On Politics
UNCLE JAKE.

Dear Mr. Editor:

This job of trying to keep track of what is going on in politics ain't what it used to be. Now-a-days there either ain't nothing interesting to listen to or so much is going on that everything is all confuddled. That last thing is now in effect and if people think that women are the champion talkers they ought to have been in the store this week and heard the boys. I expected to see some of the boys get sick on account of swallowing tobacco juice cause they really ain't got time to git rid of it without surrendering the floor on when they do they got to start shouting to make themselves heard. Everybody's talking about everybody running for some office but as far as I can hear none of the office runners have filed with the men who run the election or have put up their money. Cause there is plenty of time for that but until they do it looks to me like they is looking to see if the vaccination is going to take. As for local politics, now that the so-called independent Democrats have announced their ticket, everybody is speculating on who the regulars are going to bring out. The boys says that Senator Brice will be the candidate for Senate and other mentioned are Howard Leaverton from down around Rock Hall for Clerk of Court, Harvey Moore from Betterton for Treasurer, Julian Hurt from Georgetown for County Commissioner, Frank H. Elliott from Fairlee for Register of Wills. I hear as how Dick Rasin and Harry Stavelly want to be on the Orphans' Court, two spaces for County Commissioners and one space for the Legislature which the boys don't seem to know nothing about. When it comes to the Sheriff I hear there are already seven who have permitted the boys to talk about. Bob Lee, Foster Brown, Phil Sewell, Gale Usilton, Doc Moyer, Merritt Thompson and Ralph Cannon. That ought to be enough to keep the criminals in line. That sums up about a week's store gossip except about the State jobs. The boys just can't figure out this Tydings-Radcliffe hook-up and who is new deal and who ain't. Somebody said last night that Governor Nice said over the radio that he didn't have the heart not to be Governor, again so that he could keep this State the paradise it has been for the past four years. He says as how everybody wants him so bad he is going to cast aside his personal comfort and pleasure and sacrifice himself for four more years. Now about them 52 tags he says he toiled and struggled to help the motorists out but the Democrats wouldn't let him. Maybe he will put the price down to 50 cents this time.

The Independent Democrats have taken the bull by the horns and endorsed Mayor Jackson for Governor. And that brings up the Governor question which is enough to make anybody dizzy. Herb O'Connor, they tell me, has the favor of a lot of the ladies but that the Mayor is trying to look younger every day. Now the name of Bill Gordy is also in the Conversation and some say he is goiner fool em. I see a number of the boys are wearing Gordy buttons. I don't hear much mention of the other candidates but the store is a small place on maybe they are talking a plenty about them other places. The boys say that when the regulars have a meeting to see who the people want for candidates they will have a lot more to talk about but if they do any more talk than they will have to put up a speakers platform on charge admission to get on it, but that might spail everything on turn the store into a Quaker meeting house. I ain't caring cause all I do is listen anyhow.

That's all,

UNCLE JAKE

P. S. I hear as how the Independent Democrats have changed their candidate for Legislature from J. Horton Silcox to Herman M. Crew from down in Still Pond Neck. The boys didn't say why. They also say this group has come out flat-footed for Mayor Jackson for Governor.
