RADIANT LIVING

Sufficiency of Grace

By Rev. C. M. Griffeth
Methodist Pastor of Deals Island, Md.

Among the sweetnest words that man has heard must be placed the utterance of the Risen Christ to his faithful Apostle at the time of his greatest distress, "My grace is sufficient for you."

It is a happy day when the Spirit of God respeaks these words into the soul of a believer.

And God is speaking them to you.

But my case is exceptional exclaims Mrs. Littlefaith.

"Your life is indeed exceptional, Mrs. Littlefaith. You do seem to have had more than your share of trouble, financial loss, sickness and sorrow, but there can be no exceptional cases with God."

There can be no cases beyond the sufficiency of His Grace!

And why is this? Simply because of the fact that as one's need arises, the Grace of God for us will also increase to help us meet that larger need and the grace that God gives us will always be sufficient, however great our need might be!

It is true that God does not give us grace in advance of our need. He does not give us grace today to meet tomorrow's needs. But tomorrow He will give us grace sufficient for tomorrow's needs.

Read the blessed Promise: "And God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work."

Oh soul, distressed and burdened, realize this blessed fact and believe it with all your heart, that God's grace is all sufficient to keep you and to sustain you.

Your "exceptional case" will bring you "exceptional grace."

THOSE WHO REMAIN

When death visits a home, the first concern is to perform the last service to the loved one in a becoming manner. What ever is done must express all the reverance and affection that is felt at such a time. But in addition to this a further responsibilty rests upon the funeral director. It is his privilege and duty to lessen as far as lies within his power, the burdens laid upon those who remain. By countless little acts of thoughtfulness he can make the way easier for them.

We consider this part of our work as important as any other. Our highest aim is to have our patrons look upon us as trusted friends, ready and anxious to render sympathetic assistance to those who remain behind.

B. R. FELLOWS,
ar?? Funeral Director.
