RADIANT LIVING

Our Definite Task

By Rev. C. M. Griffith Methodist Pastor of Deals Island, Md.

It was at that early morning hour. Out of the mists that hung along the shores of Galilee, the risen Christ appeared to the discouraged fishermen coming in from an all night fishing trip. When they recognized Him and hastened ashore to His side. He invited them to partake of an appetizing breakfast which He had personally prepared for them.

They had been on the lake all night but had caught nothing. But now, sitting around that early morning campfire in conversation with the risen Christ, they came to realize that they were not to fish in that little old lake any longer. The Christ had called them to a much larger mission. They were to go forth into the world to catch men.

At the words of the Master, "Follow me," Peter had risen from the circle and had walked with Christ away from the group. How long he had thus walked he did not know, but suddenly he became aware that he was walking alone. He turned about, thinking the Christ was behind him. But the Christ was nowhere to be seen. He had vanished as suddenly as He had appeared.

For a moment he stood startled. The world again seemed suddenly empty. Then he began to retrace his steps toward the disciples.

"And what did Christ mean when He said, 'Follow Me'?" he asked himself. "Ah, I have it! I am to follow Him as He leads me all through life, even though I may not see Him! All else but following Christ is nothing to me. Christ is all, all, all!"

As with Peter, so with us. Life's greatest privilege is to follow the Christ who ever lives. He may lead!
