IT WAS STATED in this paper last week that the Federal Public Works Administration has approved a $60,000 improvement to the Chestertown High School. Application for this project was made last year by the former Board of County Commissioners but was not approved because of lack of funds.

AN EDITORIAL in this paper last week with reference unemployment insurance payments for striking miners was a misinterpretation of a statement by State officials. It however turned out to be a prophesy as this week the State Agency ruled that payments shall be paid to these miners.

OLD CHESTERTOWN DAY, the annual celebration of which will be held on Saturday of next week, May 13th, promises to be an outstanding affair. The principal purpose of the celebration is to raise funds for the Chestertown Public Library, a most worthy civic enterprise of public benefit.

THE QUESTION of how to curb the tremendous expense of enforcing law and order in Kent County is one that continually up for discussion among the tax payers of the county with the result that there seems to be no workable solution. Most of the work of the lower Court is the result of drunken brawls among the negro race which carries a penalty of a fine or jail sentence, the latter being generally selected by the accused.

FUNERAL SERVICE FUNERAL HOME

PHONE: CHESTERTOWN 72 378

THOSE WHO REMAIN

When death visits a home, the first concern is to perform the last service to the loved one in a becoming manner. What ever is done must express all the reverence and affection that is felt at such a time. But in addition to this a further responsibility rests upon the funeral director. It is his privilege and duty to lessen as far as lies with him in his power, the burdens laid upon those who remain. By countless little acts of thoughtfulness he can make the way easier for them. We consider this part of our work as important as any other. Our highest aim is to have our patrons look upon us as trusted friends, ready and anxious to render sympathetic assistance to those who remain behind. B. E. FELLOWS, Funeral Director, 827 Phone 5th Bond, Md.
