

THE SOCIAL WANDERER

DEAR ROAMER

Were you ever so glad to see the sunshine again? It's really feeling and looking like Spring is at last here. Incidentally, the Spring dance last Saturday night was held with the cold rain and wind at its height, but inside one forgot the elements and all who attended apparently had a grand time. The only thing lacking was the lack of a larger crowd. It seems too bad when the music is good, and I mean good, and so much effort is involved, that the Club Members do not come. The Spot dance was lots of fun, the winners being Mr. Philip G. Wilmer and Mrs. Browne Metcalfe, while the winners of the Elimination dance were Miss Peggy Branham and Mr. Phil M. Brooks, Jr. Personally I would have been delighted with any of the prizes.

Among the out-of-town guests were Miss Ruth Harris of Philadelphia, who was a week-end guest of Dr. and Mrs. Gilbert W. Mead and also attended the Interfraternity Dance at the College Friday evening.

Mr. John Clark Mead, of Baltimore spent last week-end visiting his parents at Washington College.

This week-end, Worton Manor the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse D. Maxwell will be the scene of a week-end house party when Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell will have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Paul Creel, Mr. and Mrs. Elroy Wright, of Tarrytown, New York, and Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Adams, of Linden, New Jersey. To-night, Saturday, their hosts will entertain a few friends at a buffet supper in their honor.

To-day is the wedding day of Miss Leonora Harris Springer daughter, of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Springer, of Baltimore to Mr. Daniel Cowles. The wedding will take place at 4 o'clock this afternoon at the home of the bride's parents. Among those from here who will attend include Dr. and Mrs. Frank Hines, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Stam, Mayor and Mrs. Philip G. Wilmer, Mr. and Mrs. Eben Perkins, Mrs. S. Scott Beck, Miss Betty Beck, Mrs. Samuel Emory and Mr. and Mrs. Alan Harris.

Miss Miriam Irene Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Scott Thompson and Mr. James Thomas Bland, son of Mrs. Ruth Bland and Mr. Capt. Tom Bland were married on April 3 in Christ Church in Denton.

MILLINGTON GROUP TO PRESENT PLAY HOSPITAL BENEFIT

Will Be Held At Washington College

Yimmie Yonson's Yob a three act comedy drama will be presented in Chestertown at the William Smith Hall on the campus of Washington College under the auspices of the Kent and Queen Anne Hospital and the First Methodist Church Millington, Maryland.

This is a rollicking comedy filled with laughs a complete evening's entertainment that will linger on in your thinking for weeks after the show is over. Yimmie a slow easy going character says "I'm a putty slick oil son of a gun", and finally turns out to be the hero of the play and brings to book an escaped convict that has robbed Mr. Kent and is in the act of robbing him again.

This play was presented in Millington on two successive nights and drew capacity each evening. It has been presented in some of the great cities in the middle West including Chicago and has been well received by audiences everywhere.

Mousterion the Magician presents a rapid fire series of physical impossibilities, many with a comedy effect, that touches off roars of laughter. Every spiritualist should see the spirit box and spirit jar effects. The corned city of Jack and Jill is worth the price of admission.
