WASHINGTON MILK SHIPPERS IN THREE COUNTIES MEET

B. E. Wallace and George Debnam On Board Of Directors

Dairymen of Kent, Queen Anne's and Talbot Counties, who ship their product to the Washington market, have formed the Eastern Shore Milk Producers Cooperative Incorporative.

Directors named are: Leon Andrus, Guy Harmon, George R. Debnam, III, Allan B. Lane, F. G. Schaefer and B. E. Wallace. Officers of the group are: F. G. Schaefer, president, Guy Harmon, vice-president, and George R. Debnam, III, secretary-treasurer.

Main purpose of the group is said to be the upholding of the quality of milk being produced; thereby keeping this standard at the same high level which rates it as the best of any group shipping to the Washington market. This market, incidentally, has the most stringent requirements of any in the U. S. A.

While there are but 23 shippers in this organization, the group shipped a total of 4½ million pounds of milk to Washington in 1938.

Information regarding the group and membership requirements can be obtained by writing to George R. Debnam, III, Rock Hall, Maryland.
