MILK COMPANY PLANS CENTRAL COOLING PLANT IN KENT COUNTY

Would Replace Existing Plants At Kennedyville And Chestertown

Chestertown Business Men Offer Free Site

It was revealed this week by officials of the Supplee Wills Jones Milk Company in Philadelphia that work will start next week on the construction of a central milk station in Kent County to replace the existing plants at Kennedyville and Chestertown which have been ruled unsanitary by the State health authorities.

It is understood that Health authorities have ruled the present station at Chestertown is too close to the gas plant and the station at Kennedyville does not have proper drainage facilities. Both plants are obselete and do not meet present day sanitary specifications and the milk company has been given until June 1st to start construction of a new plant or adopt other methods of handling milk from this section.

It is further understood that the company contemplated locating the new plant at Worton and planned to start construction work Monday but postponed activities for a few days when a group of business men in Chestertown offered them a free site for the location of the plant in this town. This offer was made due to the fact that the milk company own a property at Worton and would not have to buy a site. The site offered by the Chestertown group is the old paper mill property just out of the town limits of High Street extended. This group claims that this site would afford plenty of air, light and drainage. Cooperating with the Chestertown group are milk shippers from Queen Annes, and from the fourth, fifth and 6th districts of Kent County. It is understood that present shippers to the Kennedyville station have shown no preference between the Worton or Chestertown site but want the station located at Kennedyville. This latter location has not met with approval by the milk company due to the fact that it is at one end of the territory.

The new milk station at the start will operate with fluid milk only but will be equipped to make butter, condensed and dried milk if conditions so justified.

The decision on the location of the new plant will be determined in a few days.

DRIVER TAKES LEAD IN COON DOG TRIALS

Spring Event Held Last Sunday

In spite of the threatening weather, the annual spring field trials of the Eastern Shore Coon Hunters Association drew a large crowd of spectators estimated at 1,000, and 125 entries from Maryland, Delaware, Virignia, Pennsylvania and Vermont.

Driver, owned by Edgar Walls, and entered by Walls & Reynolds held up his championship record by winning the line and tree and tree finals.

Driver took down $83 in prize money including $50 as winner of tree finals, $25, line finals, $5, tree dog and $3 line dog in the first heat. Prizes of $5 and $3 were given in other events except the potchase where the kitty at $1 a dog was divided between the line and tree winners.

The event was staged on the five acre lawn at Bohemia farm which made an ideal setting.

For the trials a racoon was chained in a tree, a bag of scent dragged from it and two flags set across the line near the tree. The first hound between the flags was line winner, the first dog to touch the tree and bark was tree winner.

In the Fox Chase John Haggerty's Vernon was first with Ben, owned by Ben Lumb, second.

In the Tree and Line Finals Walls' Driver won both events.

In the Consolation race Lead by Edgar Walls was first Tree; and Hoffett's Red Arrow was first in the Line.

In the Pot Chase Lead was again first Tree dog; and Haggerty's Junior was first in the Line.

Fifty dogs were entered in the Novice Class race and 30 were in the Elimination event.

Edgar Walls was starting judge and Spencer Stevens of Millington clerk. The tree judges were N. H. Gorman, Reading, Pa., William Cahall, Cecilton and Kirby Metz, of Delaware. Line judges were Jesse Webb, Kennedyville and Lou Jester, Cecilton. Ladies of the Coon Hunters club served lunch. Trials began at 10 a. m. and lasted until dark.

Scouting Is Well Honor

Like the Red Cross, SCOUTING is chartered directly by Congress and the President of the United States is its Aid, Swimming and Life Saving, of Outdoor Cooking and Camping, of Sigthe mysteries of Woodcraft, of First "Honorary President."

The Scoutmasters are picked local men, who give their time without pay because of their interest in the boys of America.

Scouting give the boys a chance to serve their community. Its activities not only give pleasure and knowledge, but they prepare to meet community emergencies. When tornado struck Omaha or Southern Illinois—when flood swept on pueblo—when earthquake and fire hit California—when powder magazines exploded in New Jersey—the Scouts proved at once their redidness to SERVE.

SCOUTING is neither Military nor anti-military. It carefully avoids political or commercial entanglements.

Scouting knows no race or creed or class. Troops are found in Catholic Parish, Jewish Synagogue and Protestant Church. It is available to farm or city alike. It is found in the schools—it serves the rich as it serves the poor. Its aim is to help each of these boys to become the best citizen that he can make of himself.

His "Daily Good Turn" to some one is the Scouts effort to help the other fellow to also make the best of himself.

Each year new thousands upon thousands of boys join SCOUTING. They find not only fun, but also a real chance to BE something more. Every boy really wants to "Make Good"— to amount to something to be a value of life. The ideals of our great Americans like Washington and Lincoln anl Rooselvelt and Wilson (and others) stir us all to ambition and the desire to be REAL MEN.

AGREEMENT MADE FOR ROAD WORK IN KENT COUNTY

Local Group Met With Commission Wednesday

Work To Start Soon

Senator Arthur Brice and Mr. G. Ellsworth Leary, President of the Kent County Commissioners, met with the State Roads Commission in Baltimore on Wednesday of this week and reached a satisfactory agreement as to the improvement of certain secondary roads in Kent County.

