THE SOCIAL WANDERER

Dear Roamer

Back with you again in time to wish you A Happy Easter. Sorry to have run out on you last week, but I happened to be one of the multitude of those that move in the Spring. If you have ever moved you know that one has no time for letter chatting.

I'm all behind in news, and if I repeat a morsel that you already know, bear with me till I get back in form again.

One of my first callers was that charming little Mrs. Ray Dennet who was Babe Woodall before her marriage last June. She and Mr. Dennet are making their home in Cambridge, Mass., but have been visiting Babe's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Woodall at Georgetown for two weeks.

All holidays mark home-coming events and already Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Giraitis have come from Hartford, Conn., as well as Miss Harriette Welch from Sag Harbor, L. I., to spend Easter with their aunts, Mrs. Etta Fountain and Mrs. Herbert Skipper.

Coming from Alexandria, Va., Mr. and Mrs. William P. Ellington will spend the week-end here, as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. B. Usilton. Mrs. Usilton will return to Alexandria with them Sunday night.

Mrs. Ernest Strong and Miss Helen Strong returned from Harrisonburg, Va., last Sunday where they had been visiting Mrs. Strong's parents. On Monday, Miss Helen Strong was operated on for appendicitus, so their arrival home was certainly opportune. However, she is recuperating rapidly.

Mrs. Claude Truslow will return on Monday from Miami, Florida, after spending ten days there as a guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson R. Collins who have their winter home there.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Selby have taken the apartment formerly occupied by Mrs. Lewin W. Wickes and Mrs. Henry Kratzer in the Wickes Apartments. Mrs. Kratzer has motored to California for an indefinite stay.

Mr. George Brice and his daughter, Miss Virginia Brice were honor guests last Friday night at a buffet supper given by Mrs. Etta Fountain and Mrs. Herbert Skipper when they entertained about 50 friends at their home on Queen St.

On Saturday evening Mr. Brice and Miss Brice were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Lee Robinson at an oyster scald. Most of the guests were the fox hunting crowd.

Mrs. Wilbur W. Hubbard has returned to her home "Wide Hall" after spending the winter months in Washington.

Miss Frances Alice Clements, spent the week-end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alday Clements, on Campus Avenue. Guests accompanying Miss Clements were Miss Mary Street, of Fort Worth, Texas, and Miss Carol Schlicker, of Albany N. Y., students at Teachers' College, Columbia University, N. Y.

Miss Elizabeth Covey has returned to Washington after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Covey for the holidays. Miss Covey is head of the Department of Mathematics at the National Cathedral School in that city.

Mr. and Mrs. John Harrison will spend this week-end here at their country home, Broadfields, where they so frequently entertain.

Our Garden Club will hold its April meeting on Tuesday, April 11th at 2 o'clock, at the American Legion room on Queen St. The meeting will be in the form of a little flower show of daffodils or any flowering schrubs, entries of which will be open only to members of the club. Miss Miriam Leaverton will give a talk on daffodils and shrubs. Following this part of the meeting the members will adjourn to the home of their President, Mrs. J. Thomas Kibler for a cup of tea.

The Spring dance will be held at the Country Club on Saturday, April 15th. This is really going to be a peppy dance according to reports of the committee. Music will be furnished by that certain grand orchestra from Baltimore, and during the evening any number of surprise features are in store. I surely hope to see you there. The patronesses will be Mrs. Allan A. Harris, Mrs. Henry Clay Brown and Mrs. H. A. Kratzer.

Invitations have been issued by Mrs. Harry Childs Hughes to a bridge luncheon on Tuesday, April 18 at the Country Club.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank Hines will leave to-morrow for a two weeks motor trip through Virginia. Part of the time they wil visit in Richmond, Va., where their son, Mr. Frank Hines, Jr., has a position.

Dr. and Mrs. Clarke Fontaine will spend the Easter week-end in Pocomoke City.

But now the time of quietude is over, the bells of Easter are ready to chime. May they ring out for you joy, happiness and peace.

Yours with best wishes.

John Carvel Sutton Ill In Philadelphia

John Carvel Sutton, of near Kennedyville, is ill in the Jefferson Hospital in Philadelphia having been stricken suddenly while attending a meeting of the Inter-State Milk Co-operative in that city last week.

At the time of going to press his condition was reported as slightly improved. Mr. Sutton represents this county on the Board of Directors of that organization. He is also a member of the Democratic State Central Committee for this county.

Nutritionist Addresses P. T. A. Group

Miss Leamy, state nutritionist, addressed 24 members of the Galena P. T. A. at the regular monthly meeting held on April 4.

She talked on the factors necessary for the proper nutrition of the growing child. The most important factor of good nutrition is the proper food. The daily diet of a growing child in school should include at least 3 cups of milk, whole wheat foods, fruits, and vegetables. The other factors are the proper amount of rest and sleep and the correction of physical defects.

The Health Community of the P. T. A. has done very successful work this winter in the serving of hot lunches. A card party is to be held on April 14 for the benefit of the P. T. A. "Health Fund."
