THE SOCIAL WANDERER

DEAR ROAMER:

Despite the drenching rain last Saturday, Old Chestertown Day was a great success. Visitors from far and near thronged the streets, going from house to house and everyone was in a merry mood. Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Cannan entertained at a luncheon that day in honor of Mr. Cannan's mother and father, who were their house guests, and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Andrews who returned here from a ten day visit to New York.

Mrs. Hynson Rogers was also hostess at luncheon in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Webb of Ruxton, near Baltimore. So, many of the pilgrims had a good start anyway.

Entertaining seems to be picking up a little. This week, Mrs. Harry Deringer was hostess at her second and third luncheons given on Wednesday and Friday.

To-night, Miss Nancy Jean Usilton will entertain at a picnic to be held on the bay shore in honor of her house guests, Miss Ann Dale and Mr. Kenneth Haynes, of Balfont, Pa.

To-morrow, Sunday night, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Strong, Mrs. Barclay Kilbourne, and Mrs. Thomas Massey will be joint hosts at a buffet supper, which will be given at Mrs. Massey's country home.

Now, don't these all sound attractive? Once again, I'm hoping for the weather to be kind.

On Monday evening of this week, Mr. Richard Hall was given a surprise party in the nature of a shower, by members of the Chestertown High School Faculty, of which, he is a member. Miss Lois Baxter, whose marriage to Mr. Hall will take place June 18, was among those present, and was also the recipient of some very lovely gifts.

Now, let's take a look around at some of the travellers. Of course all of the Bermuda crowd are fast getting ready to set sail next Friday. Among them will be: Mr. and Mrs. Allan A. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Eben F. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. R. Hynson Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Simon Westcott, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Huey. More details next week.

Miss Elizabeth Brown spent last week at a house party held in the suburbs of Wilmington and this week end, will be a guest of Miss Ellen Adair and her parents at their summer cottage in the Pocono Mountains. Mrs. H. Clay Brown visited several days this week in Baltimore, as the guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Olive Gilpin.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Strong were guests last week-end of Mr. and Mrs. H. Gilpin Brown at their home in Cynwyd, Pa. Mr. and Mrs. Brown will be guests here this week-end.

Mrs. Clarence F. Perkins and her daughter, Miss Elizabeth Perkins, of Baltimore, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Eben F. Perkins last week-end.

Mrs. Frank Simpers has returned from Baltimore, where she visited, to be near her son-in-law, Mr. James Chapman, who was recently operated on for appendicitis at St. Agnes Hospital. Mr. Chapman is recuperating nicely.

Mrs. Frank Connelly, of Thurmont, has been the guest of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Julian T. Powre for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lindsay, of Media, Pa., were week-end guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Bacon.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Bingham, Jr., of Philadelphia, Pa., will be week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Beck.

And thus endeth the reel of the week. Must stop, go places and see things. Coming with me?

Yours on the path,

THE WANDERER

ODDS AND ENDS FROM C. H. S.

Well, Rally Day at Salisbury was a worse failure than the one here, in the way of weather. It rained practically all the time. The track there is a combination of sand and mud, and the runners slipped and slid around it. If anyone had the misfortune of getting behind a runner, he was soon covered with mud. Kent County, in spite of this, returned with 47 points, finishing fourth. However, we hope for better results next year.

The Tennis Club has been formed now, with Miss Bryan as the advisor. The officers are as follows:

Francis Kreeger	President
Ruth MacVean	Secretary
Catherine Newton	Treasurer

There has been a full program of matches planned, and if you feel in the mood for tennis, just drop around to Eliasons' Court, and you're sure to see a good match.

During the last week, if you happened to go past the High School, and saw a crowd of pupils standing on the front steps trying to look pretty for Miss Smith, don't be alarmed. It was just the pictures for the Dragon being taken. These pictures are all being taken by Alan Eliason, and he is making a good job of it. I think you'll agree with me when you see them in the Dragon.

Wandering in the halls during the last half hour of school lately, you might think there is magic around. It is the Seniors practicing their Commencement songs. That class is practically made up of good singers.

Calenders are becoming very popular these days—do you realize that we have less than one month more of school? I suppose I should be glad, but I can't help thinking how long the summer days will be with no school to take from five to six hours every day. Still, I haven't got any too many hours to spare at present, so I'll sign off.