The result of the meeting was that there is a strong probability that the first four roads listed for improvement will be resurfaced along a permanent improvement line with the $16,000 due Kent County from the 1937 State bond issue and an additional $16,000 from the 1938 State bond issue. If certain right-of-way arangements can be made the State will take over and maintain these roads as part of the State roads system from funds from the two cent maintenance part of the gasoline tax.

These requirements for State maintenance are that property owners give the State a sixty foot right-of-way along the roads to be improved. This does not mean that this right-of-way will demand the removal of fence lines unless even in the near future but would empower the State to widen the road bed to sixty feet if the roads should become boulevards and the wider road needed.

The present drainage facilities on the roads to be improved will largely determine the width of the road bed. Inadequate drainage may require a wider road bed at the time the roads are improved.

The roads as recommended for improvement in the county in the order in which the work will be done is as follows:

1—Road from Locust Grove to Kentmore Park.

2—Road from the nine foot road near Catts Corner through Smithville.

3—Road from Galena to meet the Massey-Sassafras concrete road.

4—Road from Quaker Neck concrete road to Riverside farm.

Under the construction agreement the county is to provide drainage ditches along the roads to be improved.

It was understood at the meeting on Wednesday that the State will take over and maintain the following two recently improved secondary roads.

Road from Quaker Neck concrete road to Quaker Neck Wharf.

Road from Kennedyville to Turner's Creek crossroads.

TO HONOR FOUNDER OF METHODISM HERE

Two Hundredth Anniversary To Be Celbrated at M. E. Church

Tuesday, May 24th, will mark the two hundredth anniversary of the "Heartwarming" experience of John Wesley, the founder of the Methodist Church. In the little chapel on Aldersgate St., London, Wesley's heart was "strangely warmed" as he knew his sins forgiven through faith in Christ who died for him. The wonderful joy he felt, he told to a weary world of men in their sins and invited them to believe on the Christ and accept Him as Saviour. Men did turn from their sins and found this same joy and peace, and the Methodist movement began. There will be a a County observance of this anniversary in the Chestertown M. E. Church Tuesday evening, May 24th. All the pastors and congregations will join in making this an experience that will strengthen each of us that we may better serve our Christ in this our day.

COUNTY TOWNS ADOPT PROGRAMS

Carrying On Recreation Activities

BETTERTON—Betterton enjoyed another old fashioned Square Dance last Monday evening, May 16. Real old time fiddlers music was furnished by Mr. Perry Cranor, Mr. Stoops and Mr. Harry Wagner. Mr. Wagner's fiddle is said to be over 200 years old.

MILLINGTON—Millington is starting this week to rebuild one tennis court and construct another one. Mr. John Hopkins is chairman of the committee in charge with the Boy Scouts as his valuable assistants. The Southern Methodist Epworth League is sponsoring one of the courts. With the interested support of the community a splendid activity will be ready for the summer days to come.

GEORGETOWN—The East Georgetown Chorus sponsored a choir assembly at Janes M. E. Church in Chestertown on May 11, for the benefit of the County P. T. A. A substantial sum was raised by this fine program.

MUSIC IN THE COUNTY

MILLINGTON—Twenty one quitars, four violins, one banjo mandolin, and two tenor banjos, from the first music group to be organized in the county under the WPA recreational program.

ROCK HALL—Twelve violins are enrolled in an organization known as the "Happy Fiddlers". This group meets in the Firemen's Hall every Friday evening. They are rapidly progressing to the ponit where simple tunes are being mastered. The enthusiasm of this group is unbounding. Piney Neck. Eight violins in this community are benefiting by the instruction given under our program. While some smaller than the other groups they are producing a quality of tone that is excellent.

ROCK HALL—The choral group of the W. P. A. class of Rock Hall sang at the National Folk Song Festival in Washington, D. C., May 7th. Mrs. A. B. B. Staley is the instructor. There was no other more distinctive program in the festival than this group with their oyster shucker songs. Native costumes, shucking benches, and actual oyster shucking during the singing gave a delightfully realistic atmosphere to the performance.

Chestertown Day A Success In Spite Of Rain

Chestertown has always been noted for its hospitality, and, so in spite of rain and stormy weather, thirty homes and gardens, with gracious hostesses presiding, aided by charming assistants, dressed in costumes of the long ago, were opened to welcome the visitors who came to view our lovely town. There were curios, glass, china, silver, lustre, old quilts, lace, miniatures, old tops, and jewelry among the many articles that were exhibited in the beautiful old homes.

The garden never lovelier than they are now, were visited by many, notwithstanding the pouring rain.

Reliques from foreign countries were also on display, and the kitchen of the Old Costume house welcomed its visitors with a roaring fire in the fire place, which was welcomed by the pilgrmis who were chilled by the inhospitable weather without.

Part of the poem which was written by the Bentztown Bard on his visit to Chestertown a year ago is copied on the folders, describing Chestertown.

The poem runs thus:

Older than Baltimore
This town whose quiet grace
Is like the loveliness
On a sweet nad smiling face.

So neighborly and fine
This town beside the stream
Where memories bloom in loveliness
And life is beauty's dream.

Old Chestertown day was a success, and the fund for the building of a ne wlibrary was increased by the sum of $245.
