THE SOCIAL WANDERER

DEAR ROAMER:

The stage is set and the curtain is about to rise on the second observance of Old Chestertown Day. The charm of long ago, held close by the living of today, will be focused to all who come and to those whose dwell within this historic town of ours. The pilgrimage starts at noon and will continue until 5.30 in the afternoon. Failure to miss this opportunity of viewing these historic homes, gardens and seeing the invaluable mementos that hostesses donned in colonial gowns will be waiting to show you, will cause you unceasing regret. Therefore, gather your crowd, get on your most comfortable shoes, fill your gas tank and be already pilgrim at the stroke of high noon.

Aside from the preparation of today, the week's events were marked with the meeting on Tuesday of "Our Garden Club" held at the home of Mrs. W. Clarke Grieb, when Mrs. Lewin Wickes gave a delightful talk on Iris. On Wednesday a goodly crowd was present to hear Mrs. Clara Stacy Solandt's lecture on "Old Silver." The installation ceremony and festivities of teas, banquets, etc., will be held today and we congratulate the chapter as well as the College on the fact that all three sororieties are now national ones.

Meantime, yesterday, Friday evening, the Thelta Kappa Nu fraternity and the Zeta Tau Alpha sororiety were guests at a combined picnic held in the picnic proves of Godlington Manor with Col. and Mrs. Staunton Brown, and Mrs. Hiram Brown, a patroness of the sororiety, as hosts.

Church last evening in honor of Mrs. Paff.
