BETTERTON

Betterton, one of the oldest summer resorts in Maryland will soon become one of the best and it is lifting itself by its own boot straps. On July 1st, 1937, a disasterous fire destroyed a great deal of the amusement area of the town. This spring a group of Betterton's outstanding business men and women who have formed a developing company. The Chesapeake Hotel, the original being the first hotel in Betterton was purchased last week from Mr. Henry Plant. This hotel is situated directly on the beach and has a water frontage from Touchstones Amusement Pier to the Ericsson Pier. The Ericcson Pier has also been purchased from the Bull Line Company. This property consists of the pier, the Ericsson Hill and the Ericsson Cottage. The hotel is being reconditioned both inside and outside and wil be under the management of Mrs. Archie Crew and Mrs. Floyd Smith. All the buildings on the beach will be razed, including the gasoline pier. This pier will be moved to the end of the Ericsson Pier. A clear beach will extend from Turner's Pier to the Ericsson Pier. An elevated board walk will be laid between these two points and joining the Ericsson Pier. Bowling alleys and buildings for concessions will be built on the inner side of the board walk. Attractive bungalow communities and excursion grounds will be developed on the beautiful Ericsson Hill overlooking the bay. Work has begun on these developments and much will be completed by Decoration Day which is the "official opening" of Betterton.

The Chamber of Commerce held its first meeting for the summer at Brice's Store on Monday evening with a large attendance. A benefit dance will be given at the dance hall, the first of the season, on Saturday evening, May 21st. Ways and Means of Advertising and of Transportation were discussed. It is expected that we will have a boat direct to Betterton this summer.

Over a hundred persons attended the Bingo Party given last Friday night at the Royal Swan by the Firemen's Auxiliary. Twenty five dollars was made on the door receipts and ten dollars was made on the blanket which was won by Mr. Cushing of Chestertown. This auxiliary was formed two weeks after the firemen were organized and have already been instrumental in getting a number of things for the firemen. Mrs. William E. Owens is the president, Mrs. Ray King, vice president, Mrs. Arthur Newsome the secretary and Mrs. Robert Quillan, the treasurer. They hold their meeting twice each month, while the firemen have theirs every Tuesday evening. The auxiliary had fifty charter members and the fire company, nearly one hundred.

The Recreation Center is proving to be an interesting Monday evening affair. Mrs. Catherine Groves is in charge and the gatherings are held in the school house. At the square dance last week the figures were "called" by Mr. Cramer, who learned them from his father and he in turn from his father, over a hundred years ago.

The Parent Teachers Association held its monthly meeting at the school house on Tuesday evening, with Dr. Whitsitt the new county health officer as the guest speaker.

The Girl Scouts held a bake on Saturday afternoon, the proceeds to go toward a furd for a summer camp.

The Boy Scouts, who meet every Friday night, have begun their spring hikes and camping.

Mr. Ward and Mr. James Owens will open a butchers shop and green vegetables at Sutton's butcher shop. They will have their opening on Saturday.

The Epworth League of the Methodist Church celebrated its thirty fifth anniversary on Sunday evening. This league has been actively functioning without a break during this time, a record that is probably not equalled in the Wilmington conference. The officers for the year were also installed, with Mrs. Floyd Smith, the president; Miss Dorothy Crew first vice president; Mr. Charles Joiner, Jr., second vice president; Mrs. Norman Crew, third vice president; Arthur Newsome, Jr., fourth vice president; Miss Anna Crew secretary and Mrs. Richard Fellows the treasurer.

Mr. George Turner and family have moved from Philadelphia to the Belmont Cottage. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Brice from the Brice bungalow to Mrs. Howard Owens cottage, Mr. Edward Bramble has moved to Kennedyville, after selling his house on Wheelers Avenue to Mr. Charles Brice.

Mr. Ringgold Price, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Price is on a thirty day furlough. Mr. Price has just finished a three year term in the United States Navy and had re-enlisted for three years.

Children's Day service will be held at the Methodist Church tomorrow evening beginning at eight o'clock.
