REPORT OF SCOUT ACTIVITIES FOR KENT COUNTY

District Camporee To Be Held

The postponed Kent County Camporee will be held at Camp Cardinal on the Eliason farm near Tolchester on June 10 and 11. The Camporee was formally scheduled for May 27 and 28 but had to be called of because of bad weather. All Kent County Scouts, parents, friends are welcome This Camporee will mark the first leg of an extensive camping program which is being planned of Kent County Scouts in the near future. Plans were announced by Scout Field Executive Charles R. Andreas, for a real out-door program will be started next fall. Every Kent County Scout is urged to attend this camporee.

Five Scouts Graduate

Five Scouts of Troop No. 130 of Chestertown graduated from Chestertown High School on June 8. These include Scouts Milton Dorf, Donald Latham, Robert Logan, Charles Rollison and John Eliason. Two of these Scouts are active in the Sea Scout Patrol, one associate member, one a regular Scout, and one a Scout leader. Assistant Scoutmaster John Eliason gave an essay on Scouting at the graduation exercises. The fact stressed was the close connection between Scouting and the Schools.

Scouts Win Awards At Graduation

Scout William Robert Logan won the Fred G. Usilton Declamation Medal for Boys at the annual Declamation Contest which was held in The Chestertown High School. Scout Logan also won the W. B. Copper Memorial Medal for high character. Scouter John Eliason won the History Club medal. The W. B. Copper Memorial Medal symbalizes the high ideas for which the Scout program stands for and in as much as it was won by a Scout he is being congratulated by all the members of his troop and other Scouters.

Patrol Wins Troop Contest

The Ghost patrol under the leadership of Patrol Leader James Crouch won the annual spring troop inter-patrol contest. Scout Elmer Thomas is Assistant Patrol Leader of this patrol which consists of the following Scouts: Harvey Blyman, Paul Corrington, John Fowler, James Bringman and Jimmy Todd. This patrol will get a trip to Philadelphia to visit Franklin Institute. The Eagle Patrol under the leadership of Patrol Leader Calvin Lynch was second.

Troop Promotions Announced

The following promotions were announced on June 9 by Assistant Scoutmaser John Eliason: Senior Patrol Leader Noble Riedy to Junior Assistant Scoutmaster; Patrol Leader Merhle Fox to Senior Patrol Leader; Assistant Patrol Leader Rollison Baxter to Patrol Leader of Eagle Patrol; Assistant Quartermaster Robert Miller to Assistant Patrol Leader of Eagle Patrol; Assistant Patrol Leader E. Van Petten to Patrol Leader of Horse Patrol; Scout Joe Sutton to Assistant Patrol Leader of Horse Patrol; Assistant Patrol Leader Elmer Thomas to Patrol Leader of Beaver Patrol; Scout John Fowler to Assistant Patrol Leader of Ghost Patrol; Scout Charles Gill to Troop Quartermaster; Scout Edgar Pyle to Assistant Quartermaster; and Scout Elmer Thomas in charge newspaper publicity. Former Patrol Leaders Calvin Lynch and Allan Gill have been accepted into the Sea Scout Patrol.

QUAKER NECK NEWS

Clifton, the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Townsend, of near Pomona, is in the Kent and Queen Anne Hospital having being carried there on Tuesday morning and operated on for appendicitis. At this writing he's getting along nicely.

Rev. Robert L. Kirby, of Elliott Island, visited his mother, Mrs. Ida V. Kirby on Monday afternoon. Mrs. Kirby has not been so well for a couple of weeks and yesterday, June 1th, she quietly observed her 77th birthday at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Walbert received word of a new grand daughter, born to the parents of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Calvert in Florida on Saturday. Mrs. Calvert was Miss Dorothy Walbert. The baby will be named Connie Lynn.

Work is progressing rapidly on the new macadamized road in Wilkins Lane which was started a few days ago.

Mowbray Church held its Children's Day last Sunday with a splendid crowd and the children did very well. Much credit is due Miss Margaret Stoops for training the children so well. We were very sorry our Superintendent, Mrs. Ida V. Kirby, could not be with us that night due to illness. That was the first children day service for many years she has failed to offer prayer in the service. Tomorrow night it will be Children's Day at Bond.

Mr. and Mrs. William Stoops and son, Billy, of Fairlee, visited William's mother and father, on Sunday. Billy took part at Mowbray Children's Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Elburn, of Piney Neck were guests on Sunday of Mrs. [illegible] Startt. Returning home with them was the former's sister, Lee, of Baltimore, who has been staying with her neice, Mrs. Edith Gosman for a week.

Children are happy with the closing of the school year with a picnic at both schools. Robert Logan and Anna Lucht from Quaker Neck graduated from Chestertown High School.

The Bond Church Aid met last Thursday at the home of Mrs. James Deford with a fair attendance. Those elected for the coming year were: Mrs. George Carroll, president; Mrs. Nelson Watson, Vice President; Miss Daisy Starr, Secty.; Mrs. Ida Reed, Treas. The Aid has set July 1st for a chicken supper.

Mr. and Mrs. Solemon Walbert and children, of Broad Neck visited relatives in Quaker Neck on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Henry Brown and daughter, Mrs. Nina Burt and daughters, of Mannington, W. Va., were guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Brown at Pomona over the week end, Mr. Brown going on to Baltimore to attend the funeral of his brother on Saturday. Miss Evelyn Brown, of Baltimore was home to spend a few days with her parents.

We are sorry to learn Mr. William Dickerson, Sr., isn't feeling so well for couple of days. His son and daughter in law, visited him on Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. William Dickerson.

We are glad to know Mrs. Edward Greenwood's granddaughter, Patsy Lieby, of near Prices, Md., is much better after being quite ill for some time.

Miss Margaret Stoop will leave in a couple of weeks to attend summer school at University of Maryland.

Rev. F. H. Truitt a former pastor of Mowbray and Bond graduated on Monday last at Washington College. He is now stationed in Pa.

HEARTBURN, ACID STOMACH, GAS ON STOMACH?

Have you tried
ALKA-SELTZER?

Alka-Seltzer makes a sparkling alkaline solution. As it contains an analgesic (acetyl-salicylate), it first relieves the pain of everyday ailments, then by helping to restore the alkaline balance, tends to remove the cause when due to hyperacidity of the stomach.

Get Alka-Seltzer at your drug store in 30¢ and 60¢ packages for home use, or ask for a glass of Alka-Seltzer at the soda fountain.
