THE SOCIAL WANDERER

DEAR ROAMER:

Seems like I've been away from you for a long time! But here we are again, and if not up to form, I plead your patience.

The last two weeks have risen to a social pace that Chestertown rarely attains and I understand all the parties were delightful.

The day was beautiful for the "open house" at which Mrs. Lewin W. Wickes and her daughter, Mrs. Henry Kratzer were hostesses on Saturday afternoon, entertaining about a hundred guests, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Atherton, of Germantown, Pa., who were house guests. Mrs. Atherton and her 2 children have remained throughout the week.

The dinner dance following, at the Club, they say, was a howling success. The storm came early enough on Sunday afternoon to all some two hundred to reach Wide Hall and attend the party given by Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur W. Hubbard and Mr. Wilbur Ross Hubbard. Everyone has told me what a good time they had. Mr. and Mrs. George Morris and their daughter, Patricia assisted in receiving.

And now all eyes this week have been focused on the June weddings. Three of importance and much interest take place to-day and the third next Saturday. Many will go up to Middletown, Delaware to-night to witness the marriage in St. Anne's Episcopal Church of Mr. and Mrs. James Woodall's youngest daughter, Charlotte to Mr. Raymond Dennett, of Cambridge, Mass. Following the ceremony which takes place at 7.30 this evening, there will be a reception following at the home of the bride's parents in Georgetown.

Miss Woodall was graduated from St. Mary's Hall, Burlington, N. J., and Wilson College, Chambersburg, Pa., Mr. Dennett, who is the son of Doctor and Mrs. Tyler Dennett, of Hague, New York, is a graduate of Phillips Academy, Andover, Mass., and of Harvard University of the class of 1936. At present he is a graduate secretary of the Phillips Brooks House Association of Harvard University and is engaged in graduate work. He is a member of the Signet Society and the Harvard Club of Boston.

This afternoon Miss Anne Smith will entertain at tea in honor of Mrs. Dennett, who will be her house guest over the week-end, Mrs. Dennett and Miss Smith having been class mates at school.

Another wedding to-day will be that of Miss Lois Baxter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rollison Baxter to Mr. Richard W. Hall. The ceremony will take place at 5 p. m. at Christ M. P. Church.

Miss Baxter will have Mrs. Enna B. Lewis, her sister as matron of honor, and the folowing bridesmaids: Miss Sarah E. Baxter, Mrs. Miriam Kieffer, Miss Dorothy E. Warren, of Montgomery, Alabama, and Miss Helen E. Doenges, of Cambridge, Md.

Mr. Hall will have his brother, Mr. George A. Hall as his best man, and Mr. Jack E. Kieffer, Mr. Grover B. Hastings, of Greensboro, Mr. T. Allan Stradley and Mr. William E. Wright of Vienna, Md., will act as ushers.

The third is the wedding of Miss Rose Virginia Strong, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Strong, and Mr. Frank O. Sutton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Linwood A. Sutton, which will take place at Old St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church this afternoon at two o'clock. Miss Helen Strong, sister of the bride, will be Maid of Honor and the best man will be Mr. Clarence Sutton, brother of the groom.

Then on next Saturday, invitations have been received to the wedding of Miss Frances Gwynne Metcalfe, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Challice Haydon Metcalfe to Mr. Charles Leland Harrison, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Norris Harrison, of Rydal, Pa. The ceremony will be performed at St. Luke's Church, Church Hill, at two o'clock, and will be followed by a reception at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Metcalfe in Sudlersville.

Miss Mary Carey Metcalfe will be her sister's maid of honor. The other attendants will be Miss Marion Alexander, Springfield, Mass., and Miss Anna Haxdon Baden, Maden, Md.; Miss Mary Gwynn Branham, Miss Peggy Branham, and Miss Fredericka Metcalfe, of Chestertown, and Miss Joan Greene, Cleveland, all cousins of the bride.

Robert B. Harrison, Centreville, Md., will be best man for his brother. The ushers wil be Daniel Greenwood, Robert Greenwood, Eugene McGuckin, Charles Wilson, John Sinlay and B. M. Roe, Sudlersville.

Miss Metcalfe was graduated from Goucher College, Baltimore.

Mr. Harrison was graduated from Haverford College Friday.

Mrs. Harry Toulson announces the marriage of her daughter, Doris Amanda Toulson to Thomas Walter Conley, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Conley, of Sudlersville, Md., The ceremony taken place at Millington, Saturday, June 11, 1938.

Rev. Parker preformed the ceremony.

Mary Jean Strong, who graduated from St. Mary's Seminary last week is home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Strong, Harrison Vickers, Jr., has returned from U. of Va., the Truslow sons of Mr. and Mrs. Neale Truslow are back sailing; Francis Mead back from Charlotte Hall and getting ready for camp, and so they go and come.

Commencements all over, we see the smiling faces of the school set home again joining forces with those of the crowd who did their learning here.

Jack Kibler left yesterday, joining Major Lamborn to go up to New York in preparation for the opening of camp Red Cloud, and the Plattsburg Camp.

William T. Dixon has been home from Princeton a few days, enjoying the house party his sisters, Bessie and Josie gave last week-end at their mother's place, Green Point Farm. Bill has now gone North where he will tutor some lad during the summer.

Meanwhile, Mrs. Pearce Crisfield, of Savannah, Ga., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. William T. Dixon.

Mrs. W. Dorsey Hines left on Thursday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rudulph Tull at Sherwood Forest, and from there will go to Baltimore for the week-end to viist her sister-in-law Mrs. Edw. Herzog.

