The ministers from elsewhere who attended Home Coming at Raun Chapel Sunday were: Rev. A. F. T. Raun, of Washington, D. C.; Rev. C. L. Dawson, of Ridgeville, Md.; Rev. W. A. Donoway, of Delmar, Del.; Rev. Baucher, of Kennedyville, Rev. Roberts of Chestertown, Rev. A. N.

Stubblebine and Rev. A. G. Lynch, of Rock Hall.

At Raun Chapel in Skinners Neck on Sunday, Home Coming and the 17th anniversary of the Church was observed. At the morning worship service Mrs. Florence Ashley and Miss Mary Hill sang a duet, Mr. Grover Nicholson and Mrs. Alcen Simpson were soloists. Morning sermon by Rev. W. A. Donoway, at 2 p. m. Sunday School was held with Mr. James Boulter as Superintendent. Mr. Nicholson led the song service. Miss Marguerite Rolph was soloist. Betty Mercer and Olivia Hynson sang a duet. Rev. C. L. Dawson delivered the sermon.

At the evening worship service, Rev. A. F. T. Raun delivered a fine sermon on "Strange Events." Soloists were sung by Betty Mercer and Grover Nicholson. The double quartette from Chestertown gave a pretty selection.

Mrs. Nannie Hadaway was soloist at Wesley Chapel Sunday School. Mr. Grover Nicholson and Jesse Downey sang a duet. After Sunday School, Wesley joined their sister Church for the day.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kelley, (nee Miss Louise Eisenwien) who were married August 28, 1938, at Elkton, Md.

QUAKER NECK NEWS

The Executive Board of the three groups of the Farm Bureau of the different districts met with Mr. Martin Sutton at the Vernon apartments one evening last week in regards to making plans for county-wide get-together about November 19th. Mr. Sutton attended the meeting from Quaker Neck.

"Congratulations" to Mrs. Myrtle Kendall who has a baby girl and to Mrs. Mary Smith who has a baby boy. Both were born this past week at the local hospital.

Don't forget the annual fall supper of Moberay Church which will be held October 21st. Read advertisement later in this paper.

Mrs. Lulu E. Startt, who has been asking treatments at the University hospital in Baltimore, is getting along nicely and will only have to make one more trip to the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Hadaway attended the home coming service at Worton M. E. Church to hear Rev. Robert Green, their former pastor, reach to a large crowd.
