the total World Membership of Scouts:

Scouters	448,954
Scouts	1,652,181
Sea Scouts	39,930
Rover Scouts	99,364
Cubs	531,645
Total	2,812,074

That is certainly an astounding figure and should be give close consideration, it proves just what the Scout orgination is all about.
