RADIANT LIVING

Attie Junk
By Rev. C. M. Griffith
Methodist Pastor of Deals Island, Md.

The discovery of the power of right thinking is not a new one. St. Paul was well aware of it thousands of years ago. He exhorts us in his Philippian Epistle to think only upon things that are constructive and positive in their nature.

He directs us to hold before our minds only those things that are positive in character and quality, to think only those thoughts that are pleasant in atmosphere and inspiring in character, thoughts that put a smile on your face, a warmth in your heart, a hopefulness in your outlook and a spirit of success in your undertakings.

Sit down and seriously consider your thought habits.

Have you ever gone up into the attic and noticed how much junk has been accumulating there, old letters, old books, old clothes, etc.? The devil has a lot of junk stored away in the minds of people.

There is that pile of old letters and books, records of unhappy personal relationships that happened in your past life. The devil would have you keep in memory all these unhappy things. He wants you to read them over again and again, to keep alive in your mind and heart all your former unhappiness.

The thing to do with this attic junk of former unhappiness is to clean it out.

From now on refuse to call up, go over, meditate upon, or narrate to another any unpleasant thing of the past. Why spoil today's happiness by dragging into it the memory of some unhappy occasion of yesterday.

Yesterday is gone. Forget its unpleasantness. This is today!