Miss Betty White, of Chicago, has been a guest this week of Miss Elizabeth Brown. Dr. Eldridge Eliason, of Philadelphia, was a guest last week-end at the home of Mrs. H. Clay Brown.

Miss Mamie Carroll has left for Baltimore to be a guest of her sister, Miss Louise Carroll for two weeks. At the expiration of that time, together, they will go to Newark, N. J., where they will visit their brother, Mr. Ambrose Carroll for the remainder of the summer.

Miss Margaret Jefferson is spending the week-end in Upper Marlboro. Last night, Friday, she attended the Hunt Cup Ball, which will be folowed by the Horse Show and many large parties afterwards, to-day.

Dr. and Mrs. Julian S. Corrington and family left on Monday to motor to Tennessee where they will visit Dr. Corrington's family for several weeks.

PERSONALS

Mrs. J. S. Laird and two sons, James Ives and Joseph are guests at the home of Miss Fannie Hartman and Mrs. Ives Leonard.

Mrs. Bell Smith will leave today for a visit with her son in Louisville, Kentucky.

Dr. Blackiston B. Wroth, of Atlanta, Georgia, is the guest of his mother, Mrs. Thomas Wroth on Front street.

There's a lot more I might tell you, but after two week's absence, this is the best I can do as a breaker.

Ever yours,

THE WANDERER

REPORT OF HEALTH ACTIVITIES HERE DURING MAY

Whooping Cough Prevalent At Betterton

The communicable disease situation has been unimportant for the most part during the month of May. There was a flurry of eight whooping cough cases in the Betterton school, which we think will end because quarantine measures were instituted and the end of school is near. Your health officer can be of much more service to the county in the prevention of communicable disease if physicians, teachers, and interested parties inform him early of the specific communicable disease. The time to prevent the spread of a disease is when the first case develops. A mad dog in a steel cage is of no danger to anyone.

National Child Health Day came on a Sunday this year. Appropriate programs and talks were given in all our schools and churches, and over the radio. Our annual May Day Child Health Conference was held on May 6 at the Health Center and at Garnett High School. We were very sorry that Dr. Knox, who has been with us on this occasion for the past six years, could not be with us. However, he sent his able assistant, Dr. Wogman, who held conference with the mothers of seven infants, 22 preschool children, and two school children. I believe that every day should be child health day—that every child has the inalionable right to a physician's guidance.

Once a year we make a big show over our Mothers. Flowery speeches are made from every platform; yet, do you ever think of what she went through so that you could be where you are today. Every expectant mother should have competent prenatal care from at least the fourth month of pregnancy. No matter what her economic status. Your state health Department has made this possible. Once per month, Dr. Peckham, an obstetrician from Johns Hopkins, spends a day with us examining and advising expectant mothers referred to us by physicians or midwives. Twelve patients were rendered this service during May.

Twice per year, under our Crippled Children Service, we have with us Dr. Rogers, orthopedist from Kernan's Hospital. Orthopedic cases from all over the county are brought in to the Health Center for these conferences. The cases may consist of anything from flat feet to the crookedest spine. In any event, the case has the benefit of the most expert advice. In May Dr. Rogers saw 18 cases.

I am glad to announce that beginning with June we will have a tuberculosis clinic every month instead of every other month. I have been much impressed since coming to Kent County with the amount of tuberculosis we have. Certainly, we should be able to do more to help those people and protect others. The state at present has facilities to take care of every open case of tuberculosis in well equipped sanitoria.

At the request of Mr. Louis C. Robinson, our superintendent of schools, your health officer visited every white school in the county to examine those athletes participating in the more strenuous field day competitions. Only two children had to be ruled out because of some physical defect.

We continued making our syphilis survey in the colored schools. Wassermans were taken on 237 school children during the month. We expect to finish all the colored schools before the term is over.

VISITING AT OCEAN CITY

Mrs. Harry W. Pinder and daughter, Mrs. Oscar C. Stevens and Francis Gibson and son, Francis, Jr., of Massey, enjoyed Tuesday in Ocean City, N. J. Mrs. Pinder and little grandson are staying a few days with her son and daughter in law, Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Pinder, Jr.

American Store To Hold Cooking School Next Week

Starting next Monday, June 20th and continuing through Saturday, June 25th, the American Store at 305 High Street, Chestretown will have a cooking school and demonstration on Majestic "Waterless" Cookware. Miss Dona Bivins, factory representative and food expert, will be in charge. She will conduct the school in a neighborly-like fashion.

Cooknig vegetables without water, roasting and baking without an oven, are a few of the highlights that are accomplished by Miss Bivins.

Managers Foster Brown and Joseph Vinyard feel the demonstration offers Chestertown housewives an excellent opportunity to become acquainted with the latest cooking devices. There are no obligations, and the cooking school is open to all.

Former Countain Held On Hit And Run Charges

Paul Randall, State officer, of the Easton sub-station, said today hit-run charges against John H. Caldwell, principal of the Cordova High School, were being withheld pending the outcome of injuries received by a youth said to be struck by Caldwell's automobile.

The victim, Owen A. Marshall, 20, of Easton, was found unconscious on the Easton-Cordova road early Saturday, Randall said. Easton Emergency Hospital authorities said Marshall, who was still unconscious today, had a fractured skull and had only a "fifty-fifty chance" of recovering, Randall added.

Randall, in his report of the accident said a screw from the door handle of an automobile and a farm-by-farm check of residents between Cordova and Chapel, near Easton, led him to Caldwell's automoblie. The hearing has not been held.

Mr. Caldwell was one of three applicants for Superintendant of Schools for Kent County.
